The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And Lord Lieutenant preſent.

His Excellency John-Jeffries, Earl Camden, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur, the Marquis of Waterford carrying the Cap of Maintenance, and the Earl of Athlone the Sword of State; two Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and then ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Yeoman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint the Commons, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in this Houſe.

And the Commons being come, they with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I HAVE his Majeſty's Commands to aſſemble you in Parliament at this important Period, and to reſort to your Deliberation and Advice.

When I reflect on the Tranquillity which attended the late general Election, I have juſt Ground to believe that the Wiſdom and Firmneſs which were manifeſted by the late Parliament were felt and approved by the Nation at large, and that your Conduct will be actuated by ſimilar Principles in Defence of our happy Conſtitution.

It muſt have given you great Concern, to learn that his Majeſty's Endeavours to reſtore the Bleſſings of Peace have been again fruſtrated by the deſperate Ambition of the French Government. I have his Majeſty's Commands to lay before you his royal Declaration, and the various Papers which paſſed in the Courſe of the late Negotiation, in which the Magnanimity and Moderation of his Majeſty were ſo eminently diſplayed, as to leave no Pretext or Colour for the inſidious Conduct and fallacious Statements of the Enemy.

His Majeſty relies with Confidence on the Spirit of his People of Ireland, who are ſenſible of their Duty to their GOD, their Sovereign, and their Country. He knows they are incapable of being intimidated by any Threats, or deluded by any Offers; and he implicitly depends on the Valour of his Regular and Militia Forces, on the active Loyalty of the Diſtrict Corps, the Courage of the Nation, and the Proweſs of his Fleets and Armies for defeating every hoſtile Attempt which may be made on this Kingdom.

The late ſignal Victory of Admiral Lord Duncan over the Dutch Squadron, atchieved upon their own Coaſts with ſuch profeſſional Skill and heroic Gallantry, has not only added freſh Luſtre to the Glory of his Majeſty's Navy, but has given new Strength and Security to all his Majeſty's Dominions.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have ordered the Public Accounts and the Eſtimates for the enſuing Year to be laid before you. I lament that additional Burthens are ſtill neceſſary in order to maintain the Honor and Security of the Empire in the preſent Exigency; and although from the State of Preparation in which this Kingdom ſtands ſome of the Demands of former Periods will not recur, yet I fear the general Expence of the enſuing Year will not admit of any conſiderable Reduction. When you reflect upon all you have to preſerve, and all you have to expect from the Enemy you have to combat with, I doubt not the Supplies will be chearfully granted. I ſhall endeavour on my Part that they ſhall be faithfully applied.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

In Conſequence of the Addreſſes of the Houſes of Lords and Commons in May laſt, I directed immediate and vigorous Meaſures to be taken for repreſſing Diſaffection in the Northern Parts of the Kingdom, and for reſtoring Security and Confidence to the loyal and well diſpoſed; the Effect of which has been manifeſted in the Return of Subordination and Induſtry in that Quarter. Other Attempts have ſince been made by the Leaders of the Diſaffected in ſome Parts of the Midland and Southern Diſtricts with too much Succeſs, and Emiſſaries have been employed, and Publications have been circulated by them to revive Religious Animoſities, and to open Proſpects of Plunder, by which Means the lower Claſſes have been excited to commit Acts of the moſt horrid horrid Outrage and Barbarity. I have to lament that the Diligence and Activity of the Magiſtrates, though aſſiſted by the Troops which have been ordered into that Part of the Kingdom, have not yet been able entirely to put a ſtop to thoſe Diſturbances. Conſtant Vigilance, and unremitting Exertions, continue to be neceſſary, when all Means are tried to excite the People to Rebellion and Revolt; when a ſyſtematic Plan of Aſſaſſination is adopted and encouraged, and when the moſt audacious Attempts are made to impede and prevent the Adminiſtration of Juſtice.

Amidſt your Exertions for the Defence of the Kingdom, I muſt not omit to recommend to you not to relax your Attention to its Commerce, its Agriculture, and its Manufactures, and eſpecially to that of the Linen, nor will your Liberality be leſs conſpicuous in continuing that Protection to the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and the other charitable Inſtitutions, under which they have ſo long flouriſhed.

His Majeſty has commanded me to declare to you that his firm Reſolution is taken in the preſent arduous Conteſt.—He will not be wanting to his People, but with them will ſtand or fall in the Defence of their Religion, and in the Preſervation of the Independence, Laws and Liberties of his Kingdoms.

It will be a Source of infinite Satisfaction to my Mind if, in the Execution of my Duty, I can contribute to ſupport the generous Determination of my Sovereign, and maintain the Safety and Proſperity of his People. I rely upon your Advice and Co operation, and aided by them, I look forward with Confidence to a happy Iſſue of the Conteſt in which we are engaged.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered, and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table,

Speech to be printed.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to beg Leave to approach his Majeſty with the moſt ſincere and ardent Expreſſions of Duty, Loyalty and Attachment to his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, Family and Government.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we ſhall endeavour to continue that Line of Conduct in Defence of our happy Conſtitution, which we maintained during the laſt Parliament, and which by the Tranquillity of the late general Election appears to have been approved by the Nation for its Wiſdom and Firmneſs.

That we ſincerely lament that the deſperate Ambition of the Government of France has fruſtrated his Majeſty's Endeavours for the Reſtoration of Peace.

To thank his Majeſty for having directed to be laid before us his Majeſty's Declaration upon the Rupture of the Negotiation, and the various Papers which accompanied its Progreſs. The fallacious Proceedings, and inſidious Meaſures of the Enemy are thus expoſed to the World in their true Colours, whilſt the Conduct of his Majeſty diſplays itſelf with equal Magnanimity and Moderation.

That we hope that his Majeſty places a juſt Reliance in the Spirit of his People of Ireland. As long as they are ſenſible of their Duty to their GOD, their Sovereign and their Country, they cannot be ſeduced by any Artifice, or intimidated by any Threats of the Enemy. The Valour of his Majeſty's Regular and Militia Forces, the active Loyalty of the Diſtrict Corps, the Courage of the Nation, and the Proweſs of his Majeſty's Fleets and Armies, inſpire us with a well founded Confidence, that every hoſtile Attack upon the Kingdom will be defeated.

That we ſincerely join in thoſe Congratulations which his Majeſty has received on the late brilliant Succeſs of Admiral Lord Duncan over the Dutch Fleet. A Victory ſo complete, atchieved over the hoſtile Squadron on their own Coaſts with ſuch ſignal Addreſs and heroic Bravery, affords additional Security to all his Majeſty's Dominions, and augments the unequalled Glory of his Majeſty's Navy.

That we have much Satisfaction in obſerving, that in the Northern Parts of the Kingdom, Security and Confidence have in a great Degree been reſtored to the Loyal and well-diſpoſed, and that the Appearance of Subordination and Induſtry has revived. That we juſtly attribute this happy Alteration to the vigorous Meaſures which were adopted by his Majeſty's Government for repreſſing the Efforts of Diſaffection, in conſequence of the Addreſſes of both Houſes of Parliament in May laſt. That we muſt, at the ſame Time, lament that in ſome of the Midland and Southern Diſtricts freſh Diſorders have broke forth. The Emiſſaries of the diſaffected have there exerted themſelves with too much Succeſs, the moſt ſeditious Publications have have been circulated, Religious Animoſities have been revived, Views of Plunder have been opened, ſo as to ſeduce the lower Claſſes from their Duty, and to encourage the Perpetration of the moſt barbarous Outrages.

That we ſincerely lament, that theſe Diſturbances are not yet entirely ſubdued, and that the Efforts of the Magiſtracy, aſſiſted by the neceſſary Co-operation of the Troops, have not yet extinguiſhed the Evil. That they will not however deſiſt from the Activity which the Times require.

That it will be our Duty to encourage and aſſiſt their Exertions, and whilſt the moſt daring Attempts are made to defeat the Courſe of Juſtice, when Aſſaſſination is ſyſtematically encouraged, and when all Means are put in Force to excite the People to Rebellion, we ſhould ill deſerve the Bleſſings we have enjoyed under his Majeſty's Government, if we ſuffered our Reſolution to heſitate, or our Vigour to relax.

To beg Leave to aſſure his Majeſty that the Agriculture, the Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture will receive our accuſtomed Attention, and that we ſhall continue to protect and cheriſh the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and the other charitable Inſtitutions which have ſo long flouriſhed under the Liberality of Parliament.

That we have heard with every Sentiment of Veneration and Gratitude, the ſolemn Declaration which has been conveyed to us in his Majeſty's Name, that his Majeſty's Reſolution is taken in the preſent arduous Conteſt, that he will not be wanting to his People, but with them will ſtand or fall in the Defence of their Religion, and in the Preſervation of the Independence, Laws and Liberties of his Kingdoms.

That feeling then as we do, his Majeſty's Anxiety for the Rights of his People, and convinced of his Determination to maintain them, we cannot but endeavour to emulate his Majeſty's Magnanimity, when not only, the Exiſtence of our own Intereſts and Happineſs, but the Safety of his Royal Perſon, and the Stability of his Throne are eſſentially and equally affected.

To return his Majeſty our ſincere Thanks for the Continuance of the Earl Camden in the Government of this Kingdom. That a perſonal Acquaintance with his private Virtues has endeared him to our Affections, his ſteady, able and upright Conduct in the Public Service of his Majeſty, intitle him to our Support. That we are aſſured of his Vigilance in taking every Precaution to ſecure the Kingdom from any foreign Attack, and of his Zeal to maintain the Conſtitution with Sincerity and Firmneſs.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order that the ſame may be laid before his Majeſty. to be preſented.

The Lord Glentworth, according to Order, reported from the Lords Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Monday laſt, that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and alſo read Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe, nemine diſſentiente, as follows, viz:

To his Excellency

JOHN-JEFFRIES EARL CAMDEN,

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled,

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Excellency with unfeigned Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne. Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

We are ſenſibly alive to the Confidence his Majeſty repoſes in his Parliament by convening us at this critical Period, and reſorting to us for Advice. His Majeſty may rely on our dutiful and affectionate Attachment to his ſacred Perſon and Government, and we ſhall enter upon our Deliberations with a Confidence peculiarly ariſing from the Experience we have had of the Wiſdom and Firmneſs of your Excellency's Councils. The Tranquillity which attended the late general Election affords the moſt inconteſtable Proof, that the wiſe and firm Meaſures adopted by the laſt Parliament were approved of by the Nation at large, and your Excellency may reſt aſſured that our Conduct ſhall be actuated by ſimilar Principles in Defence of our happy Conſtitution.

We have to acknowledge his Majeſty's Gracious Attention in directing his Royal Declaration and the Papers relative to the late Negotiation, to be laid before us. We join with your Excellency in regretting that his Majeſty's Endeavours to reſtore the Bleſſings of Peace have again been fruſtrated by the deſperate Ambition of the Enemy, at the ſame Time it cannot but prove a Conſolation to your Excellency, as it is to us, that his Majeſty's Magnanimity and Moderation have been ſo eminently diſplayed in the Progreſs of the Negotiation, as to leave no Pretext or Colour for the inſidious Statements of the Enemy, and to prove beyond a Doubt to all Europe, that no other Alternative is left for his Majeſty than to oppoſe the Valour of his People to the boundleſs and extravagant Pretenſions of the Enemy.

We are well convinced the People of Ireland will never fail their Sovereign in a Conteſt, upon the Iſſue of which depends their deareſt Rights and Liberties. The Valour of his Majeſty's Regular and Militia Forces, the active Loyalty of the Diſtrict Corps, the Proweſs of his Fleets and the Courage of the Nation, animated by a Senſe of Duty to their GOD, their Sovereign and their Country, will oppoſe an invincible Barrier to every hoſtile Attempt againſt the Peace and Safety of this Kingdom.

We offer our ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations to your Excellency upon the late ſignal and brilliant Victory gained by Admiral Lord Duncan over the Dutch Fleet, which has added freſh Luſtre to the Glory of his Majeſty's Navy, and given new Strength and Safety to his Majeſty's Dominions.

It affords us the greateſt Satisfaction to learn that the vigorous Meaſures adopted by your Excellency, in Conſequence of the Addreſſes of the Houſes of Lords and Commons in May laſt, have in the Northern Parts of the Kingdom been productive of the happieſt Effects, in repreſſing Diſaffection and in reſtoring Security and Confidence to the well-diſpoſed. The Return of Subordination and Induſtry in that Quarter is the ſtrongeſt Proof, that theſe vigorous Meaſures were conceived and executed with equal Wiſdom.

We learn with a Mixture of Indignation and Horror, that the Leaders of the Diſaffected have attempted to make the Midland and Southern Diſtricts the Scenes of Enormities and Outrage, by employing Emiſſaries to deceive and corrupt the People, and by the Circulation of Publications calculated to revive Religious Animoſities, and to excite the lower Claſſes, under the Proſpects of Plunder, to commit Acts of the moſt horrid Violence and Barbarity. It is to be lamented, that the Exertions of the Magiſtrates, aided by the Troops, have not as yet been able, entirely to put a Stop to thoſe Diſturbances, but we rely that the ſame conſtant Vigilance and unremitting Exertions, which have proved ſucceſsful in reſtoring Peace to other Parts of the Kingdom, will equally in theſe Diſtricts prove a Protection to the Loyal and well-diſpoſed, and ultimately reſcue the Miſguided and Miſled from the Influence of thoſe wicked and deſigning Men, who by a ſyſtematick Plan of Aſſaſſination, have endeavoured to impede and prevent the Adminiſtration of Public Juſtice, and to excite the People to Rebellion and Revolt.

We ſhall continue our accuſtomed Attention to the Commerce, the Agriculture and Manufactures of the Country, and ſhall not fail to make a ſuitable Proviſion for the Proteſtant Charter Schools and other Charitable Inſtitutions.

The Declaration of his Majeſty, That in the preſent arduous Conteſt he will ſtand or fall with his Faithful People, muſt fill the Hearts of every Loyal Subject with Sentiments of enthuſiaſtick Veneration and Gratitude to their King, for a Pledge ſo generous and affecting. His Majeſty may be aſſured that our Determination is equally decided, to devote our Lives and Fortunes to the Defence of his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and our invaluable Conſtitution, and to ſtand or fall with our Sovereign in a Conteſt, which we are bound to proſecute, for the Maintenance of our Religion, and for the Preſervation of the Independence, Laws and Liberties of the Kingdom.

Deeply feeling the great and important Intereſts for which we contend, and calling to mind the arduous Taſk we have to perform, it is an inexpreſſible Satisfaction and Relief to our Minds to find the Chief Government of Ireland, committed to a Nobleman, ſo eminently qualified as your Excellency to conduct the Country thro' its preſent Difficulties. The Vigilance and Firmneſs your Excellency has diſplayed, added to the high Reſpect entertained for your Excellency's Private Character and public Talents, have cauſed every Claſs and Deſcription of the People, really attached to the Conſtitution, to conſider your Excellency's Continuance in the exalted Station you now fill, as eſſentially connected with the Peace and Security of Ireland, and with the Maintenance of our happy Conſtitution in Church and State. We truſt we ſhall long remain under your Excellency's auſpicious Protection, and we look forward with Confidence, thro' a Steady Perſeverance and the favour of Divine Providence, that the preſent Conteſt may be brought to an happy Termination.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe. to be preſented.

Ordered,

BECAUSE, that, though we deteſt and deplore the dangerous and mad Licentiouſneſs which has for ſome Time paſt diſgraced certain of the public Prints, we cannot allow that it is either wiſe or juſt to attempt the curbing of ſuch Licenſe by any Attack upon the Liberty of the Preſs, that ſacred Bulwark of our happy Conſtitution. Becauſe, we conceive, that every previous Reſtraint on Printing or Publication is an Infringement upon the conſtitutional Right of the Iriſh Subject, who has an undoubted Privilege to lay before the Public whatever to him ſhall ſeem meet, liable however, to ſubſequent Puniſhment, if in any Publication he ſhould tranſgreſs the Laws; and becauſe, by the Bill againſt which we proteſt, a previous Reſtraint of the moſt alarming Nature appears to us to be laid upon ſuch Privilege.

Becauſe, that, as it is our fixed Opinion, that public Tranquillity and good Order can only be reſtored to this diſtracted Country by ſuch Meaſures as may conciliate the Minds of the People, we cannot but deem it in the higheſt Degree impolitic by Laws of this Nature to foment and imbitter thoſe Diſcontents, which it ought to be our Endeavour to aſſuage.

By the Lord Lieutenant and Council of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION,

CAMDEN,

WHEREAS a traitorous Conſpiracy exiſting within this Kingdom, for the Subverſion of the Authority of his Majeſty and the Parliament, and for the Deſtruction of the eſtabliſhed Conſtitution and Government, hath conſiderably extended itſelf, and hath broken out into Acts of open Violence and Rebellion.

We have therefore, by and with the Advice of his Majeſty's Privy Council, iſſued the moſt direct and poſitive Orders to the Officers commanding his Majeſty's Forces, to employ them with the utmoſt Vigor and Deciſion, for the immediate Suppreſſion thereof, and alſo to recover the Arms which have been traitorouſly forced from his Majeſty's peaceable and loyal Subjects, and to diſarm the Rebels, and all Perſons diſaffected to his Majeſty's Government, by the moſt ſummary and effectual Meaſures.

And we do hereby ſtrictly charge and command all his Majeſty's peaceable and loyal Subjects, on their Allegiance, to aid and aſſiſt to the utmoſt of their Power, his Majeſty's Forces, in the Execution of their Duty, to whom we have given it ſtrictly in Command, to afford full Protection to them, from all Acts of Violence which ſhall be attempted againſt their Perſons and Properties.

A Motion was made, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to beg Leave to return his Excellency our unfeigned Thanks, for having directed to be laid before us the Proclamation of the Lord Lieutenant and Council of the thirtieth of March laſt.

That if we deeply lament the unhappy Neceſſity which has induced his Excellency to reſort to a Meaſure of ſuch extraordinary Extent, we at the ſame Time, gratefully acknowledge and applaud the Spirit and Firmneſs that has not ſhrunk from the Reſponſibility which the Situation of Affairs impoſed.

That every Day's Experience convinces us, that our Sentiments with reſpect to the Extent and Enormity of the Conſpiracy which has long exiſted in this Country have been well founded.

That we are fully aware of its Magnitude and its Dangers, and of the Neceſſity to counteract it by proportionate Vigor.

That nevertheleſs, we feel the fulleſt Aſſurance, that the Force and Loyalty of the Kingdom are completely adequate to cruſh all the Efforts of the Diſaffected and Rebellious, and that the whole Tenor of his Excellency's Conduct convinces us of his Determination to employ the Powers inveſted in him with the moſt deciſive Energy.

To his Excellency

JOHN-JEFFRIES EARL CAMDEN,,

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our unfeigned Thanks, for having directed to be laid before us the Proclamation of the Lord Lieutenant and Council of the thirtieth of March laſt.

If we deeply lament the unhappy Neceſſity which has induced your Excellency to reſort to a Meaſure of ſuch extraordinary Extent, we at the ſame Time gratefully acknowledge and applaud the Spirit and Firmneſs that has not ſhrunk from the Reſponſibility which the Situation of Affairs impoſed

Every Day's Experience convinces us, that our Sentiments with reſpect to the Extent and Enormity of the Conſpiracy which has long exiſted in this Country have been well founded, and we are fully aware of its Magnitude and its Dangers, and of the Neceſſity to counteract it by proportionate Vigor—Nevertheleſs, we feel the fulleſt Aſſurance, that the Force and Loyalty of the Kingdom are completely adequate to cruſh all the Efforts of the Diſaffected and Rebellious, and the whole Tenor of your Excellency's Conduct convinces us of your Determination to employ the Powers inveſted in you with the moſt deciſive Energy.

We doubt not, that by ſuch Exertions the Conſtitution will be ſaved, and the Kingdom preſerved to his Majeſty, under your Excellency's Auſpices.

" And ſo the Jurors aforeſaid, upon their Oath " aforeſaid, do ſay, that the ſaid Robert Earl " of Kingſton, Robert King and John Hartney, " then and there, in Manner and Form afore- " ſaid, feloniouſly, wilfully and of their " Malice prepenſed, did kill and murder " the ſaid Henry-Gerard Fitzgerald, againſt " the Peace of our ſaid Lord the King, his " Crown and Dignity, and contrary to the " Form of the Statute in that Caſe made and " provided." Whereupon the Sheriff of the County of Cork aforeſaid, is commanded, that he omit not for any Liberty within his Bailiwick, but that he take the ſaid Robert Earl of Kingſton, Robert King and John Hartney, if they or any or either of them may be found in his Bailiwick, and them or any or either of them ſo taken, ſafely to keep, to anſwer to the Felony and Murder whereof they ſtand indicted. And afterwards to wit, at the ſaid General Aſſizes and General Gaol Delivery for the County aforeſaid, on the ſaid ninth Day of April, in the ſaid thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of our ſaid Lord the King, before the ſaid Juſtices of the ſaid Lord the King above named, and others their Fellows aforeſaid, come the ſaid Robert King and John Hartney, in the Cuſtody of Samuel Townſend, Eſquire, then and there being Sheriff of the County of Cork aforeſaid, (to whoſe Cuſtody in the Gaol of our ſaid Lord the King of the County aforeſaid, they had before ſurrendered themſelves) who being brought to the Bar here in their proper Perſons by the ſaid Sheriff, to whom they are here alſo committed, and the ſaid Robert King and John Hartney, being forthwith demanded concerning the Premiſes in the above Indictment ſpecified and charged upon them, how they will acquit themſelves thereof, they the ſaid Robert King and John Hartney do ſay, they are Not Guilty then and thereof, for Good and Evil they ſeverally put themſelves upon their Country; and James Chatterton, the younger, Eſquire, Attorney and Coroner of our ſaid Lord the King, for the County of Cork aforeſaid, who proſecutes for our ſaid Lord the King in this behalf, doth the like. Therefore let a Jury thereupon come before the Juſtices and Commiſſioners of the ſaid Lord the King at the ſame General Aſſizes and General Gaol Delivery, of free and lawful Men of the body of ſaid County, by whom the Truth of the Matter may be the better known, and who are not of Kin or Affinity to the ſaid Robert King and John Hartney, to recognize upon their Oath, whether the ſaid Robert King and John Hartney, or either of them, be guilty of the Felony and Murder in the Indictment aforeſaid, above ſpecified, or not guilty, becauſe as well the ſaid James Chatterton, the younger, who proſecutes for our ſaid Lord the King in this behalf, as the ſaid Robert King and John Hartney, have ſeverally put themſelves upon that Jury, the ſame Day is given, as well to the ſaid James Chatterton, the younger, Attorney and Coroner of our ſaid Lord the King, for the ſaid County of Cork, who for our ſaid Lord the King in this behalf proſecutes, as to the ſaid Robert King and John Hartney, here and ſo forth, and the Jurors of that Jury, by the ſaid Samuel Townſend, then and there being Sheriff of the County of Cork aforeſaid, for this Purpoſe, impannelled and returned to wit, John Warren, Samuel Penroſe, Simon Dring, Thomas Smith, William Adams, Benjamin Pratt, Henry-Stratford Perſe, Perkins Barter, Henry Sadleir, Richard Roberts, William Smith, George Montgomery, Eſquires, being called, come, who being choſen, tried and ſworn to ſpeak the Truth of and concerning the Premiſes in the Indictment aforeſaid, above ſpecified, do ſay upon their Oath, that the ſaid Robert King and John Hartney, are ſeverally not guilty of the premiſes in the Indictment aforeſaid above ſpecified, in Manner and Form as the ſaid Robert King and John Hartney, for themſelves above, by their Plea have alleged, nor did they withdraw themſelves nor either of them withdraw himſelf upon that Occaſion, upon which it is conſidered by the Court here, that the ſaid Robert King and John Hartney of the Premiſes aforeſaid, be diſcharged and go without Day. And afterwards, to wit, at the ſame General Aſſizes and General Gaol

Delivery, before the Juſtices aforeſaid, it is commanded, the Sheriff of the County of Cork, that he omit not for any Liberty in his Bailiwick, but that he take the ſaid Robert Earl of Kingſton, if he may be found in his Bailiwick, and him ſafely to keep, ſo that he may have his Body before the Juſtices and Commiſſioners of the ſaid Lord the King, at the next General Aſſizes of the ſaid Lord the King, and General Gaol Delivery to be holden for the County aforeſaid, to anſwer to the Felony and Murder whereof he ſtands indicted.

The Jurors for our Lord the King upon their Oath, preſent, that the Right Honorable Robert Earl of Kingſton, of the Kingdom of Ireland, late of Mitchel's-Town in the County of Cork, the Honorable Robert King, late of Mitchel's-Town aforeſaid, Colonel of his Majeſty's County of Roſcommon Regiment of Militia, and John Hartney, late of the ſame, Yeoman, not having the Fear of GOD before their Eyes, but being moved and ſeduced by the Inſtigation of the Devil, on the eighth Day of December, in the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of GOD, of Great Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and ſo forth, with Force and Arms, at Kilworth in the County of Cork aforeſaid, in and upon Henry-Gerard Fitzgerald, Eſquire, in the Peace of GOD, and of our ſaid Lord the King, then and there being, felonioufly, wilfully and of their Malice prepenſed, did make an Aſſault, and that the ſaid Robert Earl of Kingſton, a certain Piſtol of the Value of five Shillings, which he the ſaid Robert Earl of Kingſton in his right Hand then and there had and held, the ſaid Piſtol being then and there loaded and charged with Gunpowder and one leaden Bullet, to at and againſt the ſaid Henry-Gerard Fitzgerald, then and there felonioufly, wilfully and of his Malice prepenſed, did ſhoot and diſcharge. And that the ſaid Robert Earl of Kingſton with the leaden Bullet aforeſaid, out of the Piſtol aforeſaid, then and there by Force of the Gunpowder, ſhot and ſent forth as aforeſaid, the aforeſaid Henry-Gerard Fitzgerald, in and upon the left Breaſt of him the ſaid Henry-Gerard Fitzgerald, then and there felonioufly, wilfully and of his Malice prepenſed, did ſtrike, penetrate and wound, giving to the ſaid Henry-Gerard Fitzgerald, then and there with the leaden Bullet aforeſaid, ſo as aforeſaid, ſhot, diſcharged and ſent forth out of the Piſtol aforeſaid, by the ſaid Robert Earl of Kingſton, in and upon the ſaid left Breaſt of him the ſaid Henry-Gerard Fitzgerald, one mortal Wound of the Depth of three Inches, and of the Breadth of half an Inch, of which ſaid mortal Wound the ſaid Henry-Gerard Fitzgerald, then and there inſtantly died. And that they the ſaid Robert King and John Hartney, then and there felonioufly, wilfully and of their Malice prepenſed, were preſent, and each of them was preſent, abetting, procuring, helping, maintaining and counſelling the ſaid Robert Earl of Kingſton, the Felony and Murder aforeſaid, in Manner and Form aforeſaid, to do and commit. And ſo the Jurors aforeſaid, upon their Oath aforeſaid, do ſay, that the ſaid Robert Earl of Kingſton, Robert King and John Hartney, then and there, in Manner and Form aforeſaid, felonioufly, wilfully and of their Malice prepenſed, did kill and murder the ſaid Henry-Gerard Fitzgerald, againſt the Peace of our ſaid Lord the King, his Crown and Dignity, and contrary to the Form of the Statute in that Caſe made and provided.

The Lord High Steward then ſaid, Is it your Lordſhips' Pleaſure that the Judges have leave to be covered?

Which was agreed to.

The Lord High Steward then ſaid, Is it your Lordſhips' Pleaſure, that the Conſtable of Dublin Caſtle be ordered to bring the Earl of Kingſton to the Bar?

Which was ordered accordingly.

The Clerk of the Crown directed the Serjeant at Arms to make Proclamation to the Conſtable of the Caſtle, to bring his Priſoner to the Bar.

Which he did as follows:

Oyez, Oyez, Oyez, Conſtable of Dublin Caſtle, bring forth Robert Earl of Kingſton your Priſoner to the Bar, purſuant to the Order of the Houſe of Lords.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

The ſaid Robert Earl of Kingſton was then brought to the Bar by the Conſtable of Dublin Caſtle, having the Axe carried before him by the Deputy Conſtable, who ſtood with it on the left Hand of the Priſoner, with the Edge turned from him.

The Priſoner when he approached the Bar made three Reverences, one to his Grace the Lord High Steward, the others to the Peers on each Hand, and then fell upon his Knees at the Bar.

The Lord High Steward ſaid, Your Lordſhip may ariſe,

Then

Then the Priſoner roſe up and bowed to his Grace the Lord High Steward and to the Houſe of Peers, which Compliment was returned him by his Grace and the Lords.

Then the Lord High Steward ſpoke to the Priſoner as follows:

Robert Earl of Kingſton, you are brought here to anſwer one of the moſt ſerious Charges which can be made againſt any Man,—a Charge of the Murder of a Fellow Subject. The Solemnity and awful Appearance of this Judicature, muſt naturally diſcompoſe and embarraſs your Lordſhip. It may therefore not be improper in me to remind your Lordſhip, that you are to be tried by the Laws of a free Country, framed for the Protection of Innocence, and the Puniſhment of Guilt alone;—and it muſt be a great Conſolation to you to reflect, that you are to receive a Trial before the Supreme Judicature of the Nation, that you are to be tried by your Peers, upon whoſe unbiaſſed Judgment and Candour you may have the firmeſt Reliance. More particularly as they are to paſs Judgment upon you under the ſolemn and inviolate Obligation of their Honor. It will alſo be a Conſolation to you to know, that the Benignity of our Law has diſtinguiſhed the Crime of Homicide into different Claſſes.——If it ariſes from Accident, from inevitable Neceſſity or without Malice, it does not fall within the Crime of Murder. And of theſe Diſtinctions, warranted by Evidence, you will be at Liberty to take Advantage. Before I conclude, I am commanded by the Houſe to inform your Lordſhip, and all others who ſhall have Occaſion to addreſs the Court during the Trial, that the Addreſs muſt be made to the Lords in general, and not to any Lord in particular.

The Lord High Steward then ſaid,—Robert Earl of Kingſton, your Lordſhip will do well to pay Attention whilſt you are arraigned on your Indictment.

After which, the ſaid Robert Earl of Kingſton was arraigned in the Form of the ſaid Indictment againſt him, by the Clerk of the Crown in the King's Bench.

The Clerk of the Crown then ſaid,—How ſay you, Robert Earl of Kingſton, are you guilty of this Felony and Murder in Manner and Form as you ſtand indicted and arraigned, or not?

The Earl of Kingſton anſwered,—Not Guilty.

The Clerk of the Crown then ſaid,—Culprit, how will your Lordſhip be tried?

The Earl of Kingſton anſwered,—By GOD and my Peers.

The Clerk of the Crown then ſaid,—GOD ſend you a good Deliverance.

The Serjeant at Arms then made Proclamation as follows:

Oyez, Oyez, Oyez, All Manner of Perſons who will give Evidence on Oath, before our Sovereign Lord the King, againſt Robert Earl of Kingſton, the Priſoner at the Bar, let them come forth, and they ſhall be heard, for he now ſtands at the Bar upon his Deliverance.

The Lord High Steward with the Conſent of the Court, went down to the Table for the better Conveniency of hearing.

After ſome Delay, and no Witneſſes appearing,—

The Lord High Steward ſaid,—Have you that are concerned for the Priſoner ſerved Notice upon the Attorney General, and the neareſt Relations of the deceaſed?

Mr. Curran, Counſel for the Priſoner, anſwered, Yes my Lord.

The Lord High Steward ſaid,—Are you ready to prove it?

Mr. Curran anſwered,—Yes, my Lord.

The Lord High Steward ſaid,—Whom do you produce?

Mr. Curran anſwered,—My Lord, we produce Mr. John Kingſbury.

Mr. John Kingſbury was then ſworn and examined, as follows: Witneſſes examined.

The Notice was then read as follows:

Now I do hereby give Notice, that I will forthwith ſurrender myſelf into actual Cuſtody, ſo as to abide my Trial for the ſaid ſuppoſed Murder in this preſent Seſſions of Parliament. KINGSTON.

The Lord High Steward then ſaid,—Have you ſerved a Notice upon the Attorney General?

Mr. Curran anſwered,—We have.

Mr. Thomas Hughes was then ſworn, and examined as follows:

Q. Did you ſerve the Attorney General with any Notice?

A. Upon the firſt of May Inſtant, I ſerved the Attorney General with this Notice, by giving a true Copy of it to his Man Servant at his Houſe in Leinſter-Street.

The Notice was then read as follows:

Whereas at a General Aſſizes and General Gaol Delivery held at Cork, in and for the County of Cork, on the ninth Day of April laſt, a Bill of Indictment was found by the Grand Jury of the ſaid County againſt Robert Earl of Kingſton, for the Murder of Henry-Gerard Fitzgerald, Eſquire, and which Indictment, together with the Proceedings thereon have been removed by Writ of Certiorari to the Houſe of Lords in this Kingdom, and the ſaid Robert Earl of Kingſton hath ſurrendered himſelf, and is now in actual Cuſtody, and his Trial has been fixed by the ſaid Houſe of Lords for the eighteenth Day of May next, of which all Perſons concerned are to take Notice. Dated this twenty-eighth Day of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight.

KINGSTON.

To the Right Honorable
Arthur Wolfe, his Majeſty's Attorney-General.

The Lord High Steward then ſaid, Make Proclamation again for the Appearance of Witneſſes for the Crown.

The Serjeant at Arms accordingly made Proclamation as follows:

Oyez, Oyez, Oyez, All Manner of Perſons, who will give Evidence on Oath before our Sovereign Lord the King, againſt Robert Earl of Kingſton, the Priſoner at the Bar, let them come forth, and they ſhall be heard, for he now ſtands at the Bar upon his Deliverance.

After a conſiderable Pauſe, and no Witneſs appearing in ſupport of the Indictment,

The Lord High Steward ſaid, Is it your Lordſhip's Pleaſure that the Priſoner Robert Earl of Kingſton be withdrawn?

Which was agreeed to.

Then the Earl of Kingſton, making three Reverences to the Houſe, retired.

The Earl of Portarlington then ſaid, My Lords, I move that your Lordſhips do adjourn to the Chamber of Parliament.

The Lord High Steward ſaid, Is it your Lordſhips Pleaſure to adjourn to the Chamber of Parliament?

Which was agreed to.

Then the Lords and others returned to the Chamber of Parliament, in the ſame Order in which they had come into the Court.

The Houſe was reſumed:

The Lord High Steward ſaid, My Lords, as no Evidence has been produced in ſupport of this Indictment, I muſt preſume, your Lordſhips are unanimous in your Opinion, that the Earl of Kingſton muſt be acquitted.

Biſhops' Proteſtation

The Lord Primate then ſaid, My Lords, in the Name of the Lords Spiritual, I deſire that this their Proteſt may be read,

His Grace the Lord Primate then handed the Proteſt of the Lords Spiritual to the Lord High Steward, who gave it to the Clerk of the Parliaments to read, which he read as follows:

The Lords Spiritual of the Houſe of Peers do deſire Leave of this Houſe to be abſent when Judgment is given upon Robert Earl of Kingſton

Kingſton, ſaving to themſelves and to their Succeſſors, all ſuch Right in Judicature, as they have by Law, and of Right ought to have.

Then the Lord Primate aſked Leave that the Lords Spiritual might withdraw.

Which being agreed to,

They withdraw. They immediately withdrew accordingly.

The Earl of Altamont then ſaid, I move your Lordſhips, that Lord Viſcount Strangford have Leave to withdraw, being in Holy Orders,

Which was ordered accordingly.

Ordered, that the Queſtion to be put to the Lords in the Court of Trial be,—Is Robert Earl of Kingſton Guilty of the Felony and Murder whereof he ſtands indicted, or not Guilty?

The Lord High Steward then ſaid, Is it your Lordſhips' Pleaſure to adjourn to the Court appointed for the Trial of the Earl of Kingſton?

The ſame was agreed to.

The Lords and others then proceeded to the Court in the ſame Order as before, except as to the Spiritual Lords who had withdrawn.

And the Peers being there ſeated, and the Houſe reſumed,

The Serjeant at Arms made Proclamation as follows:

Oyez, Oyez, Oyez, Our Sovereign Lord the King ſtrictly charges and commands all Manner of Perſons to keep Silence upon pain of Impriſonment.

The Lord High Steward then ſaid, Although no Evidence has been produced in ſupport of this Indictment, yet the Solemnity of your Proceedings requires that your Lordſhips Opinion ſhould be delivered by your Lordſhips ſeverally, in the Abſence of the Priſoner, upon the Queſtion of Guilty or not Guilty, beginning with the Junior Baron, and that the Priſoner ſhould afterwards be acquainted with the Reſult by me. Is it your Lordſhips Pleaſure to proceed now to give your Opinions on the Queſtion of Guilty, or not Guilty?

Which was agreed to.

And the Lord High Steward by a Liſt called over every Peer by his Name, beginning with the Junior Baron, and aſked him, Is Robert Earl of Kingſton Guilty of the Felony and Murder whereof he ſtands indicted, or Not Guilty?

And thereupon every Peer preſent, ſeverally ſtanding up uncovered, anſwered, Not Guilty, upon my Honor, laying his right Hand upon his Breaſt.

Then the Lord High Steward, ſtanding up uncovered, at the Chair, laying his right Hand on his Breaſt, ſaid,—My Lords, I am of Opinion, that Robert Earl of Kingſton is Not Guilty, upon my Honor.

Then the Lord High Steward ſaid, Your Lordſhips have found without Diſſent, that Robert Earl of Kingſton is Not Guilty of the Felony and Murder whereof he ſtands indicted.—Is it your Lordſhips' Pleaſure that he ſhould be called in and acquainted therewith? And the ſame being agreed to,

Proclamation was made for the Conſtable of the Caſtle to bring Robert Earl of Kingſton to the Bar, who being brought accordingly, kneeled until the Lord High Steward told him he might riſe, and then Proclamation was made for Silence as uſual.

Earl of Kingſton acquitted. The Lord High Steward ſaid, Robert Earl of Kingſton, I have great Satisfaction in informing you, that your Peers upon whom you put yourſelf for Trial, have without a diſſenting Voice, acquitted you of the Crime whereof you ſtood indicted, and therefore you are diſcharged, paying your Fees.

Then the Earl of Kingſton made three Reverences to the Houſe and retired.

Proclamation was then made for Silence in the uſual Manner.

Then the Lord High Steward declared, that this Proceeding being now at an End, nothing remained to be done here but to determine the Commiſſion, and directed Proclamation to be made for diſſolving the Commiſſion of High Steward.

And Proclamation being made accordingly by Serjeant at Arms, as follows:

Oyez, Oyez, Oyez. Our Sovereign Lord the King, doth hereby ſtrictly charge and command all Manner of Perſons here preſent, and that have attended, to depart in Peace, for his Grace, my Lord High Steward of Ireland intends now to diſſolve his Commiſſion.

Commiſſion diſſolved, and Then the White Staff being delivered to the Lord High Steward, by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, upon his Knee, his Grace ſtood up uncovered, and holding the Staff in both his Hands, broke it in two, and declared the Commiſſion to be diſſolved, and then leaving the Chair, came down to the Woolſack, and ſaid, Is it your Lordſhips Pleaſure to adjourn to the Chamber of Parliament?

The Houſe adjourned accordingly,

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Biſhop of Cork from the Lords Committees, appointed to take into Conſideration the ſeveral Charities and charitable Donations in this Kingdom, made the following Report, viz:

My Lords,

Report on Charities.

THE Lords Committees, appointed to take into Conſideration the ſeveral Charities and charitable Donations in this Kingdom, have met purſuant to Order, and have directed me to report as follows:

Reſolved, that it appears to this Committee, that there are various Parts of the Leper Houſe Charity at Waterford defective, in a great Meaſure ariſing from the principle of its Conſtitution.

Reſolved, that it appears to this Committee, that the Admiſſion, Treatment and Diſmiſſal of Patients ſhould be regulated by the Opinion and Advice of the Surgeon at all Times, which does not appear to have been done regularly hitherto.

That it appears to this Committee, that the Accounts have not been regularly audited, there having been only two Audits made in the Courſe of twenty-three Years, and not one ſince the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-nine, in the Holy Ghoſt Hoſpital, a Charity in ſome Sort connected with it, having always the ſame Maſter, and ſubject alſo to the ſame Control of the Corporation of Waterford.

That it appears to this Committee, that while the examining and auditing of the Accounts depends ſolely on the Corporation and one of the Corporation Maſters of theſe Charities, it may ſo happen, that as a Member of ſaid Corporation of Waterford, he may be himſelf in that Capacity the Examiner of his own Accounts, and thus defeat the Object looked to of a proper Check on the Diſburſements of ſaid charitable Hoſpitals.

That it appears to this Committee, that ſome Alterations in this Reſpect, obliging the Maſter to ſettle his Accounts regularly, and ſubmitting them to ſome public diſintereſted Inſpection, would be a material Advantage to the Object of this charitable Inſtitution.

That it appears to this Committee, that a Decree was obtained from the Court of Chancery in one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, authoriſing the Expenditure of one thouſand and thirty-one Pounds, a Balance then in Hand for the Building of an Hoſpital, or ſuch Part of ſaid Sum as was neceſſary for that Purpoſe, and that on ſaid Buildings a Sum of two thouſand ſeven hundred and thirty-four Pounds was expended, though though palpably not authorized by ſuch Decree, and that ſaid Encreaſe of Expenditure was provided for by breaking in on the Capital of ſaid Charity, and alſo, by turning the Patients out of it, and leaving the Annual Income as a Fund for ſaid Building, which however well intended, was palpably contrary to the Object of the Inſtitution.

That it appears to this Committee, that the foregoing and many other Errors in the Conduct of ſaid Charity, which appears in the Evidence now ſubmitted to your Lordſhips, originate in the Want of a proper Control over its Expenditure.

That it appears to this Committee, by the Evidence of Simon Newport, Eſquire, that there are ſtrong Reaſons to ſuppoſe Part of the Property of ſaid Charity have been embezzled for want of ſaid Control, and ſome ſuch Regulation by Act of Parliament or otherwiſe is more neceſſary, from the Efforts of the preſent Maſter being ineffectual to the Recovery of ſaid Embezzlements, although they can ſcarcely be doubted to have taken Place.

That it appears to this Committee, that the Bulk of the Property of ſaid Charity called Leper Land will be out of Leaſe in March one thouſand eight hundred and one, and that a Riſe to a very conſiderable Amount will then take Place in the Income of it, furniſhing it, if judiciouſly conducted, abundant Means for a great charitable Eſtabliſhment.

Your Committee in ſubmitting theſe Facts to your Lordſhips' Conſideration, conceive they have gone to the Extent of their Powers, leaving the Remedies and Controls which it may be proper to adopt to your Lordſhips' Wiſdom and Diſcretion.

Ordered, that the ſaid Report do lie on the Table.

Ordered, that Sir Chicheſter Forteſcue, Ulſter King of Arms, have the Leave of this Houſe to be abſent for a Month. King of Arms leave to be abſent.

Viſcount Harberton takes his Seat.

This Day Henry Viſcount Harberton ſat firſt in Parliament, after the Death of his Father, Arthur Viſcount Harberton,

His Lordſhip having firſt at the Table, taken the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo taken and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that he had received a Meſſage from his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, which his Excellency directed him to lay before their Lordſhips, which he read, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz:

CAMDEN.

I AM to acquaint the Houſe of Lords, that in conſequence of the Diſorders which have taken place in the Neighbouring Counties, and of the Preparations which appeared to be making by the Diſaffected in this Metro- 3d Meſſage from Lord Lieutenant.

polis and its Vicinity, the Magiſtrates thought it proper to apply to the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council, to place the City under the Proviſions of the Act paſſed in the thirty-ſixth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, more effectually to ſuppreſs Inſurrections, and prevent the Diſturbance of the public Peace. This Application has been complied with; and I am now with the utmoſt Concern to inform the Houſe of Lords, that I have received Information, that the Diſaffected have been daring enough to form a Plan for the Purpoſe of poſſeſſing themſelves in the preſent Week of the Metropolis, of ſeizing the Seat of Government, and thoſe in Authority within the City. In Conſequence of this Information, I have directed every Military Precaution to be taken, which ſeemed expedient. I have made full Communication to the Magiſtracy for the Direction of their Efforts, and I have no Doubt that by the Meaſures which will be purſued, the Deſigns of the Rebellious will be effectually and entirely cruſhed.

I have taken the earlieſt Opportunity of making this Communication, and have the fulleſt Confidence that I ſhall be ſupported by the Houſe of Lords in ſuch Meaſures as ſhall be neceſſary, finally to ſuppreſs the Rebellious Conſpiracy which exiſts in this Kingdom.

Reſolution for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant. Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, nemine diſſentiente, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to aſſure his Excellency that we cannot reſtrain the Declaration of our ſincere Regret on his Excellency's approaching Departure.

That we have to lament the Loſs of a Nobleman, whoſe chief and unvaried Object has been to maintain our excellent Conſtitution and Eſtabliſhments in Church and State, to reſiſt the Efforts of thoſe anarchical Tenets which have deſolated a great Part of Europe, and to preſerve and encourage the Principles of true and genuine Loyalty.

That by the Meaſures his Excellency has purſued in ſupport of thoſe Principles, we have ſeen him enabled to detect the ſecret Machinations of our domeſtic Enemies, and to unfold their true Deſigns, when maſked by the Pretence of Patriotiſm, and as ſoon as they dared to break forth into open Inſurrection and Rebellion, they found his Excellency prepared to diſconcert their firſt Efforts on the Capital, to puniſh them with Defeat upon Defeat, and to make ſuch Arrangements as muſt ſpeedily ſubdue and entirely cruſh them.

That his Excellency has thought, that in ſuch a Period, the Government of the Kingdom would beſt devolve upon a Nobleman whoſe ſuperior Talents and Experience as a General, would enable him to decide upon all Military Meaſures whilſt the Country was in Arms. And that we cannot but do Juſtice to that Senſe of Public Duty, and that Attachment to our Welfare, which had cheriſhed ſuch an Opinion.—That we, however, moſt reluctantly admit its Force.

That it is not to Operations in the Field alone which we can look for ultimate Safety, but it is in the Continuance of that Line of Conduct which has marked his Excellency's Adminiſtration, which has animated his Majeſty's Regular and Militia Forces, encouraged the Patience and united the Spirit of the Yeomanry, and combined the Efforts of the Loyal in Defence of their Sovereign and the Conſtitution.

That his Excellency's private Virtues and amiable Qualities have long engaged our Affections.—That his public Conduct has commanded our Eſteem and Approbation, and we are perſuaded, that by his faithful and honeſt Repreſentations to our Sovereign, Juſtice will be done to the Exertions of the Loyal, and to their Determination to protect his Majeſty's Throne and Government, againſt every domeſtic and foreign Enemy whatſoever.

JOHN-JEFFRIES EARL CAMDEN,

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs. WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, cannot reſtrain the Declaration of our ſincere Regret on your Excellency's approaching Departure.

We have to lament the Loſs of a Nobleman, whoſe chief and unvaried Object has been to maintain our excellent Conſtitution and Eſtabliſhments in Church and State, to reſiſt the Efforts of thoſe Anarchical Tenets which have deſolated a great Part of Europe, and to preſerve and encourage the Principles of true and genuine Loyalty.

By the Meaſures your Excellency has purſued in ſupport of thoſe Principles, we have ſeen you enabled to detect the ſecret Machinations of our domeſtic Enemies, and to unfold their true Deſigns, when maſked by the Pretence of Patriotiſm, and as ſoon as they dared to break forth into open Inſurrection and Rebellion, they found your Excellency prepared to diſconcert their firſt Efforts on the Capital, to puniſh them with Defeat upon Defeat, and to make ſuch Arrangements as muſt ſpeedily ſubdue and entirely cruſh them.

Your Excellency has thought, that in ſuch a Period, the Government of the Kingdom would beſt devolve upon a Nobleman whoſe ſuperior Talents and Experience as a General, would enable him to decide upon all Military Meaſures whilſt the Country was in Arms.—And we cannot but do Juſtice to that Senſe of Public Duty, and that Attachment to our Welfare, which had cheriſhed ſuch an Opinion.—We however, moſt reluctantly admit its Force.

Your Excellency's private Virtues and amiable Qualities, have long engaged our Affections, your public Conduct has commanded our Eſteem and Approbation, and we are perſuaded, that by your faithful and honeſt Repreſentations to our Sovereign, Juſtice will be done to the Exertions of the Loyal, and to their Determination to protect his Majeſty's Throne and Government, againſt every domeſtic and foreign Enemy whatſoever.

" My Lords,

" As I feel I have done my Duty to my " Sovereign and to my Country, in enabling " his Majeſty to place the Government of " Ireland in the Hands of the diſtinguiſhed " Military Character who is ſo ſhortly ex- " pected to arrive in Dublin, I experience a " Satisfaction which alone affords me the " Power to receive the Expreſſions contained " in your Lordſhips' Addreſs, without thoſe " Emotions which ſo marked and ſo flatter- " ing a Teſtimony of your Approbation " would otherwiſe have called from me. Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

" I take my Leave of your Lordſhips with " thoſe Senſations which are inſpired by the " higheſt Opinion of the Spirit, Firmneſs " and Deciſion of your Councils.

" You have enabled me to act with the " Effect which has been manifeſted during " the Courſe of the darkeſt and moſt exten- " ſive Conſpiracy, and of the moſt flagitious " Rebellion that ever oppreſſed any Country. " I have uſed ſtrong and vigorous Meaſures: " They were neceſſary; and by the Adoption " of them alone, could there have been any " Proſpect of a Return to that Peace and " Tranquillity, which I truſt may ſoon be " produced. I have uſed my utmoſt Ex- " ertions to maintain thoſe Principles by " which this Kingdom has flouriſhed, and " to which it will owe its future Proſperity.

" However melancholy may have been the " Effects of the daring Inſurrections which " have broken forth, your Lordſhips' Satis- " faction muſt be great indeed, in obſerving " that Loyalty, Bravery and Spirit which " have marked every Deſcription of Per- " ſons, who have ſo univerſally and ſo " nobly taken up Arms in Defence of their " Country.—It muſt inſpire this Kingdom " with a Confidence which will defeat the " Views of our foreign and domeſtic Enemies.

" In quitting your Shores, your Lordſhips " will give me Credit when I ſay, I only " change the Soil on which I ſtand. The " Intereſts and the Proſperity of Ireland muſt " ever engage my moſt anxious Thoughts, " and ever call forth my moſt ſtrenuous " Endeavours, and I ſhall feel a Satisfaction " I cannot deſcribe, in contributing to the " Happineſs of a Country, to which I am " ſo truly and ſo ardently attached."

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, nemine diſſentiente, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to beg Leave to approach his Majeſty with unfeigned Thanks for the gracious Meſſage which has this Day been communicated to this Houſe in his Majeſty's Name.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we have ſeen with the moſt lively Senſibility, the voluntary and generous Offer of various Regiments of Engliſh Militia to co-operate with his Majeſty's Forces in this Kingdom, for the Suppreſſion of the preſent unhappy Rebellion.

That ſuch a deciſive Proof that the People of Great Britain conſider the Conſtitution and Welfare of this Kingdom as inſeparably connected with their own, and that both Nations muſt ſtand and fall together, excites in us every Sentiment of affectionate Attachment, and impreſſes us with Confidence as to the Event of any Conteſt in which we may be engaged.

6th Meſſage from Lord Lieutenant.

I HAVE received the King's Commands to acquaint the Houſe of Lords, that his Majeſty, notwithſtanding his juſt Abhorrence of the unnatural and unprovoked Rebellion which has broken out in this Kingdom, yet being ever diſpoſed to exert as far as poſſible his royal Prerogative of Mercy, and to receive again under his royal Protection thoſe who by the Arts of wicked and deſigning Men, have been ſeduced from their Allegiance, has ſignified his gracious Intention of granting his general and free Pardon for all Offences committed on or before a certain Day, upon ſuch Conditions, and with ſuch Exceptions as may be compatible with the Public Safety, for carrying which benevolent Purpoſe into Execution, his Majeſty has ſignified his gracious Intention of ſanctioning in the uſual Form, by his royal Signature, a Bill for that Purpoſe, previous to its being ſubmitted for the Concurrence of Parliament.

His Majeſty has alſo directed me to lay before you ſeveral important Papers, which may aſſiſt you in unfolding the Nature and Extent of the Conſpiracy which has long prevailed in this Kingdom, not doubting, that whilſt your Endeavours are directed to give Effect to the gracious Intentions of his Majeſty, that you will feel it your indiſpenſable Duty to conſider of, and adopt ſuch Meaſures of ſalutary Precaution as may tend to ſecure the State hereafter, againſt the Machinations of the diſaffected.

In your Deliberations, the Sufferings of his Majeſty's Loyal Subjects will naturally receive your Attention, and I recommend to you the framing of effectual Meaſures for aſcertaining their Loſſes, and bringing their Claims under the Conſideration of Parliament.

The numerous and continued Advantages of his Majeſty's Forces over the Rebels, afford me juſt Ground to believe, that as their Hopes of Succeſs muſt have failed, ſo the Obſtinacy of their Reſiſtance will ſpeedily ceaſe. The Generals under my Command, have received, and ſhall continue to receive, the moſt poſitive Orders to proceed againſt them with unceaſing Activity and Vigor; and I ſhall not ſuffer their Exertions to relax, ſo long as any Body of them whatever ſhall remain in Arms againſt his Majeſty's Peace.

C.

Reſolution for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, nemine diſſentiente, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to requeſt his Excellency to lay before his Majeſty our grateful Acknowledgments for the gracious Communication which has been made by his Excellency in his Majeſty's Name to this Houſe. That we ſhould be alike inſenſible to the Feelings of Loyalty and the Claims of Juſtice and Truth, if we were not ever ready to acknowledge, with the warmeſt Gratitude, that every Period of his Majeſty's Reign has been diſtinguiſhed by parental Indulgence and benign Condeſcenſion, that under his auſpicious Government, his Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland in particular has riſen to a Height of Proſperity which the moſt ſanguine Expectation could not have anticipated, and of which no former Period of our Hiſtory can furniſh an Example. That our Commerce has been enlarged, our Conſtitution improved, and every Claſs of Iriſh Subjects bound more cloſely to the Throne of their Sovereign, by the moſt gracious Acts of Conceſſion and Beneficence. That feeling the Obligations of Allegiance and Loyalty to be thus ſtrengthened by every Claim of Juſtice as well as Gratitude, we cannot repreſs our Indignation at the Perfidy of thoſe who have by the baſeſt Artifices ſeduced a Portion of his Majeſty's Subjects from their Duty, and engaged them in a Rebellion as deſtructive to themſelves as it has been injurious to the Country.—That with the warmeſt Admiration we obſerve, that even theſe Enormities, execrable as they are, have not been ſufficient to reſtrain the Workings of Compaſſion in the Royal Breaſt, and that his Majeſty is even yet willing to forgive their Crimes, upon ſuch Conditions and with ſuch Exceptions as the Public Safety may require, rather than doom them to thoſe Puniſhments which they have ſo juſtly deſerved.—That a Conduct ſo graciouſly humane, cannot fail to excite new Feelings of Gratitude in the Heart of every Subject: and whilſt we endeavour by the moſt effectual Proviſions, to guard the Safety of the Community and the juſt Rights of our Sovereign, againſt the future Machinations of Traitors, we ſhall keep in View thoſe Objects which his Majeſty's Mercy has ſo graciouſly pointed out to us, and ſhall omit no Means in our Power of giving Effect to the paternal Diſpoſitions of the Royal Mind.

That we requeſt his Excellency will alſo convey to his Majeſty our ſincere Thanks, for ordering the Communication of thoſe Papers which tend to unfold the ſecret Train of the Conſpiracy, and which we ſhall examine with the Attention which their Importance ſo fully demands.

That we ſhall take into Conſideration the Sufferings of thoſe loyal Subjects who have been injured by the Rebels, and ſhall be happy to give their Claims the fulleſt Attention, when they ſhall be regularly brought before us.

That

That from the Valor which has been ſo ſignally manifeſted by all his Majeſty's Forces, from their numerous Succeſſes, from the late entire Diſperſion of the Rebels, and from the vigorous Meaſures which have been adopted by his Excellency, we truſt that all Reſiſtance will ſpeedily diſappear, and that thoſe Meaſures of juſt Severity againſt the Obſtinate as well as of Mercy to the Repentant, which have been reſorted to by the Wiſdom of his Excellency's Councils, will finally extinguiſh the preſent unhappy Rebellion, and reſtore the ineſtimable Bleſſings of general Security and uninterrupted Peace.

My Lords,

Report from Secret Committee.

THE Lords Committees appointed to examine the Matters of the Sealed up Papers received from the Commons on the twenty-third of July laſt, and to report the ſame as they ſhall appear to them to this Houſe, have met and examined into the Matters to them referred, and directed me to report to your Lordſhips as follows:

Your

Your Committee beg Leave firſt to recall your Lordſhips' Attention to a Report made to this Houſe on the ſeventh of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-three, by the Lords Committees, who had been appointed to enquire into the Cauſes of the Diſorders and Diſturbances which prevailed in this Kingdom in the Years one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-two and one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-three, by which it appears, "that conſiderable Bodies "of Inſurgents then diſtinguiſhed by the "Name of Defenders, infeſted the Counties "of Meath, Louth, Cavan, Monaghan and "other adjacent Diſtricts during that Period, "and that the Meaſures which were then "purſued by them, appeared to be concerted "with a Degree of Syſtem and Regularity "which proved diſtinctly that they were "directed by Men of ſuperior Rank, who "ſtimulated the lower Orders of the People "to Tumult and Outrage, as leading to the "Abolition of Tithes, Hearth and County "Taxes, and to the Reduction of Rents.— "That during that Period very conſiderable "Sums of Money were levied upon the "Roman Catholics of this Kingdom, under "the Authority of a Committee of Perſons "of that Perſuaſion, who then aſſumed and "ſeemed in a great Degree to ſucceed in the "Government and Direction of the whole "Body of Iriſh Catholics, and that out of "the general Fund thus created, Protection "was extended to Perſons who were criminally proſecuted for the moſt daring and "flagrant Crimes.—That during the ſame "Period an unuſual Ferment diſturbed ſeveral Parts of the Northern Province, particularly the Town of Belfaſt and the County "of Antrim, kept up and encouraged by every "Artifice which Turbulence and Diſaffection "could ſuggeſt, and more particularly by "the moſt licentious Abuſe of the Preſs — "That the Conduct of France was openly "held up as an Example for Imitation, that "Hopes and Expectations were given of "French Aſſiſtance, by a Deſcent upon this "Kingdom, and that Prayers had been publicly offered up at Belfaſt from the Pulpit, "for the Succeſs of the French Armies, in "the Preſence of Military Bodies, which "had been newly levied and arrayed in that "Town, without any legal Authority.— "That ſeveral other Military Aſſociations "had in like Manner been entered into, in "different Parts of the Province of Ulſter, "compoſed of Perſons of a very inferior "Deſcription, armed without Authority, and "diſciplined by Officers of their own Election.—That theſe armed Bodies were daily "encreaſing in Numbers and Force, and had "exerted their beſt Endeavours to procure "Military Men of Experience to command "them, ſome of them having expreſsly ſtated, "that there were Men enough to be had, "but that Officers were what they wanted.— "That Arms and Gunpowder to a very large "Amount, much above the common Conſumption had been recently ſent to Belfaſt "and Newry, and that Orders had been "given for a much greater Quantity, which "could be wanted only for Military Operations.—That at Belfaſt large Bodies of Men "in Arms, aſſembled nightly by Candle "Light to be drilled and exerciſed, and that "repeated Attempts were made to ſeduce "the Soldiery, which much to the Honor of "the King's Forces had proved ineffectual.— "That at the ſame Period a body of Men "had been arrayed at Dublin, under the "Title of Firſt Battalion of National Guards "—their Uniform copied from that of the "French National Guards, and marked with "Emblems of Diſaffection.—That the declared Object of theſe Military Preparations "was to procure a Reform of Parliament; "but that the plain and palpable Intention "was to overawe the Parliament and Executive Government, and to dictate to "both."

Your Committee next beg Leave to recall your Lordſhips' Attention to a Report made to the Houſe on the twelfth Day of May, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, by the Lords Committees appointed to examine the Matters of the ſealed up Papers received from the Commons on the fourth of the ſame Month, by which it appears, "that the ſyſtem of Treaſon which had been eſtabliſhed "in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred "and ninety-two, was then much matured "and extended under the Influence and Direction of numerous affiliated Societies, "calling themſelves United Iriſhmen, in "Conjunction with the Aſſociated Body of "Defenders.—That a traitorous Correſpondence and Communication between the "Leaders and Directors of the Societies of "United Iriſhmen and the Executive Directory of the French Republic had been carried on between the Month of June, one "thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five, "and the Month of January one thouſand "ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, and that the "Means by which it had been carried on "were diſtinctly proved."

Your Committee are now enabled more fully and accurately to ſtate to your Lordſhips the Nature and Extent of the Treaſon which ſo juſtly alarmed your Lordſhips in one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-three, and which has recently broken forth in open Rebellion, having examined four Perſons who were Members of the Executive Directory of the Iriſh Revolutionary Union, namely, Arthur O'Connor, Eſquire, who was lately tried at Maidſtone for high Treaſon, William-James M'Nevin, Doctor of Phyſic, Thomas-Addis Emmett, Barriſter at Law, and Oliver Bond, lately convicted of Treaſon, all of whom have acknowledged themſelves to have been confidential Leaders and Directors of the Iriſh Union, and that their Object was, to effect a Revolution in this Kingdom, by ſeducing his Majeſty's Subjects from their Allegiance, under a Variety of ſpecious Pretences, and by introducing a French Army into their Country to aſſiſt them in this moſt foul and unnatural Project.

The original Conſtitution of the traitorous Societies of United Iriſhmen, their gradual Progreſs to open Rebellion, and the Means by which they hoped to ſucceed in ſubverting the exiſting Eſtabliſhments in Church and State, have been ſo fully detailed in former Reports upon the Subject appearing on the Journals, and by the Report recently made by the Secret Committee of the Houſe of Commons, which has been communicated to your Lordſhips, that your Committee have forborn now to enter ſo minutely into this diſguſting Subject, as they might otherwiſe have conſidered a Duty incumbent on them; they have therefore taken up the Detail of it from that Period when the Conſpiracy was ſo matured, as to have for its avowed Object the Array and Levy of a regular Military Force, in every Part of the Kingdom, for the Purpoſe of aſſiſting the French, if they ſhould be enabled to make a Deſcent upon this Country; or, if foreign Aſſiſtance could not be procured, of making a General Inſurrection, in the Hope of ſubverting the Monarchy and Eccleſiaſtical Eſtabliſhment, of ſeizing the Perſons and confiſcating the Property of his Majeſty's Loyal Subjects, and of eſtabliſhing a Republican Government guaranteed by the Power of France.—It appears to your Committee, that the Organization, as it is called, by which the Directory of the Iriſh Union was enabled to levy a revolutionary Army, was completed in the Province of Ulſter on the tenth of May one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five.——That the Scheme of extending it to the other Provinces was adopted at an early Period by the Iriſh Directory; but it does not appear to your Committee that it made any conſiderable Progreſs beyond the Northern Province before the Autumn of one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, when Emiſſaries were ſent into the Province of Leinſter to propagate the Syſtem.—It appeared diſtinctly to your Committee that the ſtale Pretexts of Parliamentary Reform and Catholic Emancipation were found ineffectual for the Seduction of the People of that Province, and therefore the Emiſſaries of Treaſon who had undertaken it, in order to prevail with them to adopt the Syſtem of Organization, firſt repreſented that it was neceſſary in their own Defence, as their Proteſtant Fellow-ſubjects had entered into a ſolemn League and Covenant to deſtroy them, having ſworn to wade up to their Knees in Popiſh Blood.—The People were next taught to believe that their Organization would lead to the Abolition of Tithes, and to a Diſtribution of Property, inaſmuch as they would become Members of a Democracy which would govern the Country; and under the Influence of theſe falſe, wicked, and artful Suggeſtions, the Syſtem of Organization appears to have been gradually extended by the Emiſſaries of the Iriſh Directory into the Provinces of Leinſter, Munſter and Connaught.—The better to impoſe on the People, the Syſtem was firſt repreſented to be purely for civil or political Purpoſes. The inferior Societies at their original Inſtitution conſiſted each of thirty-ſix Members, they were however, afterwards reduced to twelve—theſe twelve choſe a Secretary and Treaſurer, and the Secretaries of five of theſe Societies, formed what was called a lower Baronial Committee, which had the immediate Direction and Superintendence of the five Societies who thus contributed to its Inſtitution. From each lower Baronial Committee thus conſtituted, one Member was delegated to an upper Baronial Committee, which in like Manner aſſumed and exerciſed the Superintendence and Direction of all the lower Baronial Committees in the ſeveral Counties.—The next ſuperior Committees were, in populous Towns, diſtinguiſhed by the Name of Diſtrict Committees, and in Counties by the Name of County Committees, and were compoſed of Members delegated by the upper Baronials. Each upper Baronial Committee delegated one of its Members to the Diſtrict or County Committee, and theſe Diſtrict or County Committees had the Superintendence and Direction of all the upper Baronials, who contributed to their Inſtitution.—Having thus organized the ſeveral Counties and populous Towns, a ſubordinate Directory was erected in each of the four Provinces, compoſed of two Members or three, according to the Extent and Population of the Diſtricts which they repreſented, who were delegated to a Provincial Committee, which had the immediate Direction and Superintendence of the ſeveral County and Diſtrict Committees in each of the four Provinces; and a General Executive Directory compoſed of five Perſons, was elected by the Provincial Directories, but the Election was ſo managed that none but the Secretaries of the Provincials knew on whom the Election fell—It was made by Ballot, but not reported to the Electors, the Appointment was notified only to thoſe on whom the Election devolved, and the Executive Directory thus compoſed, aſſumed and exerciſed the ſupreme and uncontrouled Command of the whole Body of the Union.

The Manner of communicating the Orders iſſued by the Executive Directory, was peculiarly calculated to baffle Detection. One Member of the Executive alone communicated cated with one Member of each Provincial Committee or Directory,—The Order was tranſmitted by him to the Secretary of each County or Diſtrict Committee in his Province,—The Secretaries of the County and Diſtrict Committees, communicated with the Secretaries of the upper Baronials in each County, they communicated with the Secretaries of the lower Baronial Committees, who gave the Order to the Secretaries of each Subordinate Committee, by whom it was given to the ſeveral inferior Members of the Union.—It appears to your Committee, that the Leaders and Directors of this Conſpiracy having completed this their revolutionary Syſtem in the Province of Ulſter ſo early as the tenth of May one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five; and having made conſiderable Progreſs in eſtabliſhing it in the Autumn and Winter of one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix in the Province of Leinſter, proceeded at that Period to convert it into a Military Shape and Form, for the undiſguiſed Project of Rebellion; and this Project has been diſtinctly and unequivocally acknowledged by the aforeſaid Arthur O'Connor, William-James M'Nevin, Thomas-Addis Emmett, and Oliver Bond, who have confeſſed themſelves to have been leading and active Members of this Conſpiracy, as will appear more diſtinctly to your Lordſhips from the Confeſſions which they have made before your Committee, annexed by way of Appendix to this Report.

From the Confeſſions of theſe Perſons it appears to your Committee, that the Military Organization, as they termed it, was grafted on the Civil. That the Secretary of each ſubordinate Society compoſed of twelve, was appointed their petty or non-commiſſioned Officer, that the Delegate of five Societies to a lower Baronial Committee was commonly appointed Captain of a Company, compoſed of the five Societies who had ſo delegated him, and who made up the Number of ſixty Privates; and that the Delegate of ten lower Baronials to the upper or Diſtrict Committee, was commonly appointed Colonel of a Battalion, which was thus compoſed of ſix hundred Men—That the Colonels of Battalions in each County ſent in the Names of three Perſons to the Executive Directory of the Union, one of whom was appointed by them Adjutant-General of the County, whoſe Duty it was to receive and communicate Military Orders from the Executive to the Colonels of Battalions, and in general to act as Officers of the revolutionary Staff.—In Addition to this Eſtabliſhment, it appears that a Military Committee was appointed by the Executive Directory to prepare a regular Plan for aſſiſting a French Army, if any ſuch ſhould make a landing in this Kingdom, by directing the National Military Force, as it was called, to co-operate with them; or to form a regular Plan of Inſurrection in Caſe it ſhould be ordered, without waiting for French Aſſiſtance; and it appears to your Committee, that a regular and digeſted Plan of Inſurrection was actually formed and reduced to Writing in April one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, which was given up for that Time only from the Repreſentations of the Executive Directory of the Union that ſpeedy and effectual Aſſiſtance was promiſed from France. For the Purpoſe of arming this Body, Orders were given by the Iriſh Directory, that every Member of the Union who had the Means, ſhould provide himſelf with Fire-arms and Ammunition, and that ſuch Perſons, whoſe Means would not afford any other Weapons, ſhould provide themſelves with Pikes—which Order appeared to your Committee to have been executed in a very great Extent throughout the Provinces of Ulſter, Leinſter and Munſter—in the Province of Connaught the Emiſſaries of the Union ſeem not to have been enabled to proceed further in their Syſtem of Treaſon than by adminiſtering Oaths to the People; their further Progreſs ſeems to have been obſtructed by the vigorous Exertions of the Executive Government, when Rebellion broke forth in Acts of open Hoſtility.—It appears to your Committee, that the Directory of the Union having thus eſtabliſhed a Revolutionary Government in themſelves over a great Body of the People, iſſued an Order forbidding the Uſe of any Article of Conſumption liable to the Exciſe Duties, which Order was ſtated to your Committee by the aforeſaid Perſons, who had been Members of the Republican Directory, to have been generally and implicitly obeyed.—And it further appeared to your Committee from the Teſtimony of the ſame Perſons, or ſome of them, that an Order had been alſo iſſued by the ſame Directory to ſtop the Currency of Bank Notes, and to forbid the Purchaſe of Quit Rents payable to the Crown, which by an Act of this Seſſion have been veſted in the Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, to be ſold for the Service of the current Year, with a Threat on the Part of the Directory, that ſuch a Sale would be diſallowed at the approaching Revolution, as an Anticipation of its Reſources.

Your Committee having thus detailed the Syſtem of Treaſon and Rebellion eſtabliſhed within this Kingdom, which has been ſo acknowledged by ſome of the moſt active and confidential Members of the Iriſh Revolutionary Directory, will now proceed to open to your Lordſhips their dark and deſperate Deſigns, which have been confeſſed by them, of betraying their Country to a rapacious and mercileſs foreign Enemy.

It appears to your Committee, that early in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, a Propoſition was made from the Executive Directory of the French Republic, by Theobald-Wolfe Tone, late a Barriſter of this Country, who abſconded ſhortly after the Conviction of a Man of the Name of Jackſon, for Treaſon, in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-four, to the Executive Directory of the Iriſh Union, that a French Army ſhould be ſent to Ireland to aſſiſt the Republicans of this Country in ſubverting the Monarchy, and ſeparating Ireland from the Britiſh Crown.—The aforeſaid Meſſrs. Arthur O'Connor, Thomas-Addis Emmett, William-James M'Nevin, and Oliver Bond, all of whom have been Members of the Iriſh Republican Directory, have depoſed to your Committee, that this was the firſt Communication within their Knowledge which took Place between the Iriſh and the French Directories, and that the Propoſition originally moved from France: Your Committee however are of Opinion, that the Communication thus made to the Iriſh Directory through Mr. Tone muſt have taken Place in Conſequence of an Application originating with ſome Members of the Iriſh Union, inaſmuch as it appears by the Report of the Secret Committee of this Houſe made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, that a Meſſenger had been diſpatched by the Society of United Iriſhmen to the Executive Directory of the French Republic, upon a treaſonable Miſſion, between the Month of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five, and the Month of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, at which Time the Meſſenger ſo ſent had returned to Ireland; and your Committee have ſtrong Reaſon to believe, that Edward-John Lewins, who now is and has been for a conſiderable Time the accredited reſident Ambaſſador of the Iriſh Rebellious Union to the French Republic, was the Perſon thus diſpatched in the Summer of one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five. It appears to your Committee that the Propoſition ſo made by the French Directory, of Aſſiſtance to the Rebels of this Kingdom, was taken into Conſideration by the Executive Directory of the Iriſh Union immediately after it was communicated to them, that they did agree to accept the proffered Aſſiſtance, and that their Determination was made known to the Directory of the French Republic by a ſpecial Meſſenger—and your Committee have ſtrong Reaſon to believe, that the Invaſion of this Kingdom which was afterwards attempted, was fully arranged at an Interview which took Place in Switzerland in the Summer of one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, near the French Frontier, between Lord Edward Fitzgerald, the aforeſaid Mr. Arthur O'Connor, and General Hoche.—It appears to your Committee, that in the Month of October or November, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, the hoſtile Armament which ſoon after appeared in Bantry Bay, was announced to the Iriſh Directory by a ſpecial Meſſenger diſpatched from France, who was alſo inſtructed to enquire into the State of Preparation in which this Country ſtood, which Armament was then ſtated to the Iriſh Directory to conſiſt of fifteen thouſand Troops, together with a conſiderable Quantity of Arms and Ammunition intended for the Uſe of the Iriſh Republican Union.—In a few Days after the Departure of the Meſſenger who had been thus ſent to announce the ſpeedy Arrival of this Armament on the Coaſts of this Kingdom, it appears to your Committee, that a Letter from France was received by the Iriſh Directory, which was conſidered by them as authentic, ſtating that the projected Deſcent was poſtponed for ſome Months, and to this Circumſtance it has been fairly acknowledged to your Committee, by one of the Iriſh Directory, that this Country was indebted for the good Conduct of the People in the Province of Munſter, when the Enemy appeared in Bantry Bay.—He has confeſſed that theſe contradictory Communications threw the Iriſh Directory off their Guard, in Conſequence of which they omitted to prepare the People for the Reception of the Enemy.—He has confeſſed that the People were loyal, becauſe they were left to themſelves.—It appears to your Committee, that after the Attempt to invade this Kingdom in December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, had failed, the Iriſh Directory renewed their Solicitations to France for Aſſiſtance, and it was determined by them to eſtabliſh a regular Communication and Correſpondence with the Directory of France, by a reſident accredited Iriſh Miniſter at Paris.—Accordingly it appears to your Committee, that in April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, Edward-John Lewins of this City, Attorney at Law, was diſpatched from hence, under the aſſumed Name of Thompſon, to act as the Miniſter of the Iriſh Republican Directory at Paris. That he went by Way of Hamburgh, where he obtained a Letter of Credence from the French Miniſter to General Hoche, with whom he had a Conference at Franckfort, from whence he proceeded to Paris, where he has continued to reſide from that Time, as the Miniſter of the Executive Directory of the Republic of Ireland.—It appears to your Committee, that in June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, a ſecond Meſſenger, Doctor William-James M'Nevin, was diſpatched by the ſame Directory to Paris, with more preciſe Inſtructions than they were enabled to give to Lewins, and that M'Nevin alſo took Hamburgh in his Way, where finding ſome Difficulty in obtaining a Paſſport from Rheynhart the French Miniſter to enable him him to go to Paris, he preſented a Memoir in Writing to that Miniſter, containing the Subſtance of his Inſtructions from his Employers, to be tranſmitted to the Directory of the French Republic.—M'Nevin has ſtated to your Committee the principal Points of this Memoir, in which it was recommended particularly to the Directory of the French Republic, on their next Attack upon this Kingdom, rather to make a Landing at Oyſterhaven than at Bantry, as the Reduction of the City of Cork would be thereby conſiderably facilitated—and he has ſtated, that it alſo contained every Species of Information which occurred to the Iriſh Directory as uſeful to the Enemy in their projected Invaſion of this Kingdom, the Particulars of which your Committee forbear further to detail, as they have annexed the ſaid M'Nevin's Confeſſion, made to them by Way of Appendix to this Report.—It appears to your Committee, that the ſaid M'Nevin having obtained a Paſſport from the French Miniſter at Hamburgh, ſoon after the Delivery of his Memoir to him, proceeded directly to Paris, where he had ſeveral Conferences with ſome of the Miniſters of the French Republic, in which he preſſed ſtrongly upon them the Advantages of a ſecond Armament againſt this Kingdom, in which an additional Supply of Arms was repreſented as neceſſary, from the Seizure which had been made, by Order of Government, of Arms which had been collected for Rebellion in the Northern Province; and the Expenſes of this Armament, as well as of that which had already failed, he undertook, for the Iriſh Directory, ſhould be defrayed on the Eſtabliſhment of a Republic in Ireland; and in theſe Conferences it appears to your Committee, that it was ſtrongly impreſſed upon the French Directory to make the Separation of Ireland from the Kingdom of Great Britain an indiſpenſable Condition of any Treaty of Peace which might be concluded in Conſequence of the Negotiation which then depended at Liſle:—The better to impreſs his Arguments, a ſecond written Memoir was preſented by the ſaid M'Nevin, enforcing as ſtrongly as he could, every Thing which he had theretofore urged, to encourage the Invaſion of this Kingdom by a French Force, and to induce the Directory of the French Republic to continue the War with Great Britain, until Ireland ſhould be ſeparated from the Britiſh Crown; and it appears to your Committee, that M'Nevin was further inſtructed to negotiate a Loan of half a Million in France or Spain for the Iriſh Directory, on the Security of the Revolution which they meditated, but that in this Object of his Miſſion he failed altogether:—It appears to your Committee, that immediately after the Negotiation at Liſle was broken off, Information of it was ſent from France to the Iriſh Directory, with Aſſurances that the French Government would never abandon the Cauſe of the Iriſh Union, nor make Peace with Great Britain, until the Separation of Ireland from the Britiſh Crown was effected; and with freſh Aſſurances of a ſpeedy Invaſion, which have frequently been renewed ſince that Period.—It appears to your Committee, that the ſaid M'Nevin returned to this Kingdom in October one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, when he made his Report to the Iriſh Directory of the Reſult of his Miſſion, and that they might rely with Confidence on the promiſed Succours from France; and it has alſo appeared to your Committee that in July or Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, the Iriſh Directory received a Diſpatch from their Miniſter at Paris, announcing the Dutch Armament in the Texel intended againſt this Kingdom, which was baffled and diſcomfited by the ever memorable and perſevering Valor of the Britiſh Fleet, commanded by Lord Duncan.—It appears to your Committee, that three ſeveral Diſpatches have been received by the Iriſh Directory from their Miniſter at Paris ſince October one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven; the two firſt contained a Renewal generally of the former Aſſurances of Friendſhip and Support given by the Directory of the French Republic; the laſt announced that the projected Invaſion of Ireland would be made in the Month of April one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight. And it appears to your Committee, that a Diſpatch for the Directory of the French Republic, earneſtly preſſing for the promiſed Succours, was made up by the Iriſh Directory, late in December one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, or early in January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight, which one of them undertook to have conveyed to France; but that the Attempt failed.—It has been ſtated to your Committee by one of the Rebel Directory of Ireland, who was privy to this Act of Treaſon, that the Diſpatch was not to be ſent through Great Britain; but he did not explain to your Committee any Reaſon on which this Aſſertion was founded, nor any other Route by which the Meſſenger was to make his Way to France. The ſeveral Perſons aforeſaid, who have ſo confeſſed themſelves to have been Members of the Executive Revolutionary Directory of the Iriſh Rebels, and acknowledged their traitorous Correſpondence and Connexion with the Directory of the French Republic, have endeavoured to palliate this Branch of their Treaſon, by aſcribing it, firſt to their Diſapprobation of an Act of Parliament paſſed in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, to prevent Inſurrection, next to their Diſappointment in obtaining a Parliamentary Reform, and laſtly, by repreſenting their Diſinclination to negotiate with France for a greater Force than might enable them to ſubvert the Monarchy, and retain the Government of this Country in their own Hands.

The Falſehood and Abſurdity of theſe Pretences are ſo manifeſt that your Committee would have thought it unbecoming to advert to them in their Report, if theſe avowed Traitors to their King and Country had not in Part learned thus to palliate their Treaſon from Perſons of a very different Deſcription in Great Britain and Ireland, who fatally for the Peace of this Kingdom and the Security of the Britiſh Empire, have during the Progreſs of this moſt foul and unnatural Rebellion, from utter Ignorance and Miſinformation on the Subject, as your Committee muſt preſume, publicly and repeatedly palliated, if not juſtified, that Syſtem of Treaſon which had well nigh involved this once happy and flouriſhing Kingdom in all the Miſeries of the French Revolution.—With reſpect to the Inſurrection Act your Committee have only to obſerve that it paſſed into a Law on the twenty-fourth of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, and was not put into Execution before the fourteenth of November one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety ſix, on which Day the firſt Proclamation, which iſſued under the Proviſions of it, bears Date, and that the Introduction of it into the Houſe of Commons was long ſubſequent to the Period when it appears that the Connexion and Correſpondence of the Iriſh Union with the Directory of the French Republic firſt commenced; And that it was enacted in Conſequence of a Syſtem of Midnight Murder, Robbery and Outrage which began in one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-two, and was ſo matured in one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix under the Influence and Direction of the Iriſh Union as nearly to depopulate a very conſiderable Diſtrict in two of the Provinces, of every loyal and peaceable Inhabitant of it. With Reſpect to Parliamentary Reform your Committee have to obſerve that it was diſtinctly acknowledged by the Perſons who in their own Phraſe have taken upon them to think for the People, that no Reform of Parliament will ſatisfy them which does not neceſſarily involve in it, the ſubverſion of all Eccleſiaſtical Eſtabliſhments Proteſtant or Popiſh, and the gradual Separation of this Kingdom from the Britiſh Crown; and that no Plan of Reform will ſatisfy them ſhort of an Houſe of Commons purely Democratic.—It was further alledged by the ſeveral Perſons who ſo acknowledged their Traitorous Connexion with France, that the immediate Cauſe of their eſtabliſhing a reſident Agent at Paris, was the Rejection of a Plan of Reform which was propoſed in one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety ſeven in the Houſe of Commons, which Plan they ſaid would have ſatisfied the People. But the palpable falſehood of this Aſſertion appears by the Journals of the Houſe of Commons; for theſe Perſons have all confeſſed that their Reſident Agent was diſpatched by them to Paris in April one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, with Inſtructions to negociate a Treaty with the Directory of France; and the Propoſition for Parliamentary Reform, to the Rejection of which they pretend to aſcribe the Miſſion of Lewins, was not made till the fifteenth of May one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven. As to Catholic Emancipation (as it is called) it was admitted by them all to have been a mere Pretence from the firſt Eſtabliſhment of the Iriſh Union, and that if they had been enabled to ſucceed in their Plan of Reform and Revolution it would have involved in it equally the Deſtruction of the Proteſtant and Popiſh Religion—The ſaid M'Nevin having diſtinctly acknowledged that the Intention was to aboliſh all Church Eſtabliſhment, and not to have any Eſtabliſhed Religion, and that, for his own Part, he would as ſoon eſtabliſh the Mahometan as the Popiſh Religion, though he was himſelf a Roman Catholic. With Reſpect to their Diſinclination to negociate for a French Force to be ſent into this Kingdom of ſufficient Magnitude to conquer it—the Idea of ſetting Bounds to the Ambition and Rapacity of that Power, if once enabled to eſtabliſh itſelf here, is too abſurd to deſerve any Notice; but it appears to your Committee, that the Directory of France have heretofore declined to ſend any Force to this Country which will not enable them to dictate ſuch Terms to it as they may think fit, although it appears to have been urged to them, on the Part of the Iriſh Rebels, particularly by Lord Edward Fitzgerald, that the beſt Expedient for accompliſhing a Revolution here would be, to diſpatch faſt ſailing Frigates to the Coaſt with ſmall Bodies of Troops and conſiderable Supplies of Arms and military Stores, together with Officers qualified to diſcipline the Iriſh Peaſantry; but from a Letter ſuppoſed to be written from Paris by Lewins, the Iriſh Agent to the ſaid Lord Edward Fitzgerald, which he read, ſhortly before his Arreſt, to John Cormick a Colonel in the Rebel Army of Dublin, it appears that the Directory of France diſapproved of any ſuch Plan of carrying their Object—the Terms of the Letter are, "The "Truſtees have refuſed to advance the five "thouſand Pounds on the Security, they will "not make any partial Advance till they "have the whole Sum ready."

Upon a Review of this Subject, of the Evidence which has been collected, and of all thoſe Facts of Notoriety which have taken Place in this Kingdom for the laſt eight Years, your Committee feel themſelves fully warranted to ſtate, that there has been, during the whole of that Period, a ſeditious and treaſonable Faction in this Country, whoſe Object has been to ſubvert the Conſtitution in Church and State, and to ſeparate Ireland from the Britiſh Crown, by inculcating the Principles, and adopting the Means which were ſucceſsfully employed to aboliſh the Religion, extirpate the Nobility, and ſubvert the Monarchy of France.

Your Committee here allude to the Addreſſes which were forwarded at an early Period, from this Faction to the French National Aſſembly, to their Commemorations of French Feſtivals, particularly the fourteenth of July, to their Attempts made to pervert the loyal Inſtitution of Volunteers to the Purpoſes of Rebellion, by reviving it on the Syſtem of the French National Guards; to the Inſtitution of the original Societies of United Iriſhmen, their various ſeditious and treaſonable Publications in favor of the French and the Republican Syſtem, vilifying and degrading the Government and Parliament of their own Country, particularly by repreſenting the Houſe of Commons, as it is conſtituted, not to be a legitimate Branch of the Legiſlature, that it was in its original Formation a Violation of the Rights of the People, and has continued to be an Uſurpation on them; to their perſevering Induſtry in iſſuing and circulating theſe and all other Publications at the cheapeſt Rate amongſt the lower Orders of the People, which could alienate their Minds from the Duty of Allegiance, and inculcate the Principles of Inſubordination, Revolt and Irreligion, and to their Attempts, in Imitation of the French Revolutioniſts, to form a National Convention.

Your Committee further allude to the Syſtem of Organization which they have already detailed, which appears to them to have been formed by this Faction when their open Attempts to ſubvert the Conſtitution were fruſtrated by the Convention Act; and to the ſecret Obligations which they impoſed upon their Aſſociates, to elude Detection and Puniſhment.

Your Committee further allude to the Meaſures which were purſued by the ſame Faction to intimidate the reſident Gentlemen of the Country, by Midnight Attacks, in order to drive them from their Houſes, or to enforce their Connivance or Support, a Courſe which your Committee underſtand was purſued with fatal Succeſs in France; and to the impudent Falſehood and Calumnies propagated with ſimilar Induſtry by the ſame Faction, and by their Partizans, repreſenting the Means to which the Government and Parliament were compelled to reſort, for the Suppreſſion of Midnight Robbery and Murder, and for the Diſcomfiture of Rebellion, as the Source of theſe complicated Evils.

Your Committee further allude to the inſidious Addreſs uſed by the ſame Faction, in turning to their Purpoſes the religious Feuds, Prejudices and Diſtinctions of the Country, which were revived principally by their wicked Machinations; at one Time flattering the Paſſions and Hopes of the higher Order of the Catholics, at the Moment in which they meditated their Deſtruction, and at another, ſtimulating the lower Ranks to indiſcriminate Acts of Outrage and Vengeance againſt their loyal Fellow Subjects.

Your Committee further allude to the Plan formed by the ſame Faction, of arraying and regimenting the whole Maſs of the People, of ſupplying them with Arms and Ammunition forced from the Loyal, and of eſtabliſhing in every Part of the Country Manufactories of Pikes to be diſtributed amongſt the loweſt Ranks of the People.

Your Committee further allude to the early Diſpoſition which appeared in the Leaders of the ſame Faction to correſpond with the ruling Powers of France, to obtain French Aſſiſtance in their revolutionary Projects, and to the regular Syſtem which they afterwards eſtabliſhed, for connecting themſelves with the Executive Directory of the French Republic, wherein they appear to have acted as the ruling Power of the Country, negotiating Treaties and Loans of Money with foreign States.

Your Committee further allude to the repeated Attempts which have been made by the ſame Faction to ſeduce the King's Troops of all Deſcriptions from their Allegiance, and their Attempts to deter his Majeſty's loyal Subjects from enrolling themſelves in the Yeomanry Corps; to their Plans of Inſurrection, Maſſacre and Confiſcation, which have been clearly proved againſt ſome of their Leaders, who have been convicted of Treaſon by due courſe of Law, and have been confeſſed by others of them before your Committee; and above all, to the deſperate Project of the ſame Faction to corrupt the Youth of the Country, by introducing their organized Syſtem of Treaſon into the Univerſity, which Attempt was happily fruſtrated by the timely Interpoſition of the Viſitors of Trinity College, and by the high Spirit of Honor and Loyalty of the great Body of Students in that learned Seminary.

Your Committee further allude to the various Inſurrections which were meditated, as well as thoſe which have actually taken Place; to the late deſtructive Rebellion, and the preſent Invaſion by a French Force, which your Committee feel themſelves warranted in ſtating accurately to correſpond with the Plan of revolutionizing this Country, which was recommended by Lord Edward Fitzgerald.

It appears to your Committee, that the Government and Legiſlature being ſenſible of the Deſigns thus meditated againſt the Conſtitution of this Kingdom, felt themſelves bound to reſiſt every Demand which was made upon them by the ſame Faction, with a View to effect their traitorous Purpoſes; and as it appears from the Confeſſion of ſome of the moſt leading and notorious Traitors engaged in this Conſpiracy, that what they termed Catholic Emancipation and Parliamentary Reform were conſidered as the ſureſt Means of accompliſhing their rebellious Projects, your Committee cannot but applaud the Wiſdom and Diſcretion of Parliament in withholding their Aſſent to ſuch wild and fatal Conceſſions—If any Thing was wanting in Proof of their Wiſdom, it is ſupplied by a Reſolution entered into by the Rebel Provincial Committees of Ulſter and Leinſter on the nineteenth February one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight, the Day on which a Propoſition was made to your Lordſhips of Conceſſion and Conciliation to the People, as a probable Meaſure to tranquiliſe the Country. This Reſolution was agreed to in the ſame Words and on the ſame Day, nineteenth February one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight, by two Provincial Committees, one aſſembled at Armagh, the other at Dublin, it has been authenticated to your Committee, and appears to have been officially reported to the Executive Directory of the Rebellious Union, and is in the following Words—" Reſolved, that we will pay " no Attention whatever to any Attempt " that may be made by either Houſe of " Parliament to divert the public Mind from " the grand Object we have in View, as " nothing ſhort of the complete Emancipa- " tion of our Country will ſatisfy us."

On the whole your Committee attribute the Salvation of this Kingdom to the vigorous and deciſive Meaſures of the Executive Government, adopted in March one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, and purſued from the ſame Period; and to the Firmneſs of Parliament, who, always diſpoſed to promote the Welfare and Happineſs of the People, have evinced a determined Reſolution never to yield to the Artifices of Traitors, what is intended only for the Subverſion of the Conſtitution—But your Committee think it their bounden Duty to ſtate to your Lordſhips, that although it appears to them, that the Syſtem of Treaſon and Rebellion which had been eſtabliſhed, is for the preſent conſiderably ſhaken, yet that having fatally taken deep Root in the Country, it will require unceaſing Vigilance and Attention, in every Department of the State, to guard againſt the Revival of it.—Your Committee have to lament deeply the Facility with which the lower Orders of the People may be ſeduced from their Allegiance, and cannot but repreſent to your Lordſhips their decided Opinion, that no Effort ſhould remain untried, to open their Eyes to the Evils which they have invariably ſuffered by yielding to Seduction, and to the wicked Artifices of that traitorous Aſſociation, which has already involved them in extreme and complicated Miſeries.

Your Committee have thought it their Duty to annex by Way of Appendix to this Report, the Confeſſions of their Treaſons made on Oath, by ſome of the moſt notorious and leading Traitors, who have been engaged in this Conſpiracy, and who have thrown themſelves on his Majeſty's clemency.

And your Committee beg Leave alſo to refer your Lordſhips to the Report of the Committee of Secrecy of the Houſe of Commons, which will be found to contain moſt intereſting and important Details upon this Subject, all of which are fully illuſtrated and proved in the Appendix annexed to their Report.

No. I. Examination of John Hughes.

Friday, 3d Auguſt, 1798.

John Hughes, of Belfaſt ſworn,

Says about five Years ago, in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety three, he was admitted a Member of the firſt Society of United Iriſhmen in Belfaſt; the Society conſiſted of about ſeventy of the leading People in Buſineſs in Belfaſt, ſuch as Mr. M'Cabe, Mr. Boyd, Mr. Watt, and Perſons of that Deſcription. There were four or five other Societies of the ſame Kind then in Belfaſt. There was no Oath on Admiſſion at that Time; the Members took a Teſt only; he did not attend much to the Society, and the Syſtem of one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-three fell into diſuſe.

About July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety ſix, he became a Member of a Society (which regenerated under the preſent Syſtem of the United Iriſhmen) in Belfaſt; it was called the Firſt Society of United Iriſhmen in Belfaſt; Robert Orr, then a Chandler in Belfaſt, adminiſtered the Oath on his Admiſſion; the Oath he took is exactly the ſame as that which is ſet out in the printed Conſtitutions. That Society conſiſted of the following Perſons, namely, the ſaid Robert Orr, Thomas Richardſon, —— Browne, and two or three other Perſons whoſe Names he did not know, and to whom he was and is yet an utter Stranger. He ſuppoſes he was brought by Orr to that Society, becauſe the the other Members of it were Strangers to him, for at that Time it was neceſſary that ſix United Iriſhmen ſhould be preſent when a new Member was ſworn. Soon after he formed a Society of United Iriſhmen himſelf in Belfaſt.—That Society conſiſted of the following Perſons, namely, Mr. Robert Hunter, of Belfaſt, Broker; John Tiſdall, of Belfaſt, Notary Public; James Maclean, of Belfaſt, Watch-maker; Henry Hazelett, of Belfaſt, Merchant; Samuel Maclean, of Belfaſt, Merchant; Thomas M'Donnell, of Belfaſt, Grocer; James Luke, of Belfaſt, Linen Factor; Hugh Crawford, of Belfaſt, Merchant; William Thompſon, of Belfaſt, Linen Merchant; Adam M'Lean, of Belfaſt, Woollen Draper; Walter Crawford, of Belfaſt, Iron Merchant; Hugh Dunlap, of Belfaſt, Builder; and William Hogg, of Belfaſt, Linen Factor.

He was Secretary to the Society and brought the Prayer-book to ſwear in the Members, they took the Book, and he alſo furniſhed them with the Conſtitution, and they took the Oath at the Table.—After the Expiration of his Office of Secretary to the Society, which was about three Months after he formed it, he did not attend regularly, and was not an active Member.—In the Month of November, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, Bartholemew Teeling, then of Dundalk, Linen Merchant, met him in Belfaſt; he had been well acquainted with Teeling before that Time, and each knew the other to be an United Iriſhman.—Teeling aſked him if he could ſpare a Fortnight or three Weeks to go to Dublin for the Purpoſe of promoting and extending the Societies of United Iriſhmen there; he did not underſtand that Teeling then held any Office in the Syſtem, but that he was acting from Zeal in the Cauſe; he conſented to go to Dublin for the Purpoſe; he did not ſtipulate for being paid or reimburſed his Expenſes.—He did not receive any Letters of Introduction from Teeling, but Teeling directed him, verbally, to call upon Edward-John Lewins, of Beresford-ſtreet, Dublin, and to communicate with him upon the beſt Means of extending the Syſtem of United Iriſhmen in Dublin.—It was Part of the Syſtem to avoid writing as much as poſſible, and no Perſon was employed in the confidential Buſineſs or Miſſions of the Society, whoſe Character was not a ſufficient Voucher for him.—He went to Dublin accordingly, and called upon Lewins. He told Lewins, that Mr. Teeling had directed him to call upon him, in order to be informed of the Situation and the Progreſs of the Societies in Dublin, that he might (if he could be uſeful) aſſiſt in promoting and extending them.—Lewins told him, that the Societies were gaining Ground in Dublin and extending in the Country, and Lewins (upon Conſideration) was of Opinion, that he could not be uſeful in Dublin, as his Acquaintance was very limited there.—He viſited Lewins generally once a Day whilſt he remained in Dublin, and frequently dined with him. The Company at his Table were generally Clergymen, and ſome of them Foreigners; he thinks it likely they were Prieſts.—He ſtaid in Dublin about three Weeks at that Time.—Teeling came to Dublin whilſt he was there, and lodged in the ſame Houſe with him, the Belfaſt Hotel in Capel-ſtreet.—Teeling ſtaid about three Days in Dublin at that Time, and nothing particular paſſed between them there.—He did not attend or ſit in any Society of United Iriſhmen during the Time he ſtaid in Dublin.

He returned to Belfaſt in December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix. He was ill with a Rheumatiſm for ſome Time after his Return to Belfaſt, and was not at the Town Meeting which was held in Conſequence of the French being in Bantry Bay.—He did not attend the Societies from Motives of Caution, but ſpoke to the young Men who were concerned, in the Day-time, in the Street, or when they called at his Houſe to aſk his Opinion.—He continued ſuch cautious Conduct till ſhortly before the Lent Aſſizes one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, when Mr. James M'Guckin the Attorney, requeſted him to go to Dublin in order to get a Licenſe for Counſellor Curran to be concerned for the Priſoners then in the ſeveral Gaols on the North Eaſt Circuit, charged as United Iriſhmen.—He accordingly went to Dublin, and at the deſire of Mr. M'Guckin waited upon Mr. Curran, to know whether he would attend as Counſel for the Priſoners at the Aſſizes.—Mr. Curran ſaid he would, but would expect to receive one hundred Guineas as a Fee for each and every Town he ſhould be deſired to go to.—He told Mr. Curran he ſhould have the Money, and he paid him fifty Pounds as a retaining Fee, and appointed him to attend at Monaghan Aſſizes firſt, and he would there be informed what other Towns he ſhould be required to attend at.——His general directions from M'Guckin were to get Curran down, on as cheap Terms as he could, but to get him down at all Events.—He did not attend at Monaghan, or Armagh Aſſizes, but he attended at the then enſuing Aſſizes at Carrickfergus.—Mr. Francis Jordan of Belfaſt, Merchant, was Treaſurer for the County of Antrim, and collected the Money.—Has heard moſt of the Gentlemen in Belfaſt ſubſcribed, that Cunningham Gregg paid twenty Guineas, Charles Rankin paid twenty Guineas, William Sinclaire paid twenty Guineas, Robert Thompſon paid ten Guineas for himſelf, five Guineas for his Son, and five Guineas for his Daughter.—Never heard that the Sub-ſheriff of Antrim received any Money from the Priſoners or their Agent, but heard that Hugh M'Key, ſub-ſheriff of the County of Down, was paid thirty Guineas for returning a partial Pannel, and that Alexander Lowry, of Linnen Hill, paid him the Money, viz. ten Guineas before the Trials came on, and twenty Guineas after the Aſſizes were over.—Believes the Subſcriptions for the County of Antrim then amounted to ſeven hundred Pounds and upwards, and the Subſcriptions for the County of Down amounted to nine hundred Pounds and upwards. Alexander Lowry was the Treaſurer for Down, he repaid him the Money he had advanced, viz: the fifty Pounds that he had paid to Mr. Curran as a retaining Fee, and about two hundred Pounds that he had paid for Licenſes for Mr. Curran.—He underſtood then in every Converſation he had, that Down and Antrim were prepared to riſe and prevent any capital Conviction being executed.—At the Lent Aſſizes of Antrim or Down, Lowry and Teeling requeſted him to meet them in Dublin early in June following; they did not acquaint him upon what Buſineſs they deſired to ſee him in Dublin; he ſuppoſed it was to ſtate to People in Dublin, the Situation of Belfaſt, or ſuch other Part of the Neighbourhood as he was acquainted with.—He conſented to meet them in Dublin.—A few Days afterwards he received a Note from Mr. John Magenis of Balealy, deſiring him to ſee him immediately at Balealy. He received this Note on a Saturday. He went to Balealy on the next Day and met Magenis.—Magenis told him it would be neceſſary for him to go to Dublin, where he would meet Lowry and Teeling and other Friends, but that he muſt firſt take an Obligation. Magenis then adminiſtered an Oath to him that he would not mention the Names of any of the Perſons he ſhould be introduced to, or with whom he ſhould communicate in Dublin.—He took that Oath, and on ſame Day ſet out from Balealy to Banbridge where he took a Place in the Mail Coach for Dublin, where he arrived the next Morning; this was ſome Days before the fifth of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven.—He met Lowry and Teeling in Dublin, they aſked him if he had ſeen Magenis.—He told them he had.—Lowry and Teeling then informed him that there was to be a National Meeting in Dublin at that Time, of Delegates from the different Provinces of Ireland under the Organization of United Iriſhmen, in order to receive a general Return of the Strength of the United Iriſhmen, and to determine whether an Inſurrection would be then practicable, and Lowry and Teeling told him the Reaſon they deſired him to meet them in Dublin was, to give his Opinion of the Strength and Readineſs of Down and Antrim to aid the Inſurrection, ſo far as he was capable of judging.—He ſaid his Opinion was, that as the People were in a great Meaſure diſarmed at that Time, the Majority of them would not riſe or join the Inſurrection.—Teeling ſaid his Opinion was otherwiſe; he ſaid Louth was anxious to riſe: Lowry ſaid Down was alſo anxious to riſe.—Lowry and Teeling afterwards told him that the National Meeting had taken Place at John Jackſon's in Church-Street, Dublin, and that the Delegates had agreed to proceed to Action.—Teeling ſhewed him a Map of Ireland at his (Teeling's) Lodgings in Aungier-Street, on which the Plan of the Inſurrection was deſcribed, and the Points marked to which certain numbers of Men were to be brought.—He underſtood that the Map ſo marked, had been prepared by ſome Iriſh Officers who had been in the Auſtrian Service, who expreſſed their Opinion decidedly, that the People were not in a State of Preparation to make a ſucceſsful Inſurrection, being deficient in Arms and Ammunition.—The Delegates left Dublin in order to raiſe their reſpective Counties, and to take the Field.—They collected the Colonels in each County in order to give them Directions for bringing out their Regiments;—The Colonels of the County of Antrim refuſed to come forward.—The Colonels of the County of Down agreed to bring their Regiments forward.—The other Counties in Ulſter were diſinclined to come forward, and therefore the intended Inſurrection did not take Place.—Lowry told him what had paſſed at the Meeting of the Down Colonels, and he underſtood the Reſult of the Applications to the Colonels of the other Counties, from Converſations with many People in Belfaſt at that Time.—Whilſt he was in Dublin in June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, Teeling invited him to Breakfaſt one Morning at his Lodgings in Aungier-Street, and told him he ſhould ſee ſome Friends; he went there accordingly, and met at Breakfaſt there, and after Breakfaſt on the ſame Day, at other Lodgings which Teeling had in the Munſter Hotel, in Cope-Street, the following Perſons, John Magenis, of Balealy, in the County of Down; Mr. Tony M'Cann, of Dundalk; Mr. Samuel Turner; John Byrne, of Union Lodge, near Dundalk; Mr. Patrick Byrne, who lives near Union Lodge; Colonel James Plunket; Alexander Lowry, and Mr. Andrew Cumming of the County of Galway, and Doctor M'Nevin.—The Converſation turned upon the State of the Country, and its Preparation and Fitneſs at that Time to begin the Inſurrection; in the Courſe of it, the Opinions of the before mentioned Perſons differed, ſome of them preſſed for the Inſurrection commencing immediately, particularly Teeling, Lowry, and M'Cann; ſome of the others were of Opinion, that however Ulſter might be ready to riſe, yet the other Provinces were not in a ſufficient Degree of Forwardneſs or Preparation for riſing. He met the above-mentioned Perſons at ſeveral other Times during his Stay in Dublin in June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven; and their Converſations were generally upon the State of Ireland, and to the Import before mentioned.—He left Dublin and returned to Belfaſt on or before the fourteenth Day of June.—He attended a Meeting at Randalſtown, which was held within about four Days of that Time; the Meeting conſiſted of Teeling, Lowry, Robert Moore, of Derry, Iron Monger, (as he believes his Chriſtian Name and Trade to be) and Colonel James Plunket; he attended ſaid Meeting by the Direction of Lowry and Teeling to hear the Report of the Colonels of the County of Antrim; the Report was brought to the Meeting (by a Perſon of the Name of Dunn, as he believes) who was Clerk to Bartly, Black, and Co. of Larne, accompanied by the Reverend Arthur M'Mahon, of Hollywood.—The Report from the Colonels was read by Dunn. The firſt Reſolution was, as he beſt recollects, that it was imprudent to act at that Time, without foreign Aid, but that if the County of Down would act, a Part of the Antrim Colonels who could bring out nine or ten thouſand Men would act with Down.—The Meeting broke up in Conſequence of the Diviſion amongſt the Antrim Colonels.—The Reverend Arthur M'Mahon told the Meeting, that he had been ſent by the Colonels of the County of Down, to ſtate to the Colonels of the County of Antrim who had met at Park-gate that Day, that they (the Colonels of Down) were willing to riſe, and that he had delivered ſuch the Meſſage of the Down Colonels to the Antrim Colonels.—M'Mahon was then a Member of the Ulſter Provincial Committee, and he told him that he had been one of the ſeven Colonels of the County of Down, who had been ſelected and appointed Leaders for ſaid County; and he alſo told him that he (M'Mahon) was a Member of the National Executive.—Teeling left Randalſtown with him on Tueſday, they came together to Shane's Caſtle, and ſlept there that Night, and got to Belfaſt on Wedneſday.—Teeling ſlept at his Houſe on ſaid Wedneſday, and on next Day he and Teeling went to Ballynahinch, where they met M'Mahon and Lowry at Armſtrong's Inn.—There was to have been a Meeting of the Leaders of Down and Antrim on that Day at Ballynahinch, but they did not come, and Teeling and Lowry left Ballynahinch determined to go to France, as it would not be ſafe for them to remain longer in this Country.—He returned home that night.—M'Mahon was informed on his Road home (as he heard) that he would be taken; and he, Robert-Rollo Read, Haſtings Maſon, once an Officer in the Downſhire Militia, and John Magenis, took Boat at Bangor and got over to Scotland, and afterwards M'Mahon got to France where he ſtill is.

From June to November, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, his private Affairs became embarraſſed, and he ſtopped Payment in November, and a Commiſſion of Bankruptcy iſſued againſt him ſome Time afterwards.—He did not attend any civil or military Meeting of United Iriſhmen from June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, till March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight, when he ſurrendered himſelf under the Commiſſion in Dublin.

He went to Dublin in March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight, and ſtaid two Days; the Time for his final Examination was enlarged till the twenty-firſt of April; he went to Dublin on the twentieth of April, and remained there about nine Days.—He called on Samuel Neilſon, walked with him to Mr. Cormick, a Feather Merchant, in Thomas-Street.—He was introduced by Neilſon to Cormick in the Office.—Cormick aſked them to go up Stairs: he and Neilſon went up Stairs and found Lord Edward Fitzgerald and Mr. Lawleſs, the Surgeon, playing at Billiards.—He had been introduced to Lord Edward about a Year before by Teeling; he was a Stranger to Lawleſs; ſtaid about an Hour; no particular Converſations; was invited to dine there that Day, and did ſo; the Company were Lord Edward, Lawleſs, Neilſon, Cormick, and his Wife.—The Converſation turned upon the State of the Country, and the violent Meaſures of Government in letting the Army looſe.—The Company were all of Opinion, that there was then no Chance of the People reſiſting by Force with any Succeſs.—He was alſo introduced by Gordon, who had been in Newgate, and Robert Orr, of Belfaſt, Chandler, to Mr. Rattican, the Timber Merchant, at the Corner of Thomas-Street.—Rattican talked to him on the State of the Country and of the City of Dublin, and told him that they would begin the Inſurrection in Dublin by liberating the Priſoners in Kilmainham.—Rattican ſhewed him a Plan of the intended Attack upon Kilmainham.—Whilſt he was in Dublin, in April, he dined with Neilſon at the Brazen Head.—Next Day Neilſon called him up at five o'Clock, and they went to Sweetman's, near Judge Chamberlain's, to Breakfaſt; Sweetman was then in Priſon, but Neilſon lived in his Houſe.—Neilſon took Sweetman's Carriage to Mr. Grattan's, and brought him along with him.——When they got to Mr. Grattan's, Neilſon told him he had ſomething to ſay to Mr. Grattan in private, and deſired him to take a Walk in the Domain.—Neilſon however introduced him to Mr. Grattan firſt; and Mr. Grattan ordered a Servant to attend him to ſhew him the Grounds.—He returned in about half an Hour.——Went into Mr. Grattan's Library.—Neilſon and Grattan were there together.—Grattan aſked a variety of Queſtions touching the State of the Country in the North; how many Families had been driven out, and how many Houſes burned by the Government or the Orange Men?—Grattan ſaid he ſuppoſed he was an United

United Iriſhman; he ſaid he was.—Grattan aſked him how many United Iriſhmen were in the Province? He ſaid he reckoned one hundred and twenty-ſix thouſand.—Grattan aſked how many Orange Men there were? he ſaid about twelve thouſand.—Grattan made no particular Anſwer.—Neilſon and he left Grattan's about twelve in the Day; they walked to their Carriage which was at Eniſkerry; he aſked Neilſon what had paſſed between Grattan and him.—Neilſon evaded the Queſtion, but ſaid generally that he had gone down to Grattan to aſk him whether he would come forward, and that he had ſworn him.—That Grattan promiſed to meet him in Dublin before the next Tueſday.—He left Dublin that Evening and returned to Belfaſt.—He has known the Reverend Steele Dickſon of Portaferry for two Years intimately.—Saw him at the Aſſizes of Antrim and Down at Lent Aſſizes one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven.—He ſaw him acting with Lowry, Turner and Teeling as one of the Committee for conducting the Priſoners Defence.—Nicholas Magin called on him with a Meſſage from Doctor Dickſon, that Dickſon was going to Ballynahinch to remain there till Tueſday, and that he would be at Mr. Pottingers till ſeven o'Clock of that Evening.—Dickſon called upon him Friday the firſt of June at his Houſe in Belfaſt, and told him that the Colonels of the United Iriſh Regiments in the County of Down had had a Meeting in a Field on the Day before, as Mr. Magin had ſtated, that twenty-three of them had agreed to fight, and commence the Rebellion, provided the County of Antrim and the other Counties of Ulſter, as he believes, would act with them, and as he (Dickſon) knew there was to have been a Meeting of the Colonels of the County of Antrim that Day, (viz. the firſt of June) Dickſon wiſhed to know whether he had heard any Thing from it.—He ſaid he had not heard of the Meeting.—He knew there was to be ſuch a Meeting; Hunter told him ſo.—Dickſon ſaid he would go out to Mr. Pottinger's that Evening, and requeſted he would ſend him Intelligence of what ſhould be done in the Antrim Meeting; that he would go from Mr. Pottinger's to Ballee, where he was to preach on Sunday, from thence he would go to Ballynahinch and remain there till Wedneſday.

On the Sunday, Mr. Keane, of Finlay's Bank, came from Dublin, and aſked him where Doctor Dickſon was.—He told Keane he would find him at Ballynahinch.—Keane went there on Monday, as he believes.

On Friday the firſt of June, Dickſon told him that he was one of the Adjutant Generals of the United Iriſhmens' Forces in the County of Down, and that he (Dickſon) would go to Ballynahinch and remain there till Wedneſday, as it was a central Place, from which he could iſſue his Orders to his Officers.—Dickſon told him that the Reaſon why he would remain at Ballynahinch till Wedneſday was, that the Antrim Colonels had adjourned till the Tueſday, and that he could receive their Determination in Ballynahinch on Wedneſday.

In February laſt, when the Priſoners were trying at the Commiſſion, Prieſt Quigley introduced him to Citizen Baily, who was an Officer in the Eaſt India Company's Service, and lived near Canterbury, and alſo to the younger Binns from England; thinks his Name is Benjamin.

Binns told him he had diſtributed moſt of the printed Addreſſes, intitled, "United "Britons to the United Iriſhmen," and gave him a Copy of it, and directed him to print an Edition of them.—He printed one thouſand of them, and the one now produced to him is a Copy of that which Binns delivered to him.—Mr. John Caldwell, of Belfaſt, paid him for printing the Edition; as the Copies were wrought off he ſent them to Mr. Caldwell.—Caldwell paid three guineas to him for the printing.

He heard a Mr. Bonham came with Baily and Binns from London, and was the Delegate from England to Ireland mentioned in the Paper.—He never ſaw Mr. Bonham.—Either Binns or Baily told him that the Addreſs was written by a Mr. Coſgrave of London.—John Caldwell, of Belfaſt, managed a Lottery.—Caldwell told him, that he had been appointed Treaſurer for the Lottery; that it was to conſiſt of two thouſand Tickets, at one Guinea each, the higheſt Prize three hundred Pounds.—The Profits to be applied towards the general Syſtem of United Iriſhmen.—The firſt immediate Want of Money was to ſend up and ſupport Witneſſes on the Trials in Dublin.

Q. You have ſaid that you were introduced to Mr. Grattan by Samuel Neilſon at his Houſe at Tinnehinch, in April laſt—Recollect yourſelf, and ſay whether you can ſpeak with certainty as to that Fact?

A. I certainly can.—About the twenty-eighth of April laſt, I went to Mr. Grattan's at Tinnehinch with Samuel Neilſon, on going into the Houſe we were ſhewed into the Library.—Neilſon introduced me to Mr. Grattan, and I ſoon after walked out, and left them alone for full half an Hour.—I ſaw a printed Conſtitution of the United Iriſhmen in the Room.

Q. Can you ſay, whether Mr. Grattan knew it to be the Conſtitution of United Iriſhmen?

A. I can—for he aſked me ſome Queſtions about it. He aſked me alſo a Variety of Queſtions about the State of the North.—When we were going away I heard Mr. Grattan

Grattan tell Neilſon that he would be in Town on or before the Tueſday following;—and I underſtood from Neilſon that Mr. Grattan had viſited him in Priſon, and on our Return to Town, Neilſon told me he had ſworn Mr. Grattan.

Neilſon and I breakfaſted that Morning at the Country Houſe of Sweetman, who was then in Priſon, and went from thence to Mr. Grattan's in Sweetman's Carriage.

APPENDIX.

No. II.

The Addreſs of the United Britons to the United Iriſhmen, proved and alluded to in the Evidence of John Hughes.

United Britons, to the United Iriſhmen.

FELLOW-MEN,

Anxious to diſſipate thoſe Prejudices, which a miſtaken and intereſted Policy has artfully diffuſed, to prevent an UNION of Sentiment and mutuality of Opinion from being held by the People of England and Ireland; we in the Name of the former, (with whoſe Sentiments we are acquainted, and whoſe Confidence we poſſeſs) declare that we will by every poſſible Means promote the EMANCIPATION OF BOTH COUNTRIES. To forward this great Object we offer you our Confidence, and in return demand yours.

Though labouring under the Yoke of the ſame Oppreſſors, the Siſter Countries have been differently treated. Ireland has always been the Object of direct and open Violence, England of Fraud; Ireland has been robbed, England has been cheated. One uniform Plan, DIVISION, has been carried on in both.—Sacrificed as Ireland has been to the Ambition of England, the Idea of her being treated as a FREE Country was too groſs to be obtruded upon the meaneſt Underſtanding; but England, whoſe Avarice was flattered by the deſpicable Lure of excluſive Trade, greedily ſwallowed the Bait. She was taught to believe that Riches flowed upon her, while Poverty was ſecretly inſinuating itſelf into her very Vitals.

Amidſt mock Contentions for LIBERTY, and real ones for Plunder, ſhe vainly imagined herſelf FREE, and was thereby induced to pay the Intereſt of a Debt, of greater Amount than the Value of the whole landed Property of the Country, without reflecting that Bankruptcy however late, muſt be the Conſequence of an overſtretched Credit.—THAT BANKRUPTCY HAS ARRIVED.

The Religious Diſſenſions between Catholic and Proteſtant in Ireland (whoſe Opinions admit of a real Diſtinction, and the party Squabbles between Whig and Tory in England (whoſe political ones admit of none) were aſſiduouſly fomented; the People were divided about the Shadow till they loſt the Subſtance. The Plan of Oppreſſion was ſyſtematically directed throughout both Countries to the ſame Object, though in apparent Oppoſition. In Ireland Revenue was only raiſed to be laviſhed in unmerited Penſions, without the Inſult of pretended National Advantage; in England the Veil of Fraud was neceſſary to cheat the People of large Sums under the plauſible Pretext of public Neceſſity. The undiſguiſed Oppreſſions of Ireland, by rendering Subſiſtence precarious to the Poor, have made her a conſtant Hotbed for the Satelites of Tyranny; but in England occaſional Crops could only be raiſed when the Flame of War unuſually forced the Soil. This marked Diſtinction in the Treatment of the Countries, has produced as marked a Difference in the Characters of the two Nations; Ireland has acquired that of manly Openneſs, England that of mean Diſguiſe.

England though abuſed with Forms has never been without ſincere Friends to ſubſtantial LIBERTY. Among them a Number of dark and deſigning Characters have always intruded; and their Conduct has furniſhed ſuch a Tiſſue of Apoſtacy, that general Apathy had nearly ſucceeded general Diſtruſt.

Various Political Societies have been inſtituted for the Purpoſe of REFORM, but of theſe, few could boaſt Purity of Principles, or Integrity of Leaders. Formerly Richmond headed the Votaries of Univerſal Suffrage, Fox thoſe of Repreſentation by Houſeholders, and Pitt thoſe who wiſhed to diſfranchiſe the Corrupt Boroughs, to throw their Proportion of Repreſentation into the Counties; but theſe have vaniſhed. The Society of the FRIENDS OF THE PEOPLE, and that for CONSTITUTIONAL INFORMATION, have diſcontinued their Exertions. The LONDON CORRESPONDING, and other Societies in UNION with it, have ariſen upon their Ruins, and as Univerſal Good is their Baſis, we doubt not, but, ſupported by Numbers and Principles, they will not be wanting in the Hour of Danger.

The IRISH, always an heroic People, had, during the American War, become an armed Nation. They took up Arms for Defence, and undertook the Cauſe of REFORM for Security. ENGLAND, likewiſe, engaged in the Cauſe of REFORM, but her Efforts were weak, as ſhe had not endured ſufficient to convince her of the Neceſſity of UNION.

The Efforts of a Number of eminent Perſons in both Countries in the Cauſe of FREEDOM, were inſufficient, becauſe Prejudice yet prevailed, and Men were not awakened to their juſt Rights and true Intereſts.

The Apoſtacy of ſeveral Leaders of the public Cauſe, added to the famous Coalition, ſmothered for a long Time, the Flame of LIBERTY; till the FRENCH REVOLUTION again fanned its dying Embers into a Glow, which, we hope and truſt, will never be extinguiſhed.

The Conduct of the two Countries, on this important Event, diſplayed a ſtriking Contraſt. IRELAND, who, by her Arms, had extorted from the Engliſh Government ſome Fragments of her Rights, ſeemed ready in the ſame Manner to demand the reſt. ENGLAND, alſo, formed Societies, whoſe Object was EMANCIPATION, but who hoped it might be obtained by Reaſon; Alas! they over-rated its Force.

The diſarming Bills in IRELAND, the Treaſon and Sedition Bills in ENGLAND, and their Conſequences in both Countries, need hardly be mentioned. On the People they have brought Chains, on the Government irreconcileable Hatred. One good Effect has, however, reſulted from mutual Sufferings, and mutual Commiſeration; the Prejudice of Nations is done away, and the ENGLISH burn with Deſire, to hail the IRISH, as Freemen, and as Brethren.

Our Numbers are immenſe, our Influence ſtill more conſiderable, and our Sentiments accord with yours. We are unthinned by the Tyranny of the Law or of the Sword; 'tis true, we have had our Fears and our Jealouſies, Spies and Informers have been introduced amongſt us, but all theſe have ſerved only to point out more clearly the Men who are worthy of Truſt, and in theſe, whether Rich or Poor, we have the higheſt Confidence.

Our DELEGATE is entruſted to lay before you our whole Proceedings; we, therefore, decline entering into Particulars in the preſent Addreſs. We have repoſed Confidence in you, and ſhall expect ſuch a Return as you may think our Integrity and Talents deſerve. We doubt not but you will, with us, ſee the Propriety of eſtabliſhing unlimited Confidence, or declining our Interference as fruitleſs. Should you think our Situation, our Influence, and our Opportunities calculated to ſerve the Common Cauſe, rely upon our Diligence, our Zeal, and our Fidelity.

With beſt Wiſhes, for the Amelioration of the Condition of Man, and Hopes that your Exertions and Virtues, aided by an UNITED PEOPLE, WILL SPEEDILY EMANCIPATE YOUR COUNTRY; we remain in the Bonds of BROTHERHOOD AND UNION.

Your's Fraternally!

APPENDIX,

No. III.

Examination of Dr. William-James M'Nevin,

Tueſday, 7th Auguſt, 1798.

Doctor William-James M'Nevin, ſworn.

Q. When did you become an United Iriſhman?

A. About September or October one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, I became a Member of the Cloſe Society of United Iriſhmen.—It conſiſted of Societies at firſt compoſed of thirty-ſix Members, afterwards theſe Societies were reduced to twelve Members, each Society of twelve choſe a Secretary and generally a Treaſurer.

Q. What was the next higher Society?

A. The Secretaries of five Societies formed a Lower Baronial Committee, out of each of the Lower Baronial Committees one Perſon was choſen to be a Member of the Upper Baronial, each of the Upper Baronials conſiſted of ten Members thus choſen.—The next Superior Committees were, in populous Towns, Diſtrict Committees, and in Counties, County Committees, theſe were compoſed of one Member elected from each Baronial.—The next Superior Committees were the Provincial Committees, compoſed of two Members, ſometimes three, elected from each County Committee.

Q. How was the Executive choſen?

A. The Provincial Committees elected five Perſons by Ballot—the Secretary examined the Ballots, and reported to the Perſons elected, their Appointment, but made no Report of the Election to the Provincials, who were thus kept in Ignorance of the Perſons who compoſed the Executive.—The Executive had the Command of the whole Body thus organized.

Q. How were the Orders of the Executive communicated?

A. One Member of the Executive communicated with one Member of the Provincial Committee, he with the Secretary of the County Committee, he in like Manner, with the Secretaries of the Baronials, and theſe Secretaries with thoſe of the ſubordinate Societies.

Q. Was

Q. Was there any Omiſſion made in the laſt Teſt?

A. In the laſt Teſt the Words were, "A "full Repreſentation of all the People," omiting the Words "in the Commons Houſe of "Parliament."

Q. Why was the Omiſſion made?

A. To reconcile Reformers and Republicans; and becauſe they had given up all Idea of Reform, and were determined on Republicaniſm.

Q. What was the Organization originally?

A. At firſt it was purely a civil Organization, but I believe it was Military in Ulſter about the latter End of one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix.

Q. What was the Nature of the Military Organization?

A. The Secretary of the Society of twelve was the petty Officer, that is, Serjeant or Corporal.—The Delegate of five Societies to a Lower Baronial, was uſually the Captain, and thus had ſixty Men under his Command, and the Delegate of ten Lower Baronials, to the Upper or Diſtrict Committee, was uſually the Colonel.—Thus a Battalion was compoſed of ſix hundred Men.

Q. In what Manner were the higher Officers or Staff appointed?

A. The Colonels of each County ſent in the Names of three Perſons to the Executive, one of whom was appointed by the Executive, Adjutant General of the County.—His Duty was to receive and communicate all Military Orders from the Executive.

Q. Was any Attempt made to procure Iriſh Officers who had ſerved in Foreign Armies?

A. Such a Plan was formed, but not proceeded on.

Q. Did they endeavour to prevail on French Officers in England or Ireland to join them?

A. They did not.

Q. Were any Attempts made to ſeduce the Army or Militia?

A. There were many.

Q. How were the Finances of the Society recruited?

A. Every Member of the Society paid a Monthly Subſcription.—This Fund was applied to the Support of Priſoners in Gaol, to defend them on their Trials, and to extend the Union.

Q. How were Arms and Ammunition to be procured?

A. The general Direction was for each Perſon to arm himſelf, ſuch as could afford it, with Fire Arms and Ammunition, others with Pikes.

Q. What was the Object of the Syſtem?

A. To effect a Revolution and eſtabliſh a Republic.

Q. How were Emiſſaries appointed to extend the Syſtem?

A. They were ſelected by ſome confidential Perſon in the different Diſtricts.

Q. How were the Expenſes of the Emiſſaries borne?

A. Out of the general Fund.

Q. Were the Reports of the Secret Committees of the two Houſes of Parliament laſt Year accurate?

A. I believe they were accurate, ſave that they underſtated the Number of Men and Arms.

Q. Do you know of any Depots of Arms or Ammunition?

A. I do not,—each Man concealed his own Arms, and I believe there were many engaged in the Syſtem who were not armed.

Q. For what Purpoſe were Arms provided?

A. For the Purpoſe of Inſurrection, and I think even after diſarming the North, the People were much inclined to riſe, but were prevented by a Repreſentation from the Iriſh National Executive Directory, that it would be abſurd to riſe, when their Enemies were prepared, and that they might ſoon expect foreign Aſſiſtance.—I believe they retained more Arms than were taken from them.

Q. When did the Military Organization begin in Leinſter?

A. In the Beginning or Middle of one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven.

Q. Was this Organization made with the Knowledge and Approbation of the Iriſh National Executive Directory for the Purpoſe of Rebellion and Revolution?

A. It was.

Q. When was the Syſtem introduced into Munſter?

A. About twelve or eighteen Months ſince, but it did not extend rapidly,—it went on quietly.

Q. Was there any Connection between the Union and the Scotch and Engliſh Societies?

A. There might have been ſome ſlight Connection between the North and thoſe Societies, but there was no cloſe Connection between them and the Executive Directory of the Union.—A Perſon came from the Correſponding Society in London to Dublin with an Addreſs which I ſaw, but I did not ſee the Perſon who brought it.

Q. How was the Military Committee appointed, and when?

A. It was appointed by the Executive Directory of the Union about February, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight.

Q. What was the Duty of this Committee?

A. To conſider and digeſt ſuch Plans, and direct the national Military Force in ſuch Manner as might be neceſſary in Caſe of Inſurrection;—and in Caſe of Invaſion to co-operate with the French.

Q. Was any Plan of Inſurrection formed, and when?

A. In April or May, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, a Plan of Inſurrection for the North was formed, and Heads drawn up in Writing, but it was ſoon given up and the Writing deſtroyed.

Q. Were any Directions given by the Executive Directory of the Union to the Members of it to abſtain from the Conſumption of Spirits and other exciſeable Goods?

A. There were; and it was recommended to ſtop the Currency of Bank Notes, and not to purchaſe Quit Rents.—A Hand-Bill to this Purpoſe was circulated by Order of the Executive Directory of the Union, ſtating that it was an Anticipation of the public Reſources, which at the Revolution would not be allowed to ſtand good.

Q. Have there been any Communications between the Revolutionary Executive Directory of Ireland, and the Executive Directory of the French Republic?

A. There have.—Previous to one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, ſome Perſons had gone from hence to France on Account of their political Opinions.—Early in one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, a Letter came from one of them ſtating that the Situation of this Country had been repreſented to the Directory of the French Republic who had promiſed to invade Ireland, for the Purpoſe of ſeparating it from Great Britain.—This Letter was taken into ſerious Conſideration by the Iriſh Executive early in one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, and an Anſwer was ſent in April that Year, accepting the Propoſal on Condition that they ſhould come as Allies, to act under the Directions of the projected revolutionary Government, as Rochambeau did in America, that they ſhould be paid the Expenſes of the Expedition, and their Troops receive Iriſh pay whilſt they acted here.—This Anſwer was ſent to Paris by a ſpecial Meſſenger, and the French Directory promiſed that the Succours thus demanded ſhould be ſent.

About October or November one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, a Meſſenger came from France to the Iriſh Directory with Intelligence that the promiſed Succours might be ſpeedily expected, and deſiring to know the State of Preparation of this Country.—The Force to be ſent by France was ſtated to be fifteen thouſand Men and a great Quantity of Arms and Ammunition, and I think if they had landed when they came to Bantry an Inſurrection would have taken Place in the North of Ireland.

After the French Expedition at Bantry had failed, there was no Communication with the Executive Directory of the Iriſh Union till April one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven,—Then an accredited reſident Miniſter or Agent was ſent by the Iriſh Directory to the Directory of France, by Way of Hamburgh.

Q. Have you heard that the Iriſh Miniſter had a Conference with General Hoche at Franckfort, and that the French Miniſter at Hamburgh, had given him a Letter of Introduction to General Hoche?

A. I may have heard ſo.

Q. How was the Iriſh Miniſter received at Paris?

A. He was well received by the Directory at Paris, and continued the reſident accredited Miniſter of the National Executive Directory of Ireland, till February laſt.—Since that Time I cannot ſpeak from my Knowledge, having been arreſted in March, under a Warrant of the Secretary of State, and continued in Confinement ſince.

Q. Did any confidential Meeting take Place ſoon after April one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, between a Perſon who went from hence, and a Perſon in London, with reſpect to the Diſpoſitions of the French Government?

A. I believe there did.

Q. When was the next Communication with France?

A. The next Communication of Conſequence, was in June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, when an accredited Perſon, went from hence to communicate with the French Directory by their Deſire.—He went by Hamburgh, where he ſaw the French Miniſter, who made ſome Difficulty about giving him a Paſſport, and demanded a Memoir containing his Inſtructions, tions, which was accordingly written by the accredited Perſon and given to the French Miniſter under the Impreſſion that the Paſſport would not be granted.

The Memoir was written in Engliſh, and contained the Objects of his Miſſion according to the Inſtructions which he had received from the Executive Directory of the Iriſh Union.

It begun by ſtating that the Appearance of the French in Bantry Bay had encouraged the leaſt confident of the Iriſh in the Hope of throwing off the Yoke of England, with the Aſſiſtance of France.—That the Event of that Expedition, had proved the Facility of invading Ireland.—That in the Event of a ſecond Expedition, if the Object was to take Cork, Oyſter Haven would be the beſt Place of Debarkation.—That the Perſon who had been before accredited, was inſtructed to point out Oyſter Haven as the beſt Place of Debarkation—and it ſtated the Precautions which had been taken for Defence, by throwing up Works at Bantry, Fermoy and Mallow.—It further ſtated that the Syſtem of United Iriſhmen, had made a rapid Progreſs in the County of Cork, and that Bandon was become a ſecond Belfaſt.—That the Syſtem had made great Progreſs in other Counties, and that the People were now well inclined to aſſiſt the French.—That one hundred and fifty thouſand United Iriſhmen were organized and enrolled in Ulſter, a great Part of them regimented, and one third ready to march out of the Province.—It detailed the Number of the King's Forces in Ulſter and their Stations.—Recommended Loughſwilly as a Place of Debarkation in the North, and ſtated that the People in the Peninſula of Donegal would join the French.—It ſtated alſo the Strength of the Garriſon of Londonderry, and that one Regiment which made a Part of it, was ſuppoſed to be diſaffected to the King of Great Britain.—It mentioned Killybegs alſo, as a good Place of Debarkation, and ſtated that the Counties of Tyrone, Fermanagh and Monaghan were amongſt the beſt affected to the Cauſe.—In Caſe of a Landing at Killybegs, it recommended a Diverſion at Sligo, and ſtated that a Force of ten thouſand United Iriſhmen might be collected to fall upon Enniſkillen, which commanded the Paſs of Lough-Erne.—That it was eaſy to enter the Bay of Galway but very difficult to get out of it.—That the Counties of Louth, Armagh, Weſtmeath, Kildare, King's County, and City of Dublin, were the beſt organized.—That the Catholic Prieſts had ceaſed to be alarmed at the Calumnies which had been propagated of French Irreligion, and were well affected to the Cauſe.—That ſome of them had rendered great Service in propagating with diſcreet Zeal the Syſtem of the Iriſh Union.—It declared that the People of Ireland had a lively ſenſe of Gratitude to France for the Part which ſhe took, and alſo to Spain for the Intereſt which ſhe felt in the affairs of Ireland.—It engaged on the Part of the Iriſh National Executive Directory to reimburſe the Expenſes of France in the Expedition which had failed, and of any other which might be undertaken.—The Number of Troops demanded was a Force not exceeding ten thouſand nor leſs than five thouſand Men.—It ſtated that a Brigade of Engliſh Artillery had been already ſent over, and that a large Body of Troops would probably be ſent from Great Britain if Ireland was attacked.—A conſiderable Quantity of Artillery and Ammunition with a large Staff and Body of Engineers, and as many Iriſh Officers as poſſible, whoſe Fidelity they were aſſured of, were demanded as neceſſary to accompany the Expedition.—A Recommendation was given to ſeparate the Iriſh Seamen who were Priſoners of War from the Britiſh, ſuppoſing the former would be ready to join in an Expedition to liberate their Country.—It further recommended a Proclamation to be publiſhed by the French General on his arrival here, that the French came as Allies to deliver the Country, not to conquer it.—It alſo recommended to the Directory of the French Republic to make the Independence of Ireland an indiſpenſable Condition of the Treaty of Peace then depending at Liſle, and ſtated that a Proceeding ſo authentic, could not be diſguiſed or miſrepreſented, and would very much encourage the People of Ireland to perſiſt in their Exertions to atchieve a Revolution.—It contained alſo an Aſſurance that the Irish Militia would join the French if they landed in conſiderable Force.

Immediately after this Memoir was given in to the French Miniſter, a Paſſport was granted to the Writer of it to go to Paris, where he had ſeveral Conferences with Perſons in Authority, ſome of them Members of the Directory.—The Object of theſe Conferences was to obtain the ſame Aſſurances of Succours from them that their Agents had before given to the Executive Directory of the Irish Union.

The Negociation for Peace was then going on at Liſle.—He was told by Perſons in Authority that they did not think the English Cabinet ſincere, but that if France could get the Terms ſhe had a Right to expect, the Directory would make Peace.

A ſecond Memoir was preſented at Paris by the ſame Perſon ſoon after his arrival there, its Object was to impreſs on the Directory the Neceſſity of expediting the Armament for Ireland, and of inſiſting on the Independence of Ireland as an indiſpenſable Condition of any Treaty of Peace, by every Argument which the Writer could uſe.

After the breaking off the Negotiation, and Lord Malmſbury's Return to England, Aſſurances were given to the Iriſh Executive Directory, that the French Government would ſend a new Expedition to Ireland, and that they never would abandon her, till ſhe was ſeparated from Great Britain, and theſe Aſſurances have been ſince renewed.

Q. Was any Information ſent to the Iriſh Executive Directory, of the Dutch Armament in the Texel?

A. There was in July or Auguſt, and that it was deſtined for Ireland.

Q. Were there any Accounts received from France ſince thoſe you have mentioned?

A. There were three ſeveral Accounts between October, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, and February one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight.—The two firſt contained general Renewals of their former Aſſurances, the laſt a Promiſe of the Arrival of the expected Armament here in April.

Q. Was any Diſpatch ſent from Ireland to France during the laſt Winter?

A. There was a Diſpatch made up ſome Time in the laſt Winter, by the Iriſh Executive, and given to one Member of it, who undertook to have it conveyed to France.—The general Import of this Diſpatch was to preſs for the promiſed Succours; but the Attempt to convey it to France failed.

Q. Were you a Member of the Executive Revolutionary Directory of United Iriſhmen?

A. I was.

Q. Do you ſpeak with certainty of the Miſſion to France in June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, and of what paſſed at Paris in conſequence of it, and of the two Memoirs?

A. I do.

Q. Have you read thoſe Memoirs?

A. I have.

Q. Do you know they were both delivered to the Executive Directory of the French Republic?

A. I do.

Q. How were the Expenſes of the accredited Iriſh Miniſter at Paris defrayed?

A. He took a conſiderable Sum of Money with him, either his own, or raiſed by a particular Subſcription, and it was intended to remit Supplies to him when that was expended.

Q. Have you ſeen a Reſolution of the Leinſter Provincial Committee of the nineteenth of February, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight, the Day on which Lord Moira made a Motion in the Houſe of Lords, "That they would not be diverted "from their Purpoſe, by any Thing which "could be done in Parliament, as nothing "ſhort of the total Emancipation of their "Country would ſatisfy them?"

A. I have.

Q. Was it officially communicated by the Leinſter Provincial Committee, to the Executive Directory of the Union?

A. It was.

Q. Do you know that the ſame Reſolution was agreed to on the ſame Day by the Ulſter Provincial Committee?

A. I do not know that it was, but I have heard and do believe it.

Q. Did you know that a Provincial Meeting was to be held on Monday the twelfth of March?

A. I did.

Q. What was the Reform originally required by United Iriſhmen?

A. A Democratic Houſe of Commons,—they thought one Ariſtocratic Body in the State ſufficient.

Q. Was any Eccleſiaſtical Eſtabliſhment intended by the Revolutionary Government when it ſhould be eſtabliſhed?

A. No. I conceive that a Revolution would of Courſe involve the Demolition of the Church Eſtabliſhment, and of Courſe a Relief of the Poor from Tithes.

Q. Was it intended to have a Popiſh or Roman Catholic Eſtabliſhment?

A. The Intention was to aboliſh the Church Eſtabliſhment, and not to have any eſtabliſhed Religion, but that all Perſons ſhould exerciſe their reſpective Religion, and pay their own Clergy: for my own Part I would as ſoon eſtabliſh the Mahometan as the Popiſh Religion, though I am myſelf a Roman Catholic.

Q. Do you know of any Loan negotiated with France or Spain?

A. Yes, the Agent of the National Executive Directory who was ſent over in April one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, was inſtructed to negotiate a Loan of half a Million, or three hundred thouſand Pounds, if it could be got from France or Spain.

Q. Have you any Doubt of the Sincerity of France?

A. I have not; I believe Inability alone has prevented France from invading Ireland.

Q. Do

Q. Do you think the Maſs of the People in the Provinces of Leinſter, Munſter and Connaught, care the Value of this Pen, or the Drop of Ink which it contains, for Parliamentary Reform or Catholic Emancipation?

A. I am ſure they do not; but they wiſh much to be relieved from the Payment of Tithes.

Q. How do you account for the Cruelties lately exerciſed by the Rebels on Proteſtants?

A. If the National Executive Directory could have prevented it, I believe they would; but the lower Order of Catholics conſider Proteſtant and Engliſhman, that is, Engliſh Settler, as Synonimous, and as their natural Enemy—the ſame Iriſh Word (Saſſena) ſignifies both.

A. The firſt which of my own Knowledge I can ſpeak of, was in Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven.—It ſtated that a Fleet lay in the Texel with fifteen thouſand Men on board, and that the Armament was deſtined for Ireland.—I was arreſted in this City under a Secretary's Warrant, and in Confinement for ſome Months before that Time.

A. I did.

Q. Have you heard that there were ſome Converſations on this Subject, between Perſons of this Country and General Valence, prior to October one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix?

A. I have heard there were, they did not, however, lead to any Thing deciſive.

Q. Was there any Connection with the Engliſh or Scotch Societies?

A. Any Connection with them was merely between Individuals.—The Iriſh Executive Directory wiſhed to keep clear of them.

Q. Do you know of any Loan being negotiated with France or Spain?

A. Inſtructions were given to the Agent of the Iriſh Executive Directory, to negotiate a Loan of half a Million in France or Spain, on the Security of the Revolutionary Government when it ſhould be eſtabliſhed.

Q. Was your Situation in the Executive Directory of the Iriſh Union filled up, when you left Ireland in January laſt?

A. It was.

A. In Autumn one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix.

Q. What was the Object of the Military Organization?

A. The Object was to carry their Meaſures by Force.

A. I was liberated in January or February laſt, on Condition that I ſhould not belong to any treaſonable Committee.

Q. Was there any Intention of attacking Newgate?

A. I believe there was an Intention of attacking it on the Night I was arreſted, the twenty-third of May one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight, in order to liberate Lord Edward Fitzgerald.—I believe ſome hundreds were aſſembled at the Barley Fields for that Purpoſe.—They conſidered that Lord Edward would be a very valuable Leader, and that he would have led the Rebels in Leinſter—All the Delegates looked to him as their Leader.—I have delivered ſeveral Meſſages from him to different Committees.—Lord Edward and I were ſtopped by a Patrole at Palmerſtown

Palmerſtown not long before and liberated by miſtake.

Q. Were Lord Edward Fitzgerald and the Sheares's acquainted with each other?

A. They were, and knew each others political Opinions.

For ſome Time before Lord Edward's Arreſt, he was almoſt conſtantly employed in Conſultations with Military Men, and in forming Plans of Military Operations.

I believe latterly Lord Edward was rather afraid of Invaſion, leſt the French ſhould conquer Ireland, and therefore urged on the Inſurrection.

Q. Have you had any Interviews with Mr. Grattan ſince you were liberated from Confinement?

A I was twice with Mr. Grattan at Tinnehinch, in April one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight.—I either ſhewed Mr. Grattan the laſt Conſtitution of the Society of United Irishmen, or explained it to him, and preſſed him to come forward.—I was accompanied at theſe Interviews by John Sweetman and Oliver Bond.—But I do not believe Mr. Grattan was ever an United Irishman.

Q. Do you mean John Sweetman who is now in Cuſtody on a Charge of Treaſon, and has with others of the State Priſoners ſubmitted to the Mercy of Government?

A. I do.

Q. Did you know of any Depots of Arms or Ammunition?

A. I believe there never were any.—The Arms were in the Hands of the People and they hid them, this was conſidered the ſafeſt Method.

Q. It has been ſtated to this Committee, that you have ſaid you ſwore Mr. Grattan?

A. I never did ſwear Mr. Grattan, nor have I ever ſaid that I ſwore him.

Q. When did the Manufacture of Pikes begin?

A. About the Time of the Military Organization.

Says, the Convention Bill was calculated to meet every Part of the Syſtem of United Irishmen. When he read it, he ſuppoſed the Framer of the Bill had their Conſtitution before him whilſt he was drawing it.

Says, Ulſter is not ſo well organized as it was a Year ago.

Says, many People joined the United Irishmen, ſuppoſing them to be the ſtrongeſt Party in the State, and if their Affairs had been well conducted, he thinks they would have become the Government of the Country.—Being deſired to explain himſelf, he ſaid, latterly their Affairs have been much miſconducted, becauſe the ableſt Men amongſt them have been either arreſted or obliged to fly.—If they had remained at large, is of Opinion they muſt have ſucceeded.

Says, that till the laſt two Months, he did not conſider Government to be well informed, but the late Arreſts convinced him they were.

By a Letter addreſſed to the Lord Chancellor, by Samuel Neilſon, immediately after his Examination, he wiſhes to correct his Evidence, by ſtating, that he had another Interview with Mr. Grattan at Tinnehinch, in Company with Mr. John Hughes, and that they both went there in Mr. Sweetman's Chaiſe.

Examination of Thomas-Addis Emmet, Eſq.

Saturday, 11th Auguſt, 1798.

Thomas-Addis Emmet, Eſquire, ſworn.

Q. Did you belong to the Society of United Irishmen?

A. I did.

Q. Were you a Member of the Executive Directory of that Society?

A. I was.—I was firſt appointed in January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, and continued a Member of it till May one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven—I then ceaſed to be a Member of the Directory till December laſt, when I was elected a ſecond Time, and I continued a Member till my arreſt in March laſt.

Q. When did the Military Organization take place?

A. I have heard that it commenced the beginning or middle of one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix.

Q. What was the Object of the Military Organization?

A. Its Object was to prepare for Reſiſtance and effect a Revolution.

Q. Was this Organization known to the Executive Directory of the Union?

A. It was known to and had the Approbation of the Executive, as Returns of Men and Arms were regularly made to them.—The laſt Military Organization proceeded immediately from the Executive Directory.

Q. When did the firſt Communication with France take Place?

A. The firſt I heard of took Place about the middle of one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix.—This was in Conſequence of an Offer of Aſſiſtance from France.—This Offer was in Conſequence of Repreſentations made by Perſons of this Country, reſident at Paris.—It was taken into ſerious Conſideration in Summer, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, and accepted by the Irish Executive Directory.

The firſt Communication with France, of which I can ſpeak from my own particular Knowledge, was in April one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven.—This was an Effort to eſtabliſh a permanent Intercourſe with the French Directory, to give them an Account of the Number of Troops here, and of their Situation, and of the Diſpoſitions of the People;—and to ſolicit the Aid of a limited Number of Troops, with Arms and Ammunition.—A ſpecial Meſſenger was ſent on this Occaſion, who has continued the reſident accredited Agent of the Irish Executive Directory at Paris, and has been ſupported from hence by private Subſcriptions.

Q. Were any Diſpatches received from this Agent?

A. In ſome Time after his Arrival at Paris, he ſent Aſſurances to the Executive, of Aſſiſtance from the French, and that they would continue it till Ireland was ſeparated from Great Britain.

Q. When did the next Communication with France take Place?

A. In June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, a ſecond Meſſenger was diſpatched.—He was ſent in Conſequence of an Application from the French Directory, to arrange every Thing for an Invaſion of this Kingdom, his Inſtructions were pretty much the ſame as thoſe of the former, but he was to require a greater Quantity of Arms—This additional Supply of Arms was demanded, principally in Conſequence of the Seizure of Arms in the North, which had been made by Order of Government.

Q. Was any Communication made to the Executive Directory of the United Iriſhmen, relative to the Armament in the Texel?

A. I am pretty certain a Communication was made in the Summer of one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, that the Armament in the Texel was deſtined for Ireland.

Q. Was any Diſpatch received from France in the laſt Winter?

A. A Diſpatch arrived in the laſt Winter from the French Directory, to inform the Executive Directory here, that an Armament would arrive on the Iriſh Coaſt in the Month of April one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight.—No Mention was made of the Amount of the Force to be ſent, nor of the Place of Debarkation, as they were aſſured by the Iriſh Executive, that wherever they landed they would be ſupported.

Q. How do you Account for the People being ſo loyal and well diſpoſed, while the French were in Bantry Bay?

A. About November one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, a Meſſenger arrived here from France, who ſtated that a Deſcent would immediately be made with fifteen thouſand Men.—In a very few Days after this Meſſenger had quitted Ireland on his Return, a Letter arrived, which was conſidered by the Iriſh Executive as authentic, ſtating, that the Expedition was deferred till Spring, when England would be invaded, and probably Ireland:—This Contradiction threw the Executive off their Guard, in Conſequence of which, no Meaſures were taken to prepare the People for the Reception of the French Army.—The People were left to themſelves.

Q. Was any Diſpatch ſent from this Kingdom to France in the laſt Winter?

A About the Beginning of January or the latter End of December, a Diſpatch was made up by the Executive, and intended to be tranſmitted to the Directory, but the Attempt failed.—I perceive the Tendency of that Queſtion—but I deſire to be underſtood, that that Diſpatch was not meant to be ſent through England.

Q. When was the Revolutionary Staff appointed?

A. It was appointed for Leinſter in January or February one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight.—It was thought neceſſary to have an Adjutant General in each County, to receive and communicate Military Orders from the Executive Directory.

Q. What was the Mode of Appointment?

A. The Colonels of each County returned the Names of three Perſons to the Executive, who appointed one of them to act as Adjutant General of the County.

Q. What was the Purpoſe of the Military Organization, and Preparations?

A. To aſſiſt the French when they ſhould land, and effect a Revolution.

Q. When was the Military Committee appointed?

A. I believe in February one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight.

Q. What was the Duty of the Military Committee?

A. Their

A. Their Duty was to prepare a Plan of Co-operation with the French when they ſhould land, or of Inſurrection in Caſe they ſhould be forced to it before the Arrival of the French, which they were determined to avoid if poſſible.—I believe the Inſurrection, which has taken Place, was brought forward by the Military Severities which were exerciſed in the County of Kildare, and if the Arreſts had not taken Place it would have been kept back by the Perſons who were arreſted, till the French ſhould arrive, as it was their Determination to wait for Aſſiſtance from France, before any open Attack ſhould be made by the People.—If the French had arrived at the appointed Time, I am certain there would have been a very general and formidable Inſurrection in every Part of the Country.

Q. Was John Sheares a Member of the Executive before your Arreſt?

A. He was not.

Q. Have you heard that he was elected a Member of the Executive Directory after your Arreſt?

A. I have not; but it is poſſible he may.

Q. Have you ſeen the Revolutionary Proclamation which was drawn by John Sheares, and proved at his Trial?

A. I have and I very much diſapprove of it.—The old Executive never meant to ſpill Blood, but rather to retain Men of a certain Rank as Hoſtages, and if they found them hoſtile to the Revolutionary Government, to ſend them out of the Country.—And it was alſo determined, that if the Wives of ſuch Perſons did not act with Hoſtility to the new Government, they ſhould be allowed a Maintenance out of the Huſband's Property, and that each Child ſhould have a Portion: The Reſidue to belong to the Nation.

Q. Did the Arreſts of the twelfth of March tend to diſorganize the Syſtem?

A. They did,—the principal Members of the Union were either confined or fled in Conſequence of the Arreſts.

Q. Did you think the Maſs of the People care for Catholic Emancipation or Parliamentary Reform?

A. I believe the Maſs of the People do not care a Feather for Catholic Emancipation, neither did they care for Parliamentary Reform, till it was explained to them as leading to other Objects which they looked to, principally the Abolition of Tithes.—I am very ſure if Tithes were aboliſhed, the People, on taking new Leaſes, would be obliged to pay more in Proportion for Lands than the Value they now pay for Tithes.—My wiſh was to deſtroy the preſent eſtabliſhed Church, and to have no Church Eſtabliſhment.—The People were alſo taught to conſider that when they became Members of a Democracy, their Condition would be bettered.

Q. Was any Eccleſiaſtical Eſtabliſhment intended by the Revolutionary Government?

A. None, certainly.

Q. How do you ſuppoſe it poſſible for Ireland to remain a free Country, unconnected with Great Britain?

A. Ireland is now in a very different Situation from that in which ſhe ſtood at the Revolution; I think ſhe has grown out of her Connection with Great Britain.

Q. Explain yourſelf?

A. At the Revolution, her Population did not much exceed a Million and a Half, now it amounts to five Millions.—Her Wealth has increaſed in a greater Proportion—I am therefore of Opinion, that ſhe is capable now of ſtanding alone.

Q Do you not think it a wiſer and a fairer Policy to abide by that Connection, by which her Wealth and Population have grown ſo rapidly?

A. I do not; I think this might be the happieſt Country in the World, if ſhe was eſtabliſhed as an Independent Republic.

Q. How could ſhe exiſt as an Independent State unconnected with Britain, without a Ship of War, or the Means of having one?—Twelve Britiſh Frigates ſtationed on her Coaſts, could annihilate the Trade of Ireland.—How could England diſtreſs her in the ſingle Article of Coals?

A. I think Ireland would be very much crippled for ſome Years, but if ſhe were ſeparated from Great Britain, the coloſſal Strength of the Britiſh Navy would very quickly be reduced.—And as to the Supply of Coals, I think by extending our Inland Navigation, we could be ſupplied with Fuel at home.

Examination of Oliver Bond.

Tueſday, 14th Auguſt, 1798.

Oliver Bond, ſworn.

Q. Were you an United Iriſhman?

A. I was, and continued ſo till the Time of my Arreſt.

Q. Were

Q. Were you a Member of the Executive Directory of the Iriſh Union?

A. I was not regularly a Member of the Executive, I was originally aſſociated with the Northern Executive in one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, and acted under that Aſſociation in conducting the Affairs of the Union—When the Leinſter Organization was completed, early in one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, I was regularly elected a Member of the Executive, but declined to act officially, I however continued in the Confidence of the Union, and was conſulted by them on all Affairs of Moment.

Q. Did you know any Thing of the Correſpondence with France?

A. I did before the Leinſter Organization was completed in one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven; but I knew nothing of it officially after I declined being a Member of the Executive Directory.

Q. When was the firſt Communication with France?

A. The firſt I knew of was about the Middle of one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix.—A Perſon was then ſent to France to ſound the Diſpoſitions of the Directory, and to know what Aſſiſtance they would give.

Q. When did the Military Organization commence?

A. It commenced in the North late in one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, and in Dublin in Spring one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven.

Q. How was the Syſtem propagated?

A. By Emiſſaries ſent into the different Counties, with Letters, to ſuch reſident Perſons as were likely to forward the Syſtem, and had Influence in the Diſtrict.

Q. When was the Society of United-Iriſhmen inſtituted?

A. It was originally inſtituted in one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one, for the Purpoſe of Reform.—Catholic Emancipation was a mere Pretence.

Q. Do you think the Maſs of the People care for Parliamentary Reform?

A. I believe the Maſs of the People did not, nor do not care for Parliamentary Reform—but thoſe who thought for them did.

Q. Were the Reports of the Secret Committees of laſt Seſſion accurate.?

A. I think they were.

Q. How did you get the Letters of Smith and Newel?

A. They were left with me by the Perſons who got them up from them by Negotiation.

Q. Was not the Object of the Union, to arm and regiment the People, for the Purpoſe of ſubverting the Government?

A. Latterly it was.

Q. Were there any Depots of Arms?

A. There were not.

Q. For what Purpoſe was the Newſpaper called the Preſs ſet up?

A. I believe to forward the Cauſe of the Union.

Q. Was it an Object of the Union, to aboliſh all Eccleſiaſtical Eſtabliſhments?

A. It was a principal Object.

Q. Was there any Perſon ſent from Dublin to organize the South?

A. There was laſt Winter, and I underſtood he had made conſiderable Progreſs in Limerick and other Places.

Q. Did you underſtand that Connaught in general was well organized?

A. I underſtood it was.

Q. Do you think the Places, in the Executive Directory and the other Departments of the Iriſh Union, of thoſe who were arreſted on the twelfth of March were filled up after that Arreſt.

A. I believe they were.

No. VIII.

Copy of a Paper found in the writing Box of Lord Edward Fitzgerald, on the twelfth of March by the Officer who went on that Day to arreſt him under a Charge of Treaſon.

N. B. This does not appear amongſt the Papers ſeized on Lord Edward Fitzgerald, which are contained in the Appendix to the Report of the Houſe of Commons.

If ever any unfortunate Cauſe ſhould put our City, with the other Parts of the Country into the Poſſeſſion of a cruel and tyrannical Enemy, whoſe Government by repeated Oppreſſions, might drive us, into the laſt Stage of deſperate Reſiſtance, our Conduct then ſhould be regulated in a Manner beſt calculated for obtaining Victory.

The following Thoughts are humbly offered for the Inſpection of every real Iriſhman.

It is ſuppoſed that the Enemy have a well appointed and diſciplined ſtanding Army.—

In

In ſuch a Caſe every Man ought to conſider how that Army could be attacked or repelled, and what Advantage their Diſcipline and Numbers might give them in a populous City, acting in concert with the adjoining Counties.

It is well known that an Officer of any Skill in his Profeſſion, would be very cautious of bringing the beſt diſciplined Troops into a large City in a State of Inſurrection, for the following Reaſons:

His Troops, by the Breadth of the Streets, are obliged to have a very narrow Front, and however Numerous only three Men deep can be brought into Action, which in the wideſt of our Streets, cannot be more than ſixty Men, as a Space muſt be left on each Side or Flank, for the Men who diſcharge to retreat to the Rear, that their Places may be occupied by the next in Succeſſion, who are loaded, ſo though there are a thouſand men in a Street, not more than ſixty can act at one Time; and ſhould they be attacked by an irregular Body armed with Pikes or ſuch bold Weapons, if the ſixty Men in Front were defeated, the whole Body, however Numerous, are unable to aſſiſt, and immediately become a ſmall Mob in Uniform, from the Inferiority of Number, in Compariſon to the People, and eaſily diſpoſed of.

Another Inconvenience might deſtroy the Order of this Army. Perhaps at the ſame Moment, they may be dreadfully galled from the Houſe-tops, by Showers of Bricks, Coping-ſtones, &c. which may be at hand, without imitating the Women of Paris, who carried the Stones of the unpaved Streets to the Windows and Tops of the Houſes in their Aprons.

Another Diſadvantage on the Part of the Soldiers, would be, as they are regulated by the word of Command, or Stroke of the Drum, they muſt be left to their individual Diſcretion, as ſuch Communications muſt be drowned in the Noiſe and Clamour of a popular Tumult.

In the next Place, that Part of the Populace, who could not get into the Engagement, would be employed in unpaving the Streets, ſo as to impede the Movements of Horſe or Artillery; and in the Avenues where the Army were likely to paſs, Numbers would be engaged forming Barriers of Hogſheads, Carts, Cars, Counters, Doors, &c. the forcing of which Barriers, by the Army would be diſputed, while like ones were forming at every twenty or thirty Yards or any convenient Diſtances Situation might require; ſhould ſuch Precautions be well obſerved, the Progreſs of an Army, through one Street or over one Bridge would be very tedious, and attended with great Loſs, if it would not be deſtroyed, at the ſame Time the neighbouring Counties might riſe in a Maſs and diſpoſe of the Troops ſcattered in their Vicinity, and prevent a Junction or a Paſſage of any Army intended for the City; they would tear up the Roads and barricade every convenient Diſtance with Trees, Timber, Implements of Huſbandry, &c. at the ſame Time lining the Hedges, Walls, Ditches and Houſes, with Men armed with Muſkets, who would keep up a well directed Fire.

However well exerciſed ſtanding Armies are ſuppoſed to be, by frequent Reviews, and Sham Battles, they are never prepared for broken Roads, or encloſed Fields, in a Country like ours covered with innumerable and continued Interſections of Ditches and Hedges, every one of which are an Advantage to an irregular Body, and may with Advantage be diſputed, againſt an Army as ſo many Fortifications and Entrenchments.

The People in the City would have an Advantage by being armed with Pikes or ſuch Weapons, the firſt Attack if poſſible ſhould be made by Men whoſe Pikes were nine or ten Feet long, by that Means they could act in Ranks deeper than the Soldiery, whoſe Arms are much ſhorter, then the deep Files of the Pike Men, by being weightier, muſt eaſily break the thin Order of the Army.

The Charge of the Pike Men ſhould be made in a ſmart Trot, on the Flank or Extremity of every Rank, there ſhould be intrepid Men placed to keep the Fronts even, that at cloſing every Point ſhould tell together, they ſhould have at the ſame Time, two or three like Bodies at convenient Diſtances in the Rear, who would be brought up if wanting to ſupport the Front, which would give Confidence to their Brothers in Action, as it would tend to diſcourage the Enemy, at the ſame Time there ſhould be in the Rear of each Diviſion, ſome Men of Spirit to keep the Ranks as cloſe as poſſible.

The apparent Strength of the Army ſhould not intimidate, as cloſing on it makes its Powder and Ball uſeleſs, all its Superiority is in fighting at a Diſtance, all its Skill ceaſes, and all its Action muſt be ſuſpended, when it once is within Reach of the Pike.

The Reaſon of printing and writing this, is to remind the People of diſcuſſing Military Subjects.

Ordered, that the ſaid Report be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof. to be printed.

The Lord Chancellor made the following Report from the Committee of Secrecy:

My Lords,

Second Report from Secret Committee.

THE Lords Committees appointed to examine the Matters of the ſealed up Papers received from the Commons on the twenty-third of July laſt, and to report the ſame as they ſhall appear to them to this Houſe; having ſeen an Advertiſement in the Public Prints, ſigned Arthur O'Connor, Thomas-Addis Emmet and William-James M'Neven, in the following Words,—(" Having read in the " different Newſpapers Publications pretending " to be Abſtracts of the Report of the Secret " Committee of the Houſe of Commons, and of " our Depoſitions before the Committees of the " Lords and Commons; we feel ourſelves called " upon to aſſure the Public, that they are groſs " and to us aſtoniſhing Miſrepreſentations, not " only unſupported by, but in many Inſtances " directly contradictory to the Facts we really " *ſtated on thoſe Occaſions. " Arthur O'Connor,
" Thomas-Addis Emmet,
" William-James M'Neven.")

have thought it their Duty to examine the ſaid Arthur O'Connor, Thomas-Addis Emmet and William-James M'Neven with Reſpect to ſuch Advertiſement, to the End that it might be aſcertained whether they or any of them intended to contradict or retract any Thing which they had heretofore depoſed before your Committee—And your Committee ſubjoin the ſeveral Examinations on Oath of the ſaid Arthur O'Connor, Thomas-Addis Emmet and William-James M'Neven, this Day made and ſigned by them reſpectively upon that Subject, as follow, viz.:

Arthur O'Connor, eſquire, ſworn,

ADMITS that the Advertiſement which appeared in the Hibernian Journal and Saunders's News-Letter of Monday the twenty-ſeventh of Auguſt laſt, under the Signatures of Arthur O'Connor, Thomas-Addis Emmet and William-James M'Neven, was publiſhed by their Authority.—Says he does not mean to contradict or retract any Thing ſtated by him before this Committee or the Secret Committee of the Houſe of Commons.—Says he has now read the Evidence given by him before the Secret Committee of the Houſe of Lords as printed in the Appendix to their Report, which he admits to be accurate, but wiſhes to explain himſelf upon two Points contained in ſaid Evidence—Firſt, That General Valence was not in the moſt diſtant Manner connected or concerned in any Negotiations carried on between the Directory of the Iriſh Union and the French Directory—Secondly, That it did not appear to him, that there was any Connection between the Iriſh Executive Directory and any Society in Great Britain; on the Contrary, that it was propoſed to the Perſon who adjuſted the Terms of the Alliance between the Irish Union and the French Directory in one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, that an Invaſion of England ſhould take Place at the ſame Time that Ireland was to be invaded, to diſſuade them from which, the Irish Agent uſed ſuch Arguments as he believes were concluſive.

A. O'Connor.

Thomas-Addis Emmet, Eſquire, Sworn,

ADMITS that the Advertiſement which appeared in the Hibernian Journal and Saunders's News Letter of Monday the twenty-ſeventh of Auguſt laſt, under the Signatures of Arthur O'Connor, Thomas-Addis Emmet and William-James M'Neven, was publiſhed by their Authority.—Says he did not by ſaid Advertiſement, nor does he in any Manner, mean to contradict or retract any Thing ſtated by him before this Committee or the Secret Committee of the Houſe of Commons, but is willing to authenticate the Whole of the Evidence which he gave on thoſe Occaſions in any Manner that may be thought fit—Declares, that the ſaid Advertiſement alluded ſolely to Miſrepreſentations in the News Papers.—Says, that he has read the Evidence ſtated in the Appendix to the Report of the Secret Committee of the Houſe of Lords, as having been given by him before that Committee, and admits that the Evidence ſo ſtated expreſſes nothing but the Truth, but omits many Reaſons which he gave in Juſtification of his own Conduct and of that of the Members of the Union at large.—Says, he does not mean to contradict any Thing which has been ſo reported with Reſpect to the Military Organization of the United Irishmen in this Kingdom, or the Nature or Object of it, which was after they had deſpaired of obtaining a Reform in Parliament by peaceable Means, to effect a Revolution by ſubverting the Monarchy, ſeparating this Country from Great Britain, and erecting ſuch Government in Ireland as might be choſen by the People.—Says he does not mean to contradict the Details given in the ſaid Reports, of the Correſpondence and Connexion of the Iriſh Union with the Government of France, as far as he has any Knowledge thereof, and which Details he ſo far admits to be accurate.

Thomas-Addis Emmet.

Doctor William-James M'Neven, ſworn,

ADMITS that the Advertiſement which appeared in the Hibernian Journal and Saunders's News Letter of Monday the twenty-ſeventh of Auguſt laſt, under the Signatures of Arthur O'Connor, Thomas-Addis Emmet, and William-James M'Neven, was publiſhed by their Authority.—Says, he does not mean to contradict or retract any Thing ſtated by him before this Committee or the Secret Committee of the Houſe of Commons.—The Advertiſement alluded ſolely to the Miſrepreſentations in the News Papers which are not ſupported by the Report of either Houſe of Parliament.—Says, he does not mean to contradict any Thing which has been ſo reported with Reſpect to the Military Organization of the United Irishmen in this Kingdom, or the Nature or Object of it, which was to effect a Revolution by ſubverting the Monarchy, ſeparating this Country from Great Britain and erecting a Republican Government in Ireland.—Says, he does not mean to contradict the Details given in the ſaid Reports of the Correſpondence and Connection of the Irish Revolutionary Union with the Government of France, which Details he admits to be accurate.

William-James McNeven.

Ordered, that the ſaid Report be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof. Ordered to be printed.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Walker and Mr. Henn, two of the Maſters in Chancery, with a Copy of the ſaid Report. Copy of Report ſent to Commons,

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I HAVE the Satisfaction of acquainting you that I have received the King's Commands to releaſe you from your long and fatiguing Attendance in Parliament; and I am ordered to thank you in his Majeſty's Name for the unſhaken Firmneſs and Magnanimity with which you have met the moſt trying Difficulties, and with which the Meaſures have been planned which you have adopted for the Preſervation of your Country. Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I offer you my moſt ſincere Congratulations on the glorious Victory which has been obtained by his Majeſty's Squadron under the Command of Sir Horatio Nelſon over the French Fleet in the Mediterranean, which not only reflects the higheſt Honor on the Officers and Seamen by whom it has been atchieved, but affords a Proſpect of the moſt beneficial Conſequences to the future Intereſts of the Britiſh Empire.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I am commanded to convey to you his Majeſty's particular Thanks for the Supplies which you have ſo liberally granted, and by which you have manifeſted both the Extent of the Reſources which this Kingdom poſſeſſes, and the Spirit with which they are employed by the Commons of Ireland for the Preſervation of the State.

His Majeſty laments the Neceſſity which calls for the Impoſition of freſh Burdens on his Subjects; but he truſts that they will ſee how much their preſent Safety and their future Happineſs depend on their Exertions in the arduous Conteſt in which they are engaged; and he aſſures his faithful Commons that the Aids which they have afforded, ſhall be carefully applied to the great Object of maintaining the Honor and promoting the Intereſts of their Country.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Circumſtances which have taken Place ſince its Commencement, muſt render this Seſſion ever memorable.

The fouleſt and darkeſt Conſpiracy was formed and long carried on by the implacable Enemy of theſe Realms, for the total Extinction of the Conſtitution, and for the Separation of his Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland from Great Britain. By the unremitting Vigilance of my Predeceſſor in this Government, the Treaſon has been detected—the Apprehenſion of the principal Conſpirators, and the ſalutary Meaſures wiſely adopted, checked its Progreſs—and through your ſagacious Diligence, it has now been developed in all its Parts, and traced to all its Sources.

A dangerous and wicked Rebellion, the Conſequence of that Conſpiracy, has been in a great Meaſure ſubdued; and the Attempt of our inveterate Enemy to rekindle the Flame of Civil Diſcord, by ſending a Force into this Country, has terminated in Defeat.

Religion, that greateſt Comfort and Support of Mankind, has been moſt wickedly perverted to the Purpoſe of inflaming the worſt of Paſſions; and the vileſt Arts have been uſed to perſuade the Ignorant and Unwary, that in a Reign which has been marked by a Series of Indulgences to all Sects of Chriſtians, it is the Intention of his Majeſty's Government to oppreſs, and even to extirpate that Deſcription of his Subjects who have received repeated and recent Marks of his Favor and Protection.

The Catholicks of Ireland cannot but have obſerved, what has been the Conduct of thoſe who affect to be their Friends, towards the Rites and the Characters which they venerate, and under whoſe Auſpices the perſecuted Paſtors of their Church have found an Aſylum.

Amongſt a Number of Offenders, ſome moſt active Characters have neceſſarily been ſelected as Objects of Public Juſtice; but in every Period of this dangerous Conſpiracy, the Lenity of Government and of Parliament has been conſpicuous; and a general Act of Pardon has recently iſſued from the Royal Mercy, for the Purpoſe of affording Security to the Repentant and encouraging the Deluded to return to their Duty.

The Vigor and the Power of his Majeſty's Arms, the Loyalty, Spirit and Activity of his Regular, Militia and Yeomanry Forces, together with the prompt and cordial Aſſiſtance of the Militia and Fencibles of Great Britain, have abundantly proved how vain every Attempt muſt be, either by Treachery within, or by Force from abroad, to undermine or to overturn our Civil and Religious Eſtabliſhments.

From the Dangers which have ſurrounded you, and which you have overcome, you muſt be ſenſible that your Security can only be preſerved by perſevering Vigilance and increaſing Energy. You will not ſuffer your Efforts to relax, and you may be aſſured of my zealous Endeavours to ſecond your Exertions. Our Hopes and our Objects are the ſame—that the Deluded may ſee their Error, and the Diſaffected be reclaimed. But if an Endeavour ſhall be made to abuſe the Royal Mercy, and to form freſh Conſpiracies in the Proſpect of Impunity, offended Juſtice will then be compelled to extend to the obdurate Criminal the full Meaſure of his Puniſhment.

Amidſt your Meaſures either of Power, of Juſtice, or of Clemency, you have not forgotten to afford Conſolation and Encouragement to the Loyal. The Means which were adopted for their temporary Relief, and the Plan which has been deviſed for the further Remuneration of their Loſſes, are highly honorable to your Feelings, and muſt in every loyal Breaſt excite Emotions of Love and Gratitude to his Country.

Since my Arrival in this Kingdom I have received the moſt flattering Aſſurances of your Regard and Approbation, which command my warmeſt Acknowledgments; and whilſt I feel myſelf thus encouraged and ſupported, and reflect on the Loyalty which is ſo generally diſplayed, and on the Force which is entruſted to my Direction, I cannot allow myſelf to doubt of the Succeſs of our United Endeavours for the Welfare of this Country.

After which the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid;

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 20th Day of November next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the 20th Day of November next.

they enter.

And the Commons being come, they with their Speaker were conducted to the Bar with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I HAVE received his Majeſty's Commands to meet you in Parliament.

I congratulate you on the happy Effects which have followed the unparalleled Atchievement of the Detachment of his Majeſty's Fleet under the Command of Rear Admiral Lord Nelſon, on the total Defeat of the French Squadron off the Coaſts of this Kingdom by that under the Command of Sir John-Borlaſe Warren, and on the brilliant and important Conqueſt of Minorca. Theſe Events while they afford to us in common with every other Deſcription of his Majeſty's Subjects Matter of juſt Pride and Satisfaction, muſt at the ſame Time give Confidence to other Powers and ſhew to all Europe the beneficial Effects of a Syſtem of Vigor and Exertion directed with manly Perſeverance againſt the deſtructive Projects of the common Enemy.

I feel much Concern in being obliged to acquaint you, that a Spirit of Diſaffection ſtill prevails in ſeveral Parts of this Kingdom, and that the ſecret Agents of the Enemy are active in raiſing an Expectation of freſh Aſſiſtance from France.

In

In this Situation, and under the evident Neceſſity of continuing the War with Vigor, his Majeſty firmly relies upon that Spirit and Magnanimity which have hitherto marked all your Exertions in Support of the Honor of his Crown, of the Intereſts of this Kingdom, and of the general Cauſe of the Empire.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have ordered the Public Accounts and Eſtimates to be laid before you, and as I am confident your Wiſdom will raiſe the Supplies which may be neceſſary, in the Manner leaſt burdenſome to the Subject, ſo you may depend upon my Attention to their prudent and œconomical Application.

It is with great Satisfaction I obſerve that notwithſtanding our internal Calamities, this Kingdom, blended as its Intereſts are in the general Proſperity of the Empire, has participated in the Effects of the increaſing Wealth and Commerce of Great Britain, and that our Revenues and Trade have increaſed.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

It is my Duty to recommend to your Attention, the various Objects of internal Regulation which have ſo long enjoyed the Benefit of your Protection and Support. Your Agriculture, your Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture, the Proteſtant Charter Schools and other Charitable Inſtitutions will require, and will I am ſure continue to receive, that Aid and Encouragement which they have uniformly experienced from the liberality of Parliament. I am confident you will feel a particular Anxiety to give further Attention to the juſt and honorable Claims of thoſe who have ſuffered from their Loyalty during the Rebellion.

His Majeſty depends upon your perſevering Energy, to repreſs by every wiſe Effort, the Spirit of Diſaffection, which ſtill requires the Exerciſe of extraordinary Powers to check its malignant Effects. In recurring where the Occaſion has required it, to Acts of indiſpenſable Severity, I have not been inattentive to the Suggeſtions of Mercy, and have endeavoured to mitigate the Effects of Penal Juſtice, and the neceſſary Exertions of the Powers of the State, with as much Forbearance and Lenity as could be conſiſtent with the Public Safety.

In the general Cauſe which engages the Empire, our Proſpect is highly encouraging, but in Proportion as a ſucceſsful Termination of the War becomes probable, our Efforts ſhould be redoubled in order to ſecure it.

The Zeal of his Majeſty's Regular and Militia Forces, the Gallantry of the Yeomanry, the honorable Co-operation of the Britiſh Fencibles and Militia, and the Activity, Skill and Valor of his Majeſty's Fleets, will I doubt not, defeat every future Effort of the Enemy: but the more I have reflected on the Situation and Circumſtances of this Kingdom, conſidering on the one Hand the Strength and Stability of Great Britain, and on the other, thoſe Diviſions which have ſhaken Ireland to its Foundations, the more anxious I am for ſome permanent Adjuſtment, which may extend the Advantages enjoyed by our Siſter Kingdom to every Part of this Iſland.

The unremitting Induſtry, with which our Enemies perſevere in their avowed Deſign of endeavouring to effect a Separation of this Kingdom from Great Britain, muſt have engaged your particular Attention, and his Majeſty commands me to expreſs his anxious Hope, that this Conſideration, joined to the Sentiment of mutual Affection and common Intereſt, may diſpoſe the Parliaments in both Kingdoms, to provide the moſt effectual Means of maintaining and improving a Connexion, eſſential to their common Security, and of conſolidating, as far as poſſible, into one firm and laſting Fabrick, the Strength, the Power and the Reſources of the Britiſh Empire.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered, and the Commons returned to their Houſe. Lord Lieutenant withdraws.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table;

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof. Speech to be printed.

The Houſe was moved to reſolve, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to beg Leave to lay before his Majeſty our moſt cordial Effuſions of Duty, Loyalty and Attachment to his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, Family and Government. Motion for Addreſs to the King.

To aſſure his Majeſty that we feel the livelieſt Satisfaction in the happy Effects which have followed the unparalleled Atchievement of his Majeſty's Fleet detached under the Command of Rear Admiral Lord Nelſon, on the total Defeat of the French Squadron off the Coaſts of this Kingdom by that under the Command of Sir John-Borlaſe Warren, and on the brilliant and important Conqueſt of Minorca.

That we cordially participate in that Pride and Exultation which is afforded to every Deſcription of his Majeſty's Subjects by theſe ſignal Events, which muſt at the ſame Time raiſe the Confidence of other Powers, and inſpire them with a juſt Hope of the moſt beneficial Effects, if a Syſtem of Vigor and Exertion be directed with manly Perſeverance againſt the deſtructive Projects of the common Enemy.

To expreſs to his Majeſty our heartfelt Concern that in ſeveral Parts of this Kingdom a Spirit of Diſaffection is ſtill manifeſted, and that the ſecret Agents of the Enemy are ſtill active in raiſing an Expectation of freſh Aſſiſtance from France.

That under this Situation of internal Affairs, and the evident Neceſſity of carrying on the War with Vigor, our Exertions will not ſlacken, and that his Majeſty may ſecurely depend upon our decided and cordial Reſolution to ſupport the Honor of his Crown, the Intereſts of this Kingdom, and the general Cauſe of the Empire.

To humbly thank his Majeſty for recommending to our Attention, our Agriculture, our Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture, and to aſſure his Majeſty that theſe important Objects of our Care cannot fail to engage our Protection and Support, and that we ſhall continue to aid and encourage the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and thoſe Charitable Inſtitutions which have hitherto received the Advantage of our Liberality; and that the Claims of thoſe who have ſuffered from their Loyalty during the Rebellion, are entitled to our moſt favorable and anxious Regard.

That his Majeſty may depend upon our Reſolution to repreſs the Spirit of Diſaffection, which ſtill requires the Exerciſe of extraordinary Powers, and that we ſhall endeavour with perſevering Energy to check its malignant Effects, by every prudent Meaſure we can deviſe.

That thoſe Acts of indiſpenſable Severity, to which the Executive Government has neceſſarily reſorted, command our Approbation, whilſt at the ſame Time we applaud that Forbearance and Lenity, which attentive to the Suggeſtions of Mercy, have mitigated the Effects of Penal Juſtice, and exerciſed the Powers of the State with as much Clemency as could be conſiſtent with the public Safety.

That upon viewing our Proſpects in the general Cauſe which engages the Empire, we feel the moſt animating Encouragement, and to aſſure his Majeſty that as the ſucceſsful Termination of the War becomes probable, our Efforts to ſecure that deſirable End will be proportionably increaſed. That we feel a juſt Confidence, that every future Effort of the Enemy will be entirely defeated. That relying on the experienced Zeal of his Majeſty's Regular and Militia Forces, on the Gallantry of the Yeomanry, on the voluntary and honorable Co-operation of the Britiſh Fencibles and Militia, and on the Activity, Skill and Valor of his Majeſty's Fleets, we feel a well-founded Security againſt every hoſtile Attack.—But that when we reflect on the Situation and Circumſtances of this Kingdom, on the Strength and Stability of Great Britain, and on thoſe Diviſions which have ſhaken Ireland to its Foundations, we cannot but feel anxious that ſome wiſe and prudent Adjuſtment may extend the Advantages enjoyed by our Siſter Kingdom to every Part of this Iſland.

That we have long viewed with the moſt attentive Anxiety, the unremitting Induſtry with which our Enemies perſevere in their avowed Deſign of endeavouring to effect a Separation of this Kingdom from Great Britain.

That we thank his Majeſty for pointing our Attention to this alarming Circumſtance, and as his Majeſty has expreſſed his anxious Hope, that this moſt ſerious Subject, joined to the Sentiment of mutual Affection and common Intereſt, may diſpoſe the Parliaments in both Kingdoms to provide the moſt effectual Means of maintaining and improving a Connection eſſential to their common Security, and of conſolidating, as far as poſſible, into one firm and laſting Fabrick, the Strength, the Power and the Reſources of the Britiſh Empire, we ſhall be ready to give the fulleſt Attention to Conſiderations of ſuch momentous Importance.

To return his Majeſty our warm Acknowledgments for continuing in the Government of this Kingdom the Marquis Cornwallis, whoſe eminent and confirmed Character for Integrity and Wiſdom gives Authority to thoſe Meaſures, which his Magnanimity dictates, and the Times require.

ſecret Agents of the Enemy are active in raiſing an Expectation of freſh Aſſiſtance from France. Under this Situation of internal Affairs, and the evident Neceſſity of carrying on the War with Vigor, our Exertions will not ſlacken, and your Majeſty may ſecurely depend upon our decided and cordial Reſolution to ſupport the Honor of your Crown, the Intereſts of this Kingdom and the general Cauſe of the Empire.

We humbly thank your Majeſty for recommending to our Attention our Agriculture, our Manufactures and particularly the Linen Manufacture: Theſe important Objects of our Care cannot fail to engage our Protection and Support, and we ſhall continue to aid and encourage the Proteſtant Charter Schools and thoſe Charitable Inſtitutions which have hitherto received the Advantage of our Liberality. We have long viewed with the moſt attentive Anxiety, the unremitting Induſtry with which our Enemies perſevere in their avowed Deſign of endeavouring to effect a Separation of this Kingdom from Great-Britain. We thank your Majeſty for pointing our Attention to this alarming Circumſtance, and as your Majeſty has expreſſed your anxious Hope, that this moſt ſerious Subject, joined to the Sentiment of mutual Affection and common Intereſt, may diſpoſe the Parliament in both Kingdoms to provide the moſt effectual Means of maintaining and improving a Connexion eſſential to their common Security, and of conſolidating as far as poſſible into one firm and laſting Fabrick, the Strength, the Power and the Reſources of the Britiſh Empire, we ſhall be ready to give the fulleſt Attention to Conſiderations of ſuch momentous Importance.

We return our warm Acknowledgments to your Majeſty for continuing in the Government of this Kingdom the Marquis Cornwallis, whoſe eminent and confirmed Character for Integrity and Wiſdom gives Authority to thoſe Meaſures which his Magnanimity dictates, and the Times require.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order that the ſame may be laid before his Majeſty. to be preſented.

The Earl of Ormonde reported from the Lords Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday, that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and alſo read Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz:

To his Excellency

CHARLES MARQUIS CORNWALLIS,

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE his Majeſty's dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return your Excellency our humble Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne, and beg Leave to expreſs our grateful Senſe of his Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs, in continuing in the Government of this Kingdom a Nobleman, whoſe high Character, diſtinguiſhed alike by public Virtue and by private Worth, Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

and whoſe wiſe, firm and ſalutary Adminiſtration entitle him to the Eſteem and Confidence of the People over whom he is appointed to preſide.

We receive with heartſelt Satisfaction your Excellency's Congratulations on the unexampled Atchievement of the Detachment of his Majeſty's Fleet under the Command of Rear Admiral Lord Nelſon, on the total Defeat of the French Squadron off the Coaſts of this Kingdom by that under the Command of Sir John-Borlaſe Warren, and alſo on the important Conqueſt of the Iſland of Minorca; and we unite with your Excellency in the Hope, that the Confidence of the other Powers of Europe may by theſe Means be revived, and that they may be encouraged to ſuch ſtrenuous and perſevering Exertions, as may effectually fruſtrate the deſtructive Ambition of the common Enemy.

We feel deep Regret that a Spirit of Diſaffection ſhould ſtill be found to prevail in different Parts of the Kingdom, and ſtill more that the ſecret Agents of the Enemy ſhould yet be able to raiſe an Expectation of freſh Aſſiſtance from France.

Convinced as we are of the Neceſſity of continuing the War with Vigor, his Majeſty ſhall not be diſappointed in the Reliance he is pleaſed to place in us. No Exertions on our Part ſhall be wanting, in Support of the Honor of his Crown, the Intereſts of this Kingdom, and of the general Cauſe of the Empire.

It gives us the higheſt Satisfaction to learn from your Excellency, that, notwithſtanding our internal Calamities, this Kingdom, blended as its Intereſts are in the general Proſperity of the Empire, has participated in the increaſing Wealth and Commerce of Great Britain, and that our Revenues and Trade have increaſed.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Excellency, that we ſhall omit no Means in our Power for giving Countenance and Protection to the Agriculture and Manufactures of Ireland, and particularly to the Linen Manufacture, to the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and the other Charitable Eſtabliſhments which have hitherto enjoyed the Liberality of Parliament. —Your Excellency may alſo rely on our paying the Attention due to the juſt and honorable Claims of thoſe who have ſuffered for their Loyalty during the Rebellion.

His Majeſty may be aſſured that we ſhall continue to exert our utmoſt Energy for repreſſing that Spirit of Diſaffection which we are fully ſenſible ſtill demands the Exerciſe of extraordinary Powers to check its malignant Effects.—That in ſuch Acts of indiſpenſable Severity as have hitherto been reſorted to, your Excellency has endeavoured to mitigate the Effects of Penal Juſtice by every poſſible Degree of Forbearance and Lenity, we deeply feel and gratefully acknowledge.

Intereſted as we are in the general Cauſe which engages the Empire, we contemplate with the higheſt Satisfaction its preſent encouraging Circumſtances, and we are reſolved to perſevere with redoubled Efforts until we can obtain a Peace on ſecure and honorable Terms.

We have ſeen with equal Approbation and Gratitude the Zeal of his Majeſty's Regular and Militia Forces, the Gallantry of the Yeomanry, the honorable Co-operation of the Britiſh Fencibles and Militia, and the Activity, Skill and Valor of his Majeſty's Fleets, and on their continued Exertions we rely with Firmneſs for the Defeat of any future Effort of the Enemy.

We are gratefully indebted to your Excellency for having made the Situation and Circumſtances of this Kingdom the Subject of your Reflection, and we ſhall pay the moſt ſerious Attention to that Part of your Excellency's Speech, in which you ſtate, that "when you conſider on the one Hand the "Strength and Stability of Great Britain, "and on the other, thoſe Diviſions which "have ſhaken Ireland to its Foundations, "you are the more anxious for ſome perma-"nent Adjuſtment which may extend the "Advantages enjoyed by our Siſter Kingdom "to every Part of this Iſland."

The unremitting Induſtry with which our Enemies perſevere in their avowed Deſign of endeavouring to effect a Separation of this Kingdom from Great Britain, have indeed engaged our particular Attention, and in Conformity to the anxious Hope expreſſed by his Majeſty, that this Conſideration, joined to the Sentiment of mutual Affection and common Intereſt, may diſpoſe the Parliaments in both Kingdoms to provide the moſt effectual Means of maintaining and improving a Connexion eſſential to their common Security, and of conſolidating as far as poſſible, into one firm and laſting Fabrick, the Strength, the Power, and the Reſources of the Britiſh Empire, we ſhall not omit to give to this important Subject the fulleſt Deliberation.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe. to be preſented.

Lord Maſſy's Petition,

Upon reading the Petition of Hugh Lord Baron Maſſy, ſetting forth, that the Petitioner having taken the Oaths of Qualification and his Seat in a former Parliament, and having received a Writ of Summons, requiring and commanding him to attend the preſent Parliament, he attended accordingly; but the Petitioner having learned, that the Oaths of Qualification ought to be taken between the Hours of nine o'Clock in the Morning and four o'Clock in the Afternoon, he attended their Lordſhip's Houſe ſeveral Days lately between theſe Hours, for the Purpoſe of taking the Oaths, and eſpecially on the firſt, ſecond and fourth Inſtant; but as the Houſe did not chance to ſit within theſe Hours on any of theſe Days, he of courſe could not tender his Writ within the Hours ſo preſcribed by Law—but Petitioner being extremely anxious and deſirous in Obedience to the ſaid Writ of Summons to take his Seat, the Petitioner as ſoon as the Houſe ſat on the laſt of theſe Days, did tender his Writ to the Lord Chancellor in order that Petitioner might be admitted to qualify according to Law, and take his Seat in their Lordſhips' Houſe.—But his Lordſhip was pleaſed to refuſe accepting of the Writ, by Reaſon of which the Petitioner is prevented from diſcharging the Duty enjoined by the ſaid Writ of Summons, and in fact, deprived of the higheſt Privilege of the Peerage, the Honor of ſitting in their Lordſhips' Houſe.

That the Petitioner ſo far from being conſcious of any Crime which would render him unworthy of enjoying the Privileges of his Rank, pledges himſelf to their Lordſhips, that he never entertained the remoteſt Idea of tranſgreſſing any Law of the Land, or violating any Order or Regulation.—If however, it be conceived that the Petitioner has tranſgreſſed any Law, and by ſuch Tranſgreſſion forfeited the Privileges of his Rank, he humbly prays, that their Lordſhips may be pleaſed to appoint ſuch early Day as to their Lordſhips ſhall ſeem fit, for hearing and examining into the Charges that ſhall be alleged againſt him, and giving him an Opportunity of defending himſelf againſt the ſame, in ſuch Manner as by Law and the Rules and Orders of the Houſe he may be entitled to.

DISSENTIENT.

Proteſt, BECAUSE that, though no Men can more vehemently abhor than we do the Tenets and Practices, which have for ſome Time paſt diſgraced, and ſtill continue to diſgrace ſome Parts of this Kingdom, we cannot be perſuaded that theſe partial Evils, great as they are, can juſtify the paſſing of an Act by which, not only the Forms, but the Eſſence of the Conſtitution is univerſally ſubverted, and the Freedom of our civil Government is changed to military Deſpotiſm.

Becauſe the Act empowers the executive Government to authorize ſuch Perſons as they ſhall think proper to inflict Death upon the Subjects of this Realm, without any known Rule by which Criminality is to be inferred, or Puniſhment to be apportioned; and whilſt it creates this Authority hitherto unknown to the Laws of this Kingdom, by which the Functions of Legiſlators, Judges and Jurors are united in the ſame Perſons, it does not even require the Form of a Military Trial to aſcertain the Facts upon which the Penalties of the Act are to attach—And becauſe, the Act exempts from the Cognizance of the civil Tribunal all Proceedings had under its Authority, a Proviſion not conveying any definite Meaning, but the practical Effect of which muſt be either to ſubject excluſively to a Military Determination all Acts of Military Perſons, or to induce that Claſhing of Juriſdiction between the civil and military Authorities, the avoiding of which is profeſſed to be a principal Object of the Act, and which we do not conceive to have been obviated by any Amendment made in this Houſe.

Becauſe we conceive that, inſtead of ſtimulating the Minds of Men by Laws of this Nature, the beſt and ſureſt Means of reſtoring Tranquillity to this diſtracted Country would be, to conciliate and ſecure the Affections of the People towards the happy Conſtitution under which they were born, and their Confidence in Parliament, by the Enaction of good and wholeſome Laws, and thus clearly to evince, that the Legiſlature which they are bound to obey, like a firm but tender Parent, enforces their Obedience for the ſole Purpoſe of their Advantage.

Becauſe that, though the Act, againſt the paſſing of which we Proteſt, be only temporary, and that conſequently a Hope is held out to us, that its baleful Opperation will be limited in Time: We cannot conſent to its remaining in force, though for ever ſo ſhort a Space, more eſpecially, as we are well aware, how much eaſier it is to continue, than in the firſt Inſtance to enact Laws of this Nature.

Becauſe from many Circumſtances, we are inclined to fear that in preſſing forward the preſent Act, by which it appears to us, that all conſtitutional Liberty is ſuſpended, the Promoters of a Legiſlative Union between Great Britain and Ireland, have hoped and intended to induce this Country to purchaſe back its Conſtitution, by conſenting to their favourite Meaſure; an exorbitant Price, which would however, in our Opinion, be fruitleſsly paid, in as much, as under the fatal, but neceſſary Conſequences which muſt attend ſuch Union, an Act of this Nature would become abſolutely inevitable, as the Kingdom, deprived of every natural Mean by which its Tranquillity might be reſtored and ſecured, could then only be governed by that Syſtem of Martial Law againſt which we now Proteſt.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Upon reading the Order for the Day,

The Earl of Mayo from the Lords Committees for Privileges, to whom the Petition of the Right Honorable Hugh Lord Baron Maſſy was referred, made the following Report:

My Lords,

Report from Grand Committee for Privileges.

THE Lords Committees for Privileges, to whom the Petition of the Right Honorable Hugh Lord Baron Maſſy was referred, and who were inſtructed to enquire and report to the Houſe, whether the ſaid Lord Maſſy had voted or made his Proxy in the Houſe, or ſat therein during any Debate in the laſt Seſſion or in the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, or whether he had preſumed to offend in any, and which of the ſaid Caſes, have met, and the ſaid Petition, and ſeveral Entries on the Journal of the twenty-ſecond of January laſt having been read, the Committee proceeded to examine Mr. Gayer, Deputy Clerk of the Parliaments, who being aſked, whether he had ſeen Lord Maſſy in the Houſe during the laſt or the preſent Seſſion of Parliament? Said, he ſaw his Lordſhip in the Houſe on Tueſday the twenty-ſecond of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine, the firſt Day of this Seſſion.—Being then deſired to ſtate to the Committee what paſſed in the Houſe relative to his Lordſhip on that Day, he ſaid, he had taken a Note of the Circumſtances, which he was permitted to read as follows:

"On the firſt Day of the Seſſion, while "the Houſe was adjourned to unrobe, Lord "Maſſy, I believe, applied at the Table for "his Writ.—Immediately on being informed "that he had done ſo, I laid the Writ on "the Table to be ready for his Lordſhip.— "In the Courſe of a Debate which enſued, "his Lordſhip came to me and aſked what "would be the beſt Time for him to take "the Oaths. I told him that Lord Doneraile, "who ſtood near, was waiting for the ſame "Purpoſe, who I did ſuppoſe would take "the firſt Opportunity to deliver his Writ, "and that if his Lordſhip would deliver his "at the ſame Time, they might take the "Oaths together, whenever there was a "Pauſe in the Debate.—On a Diviſion be-"ing called for, Lord Maſſy came again to "me and aſked what he ſhould then do, "I told him to retire behind the Throne, "and ſoon afterwards Lord Mountnorris "came for the Writ and took it to his "Lordſhip."

Mr. Gayer being then aſked by the Lord Chancellor, whether he recollected that the Chancellor had on that Day, during the Debate on the Motion for Leave to withdraw the Amendment which had been propoſed to the Motion for an Addreſs to the King, and ſhortly before the Queſtion was put, called him up to the Woolſack, and aſked him whether Lord Maſſy had taken the Oaths in this Parliament, and that he had told his Lordſhip that Lord Maſſy had not taken the Oaths? He ſaid, "he did re-"collect it."

Being

Being alſo aſked, whether he recollected that the Chancellor deſired him to mark Lord Maſſy with the Peers preſent that Day? He ſaid, he did, and that he accordingly directed Mr. Gregg, the Clerk Aſſiſtant to do ſo.

Being aſked, whether he ſaw Lord Maſſy in the Houſe after the Diviſion was called for? He ſaid, he did.

Being aſked, whether Lord Maſſy was told on the Diviſion?—He ſaid, he was not.

Being aſked, whether it was before or after the Diviſion that Lord Mountnorris got Lord Maſſy's Writ?—He ſaid, he was not certain.

Lord Mountnorris then informed the Committee, that he got Lord Maſſy's Writ at the Table, gave it to his Lordſhip, and brought him round the Houſe to deliver it at the Woolſack, after the Queſtion was put, and before the Diviſion took place.

Mr. Gayer being then aſked, in what Part of the Houſe Lord Maſſy ſtood when he ſaw him?—He ſaid, between the Table and the Fire.

Being aſked, whether a Number of People did not ſtand there that Day, who had not a Right to ſit or vote in the Houſe?—He ſaid, there was a Number of Strangers in the Houſe, but he could not ſay, whether any of them ſtood in that Part of it.

Being aſked, whether Lord Doneraile ſtood in the ſame Part of the Houſe with Lord Maſſy?—He ſaid, he did.

Being aſked, whether Lord Doneraile had ſince taken the Oaths?—He ſaid, he had.

Being aſked, whether he did not believe that Lord Maſſy came to the Houſe that Day, with an Intention of taking the Oaths? He ſaid, he believed he did.

Being aſked, whether he did not believe that Lord Maſſy's Motive for not applying ſooner to take the Oaths, was his unwillingneſs to interrupt the Buſineſs then going forward?—He ſaid, he believed it was, as he had heard his Lordſhip ſay ſo.

Being aſked, whether he had ever known a Diviſion to take place on a Motion for printing the Lord Lieutenant's Speech?—He ſaid, he had not, as he never heard that Motion oppoſed.

The Lord Chancellor then informed the Committee, "That after he had put the "Queſtion on the Motion which had been "made for Leave to withdraw the Amend-"ment which had been propoſed to the "Addreſs, and declared for the Not-Con-"tents, and after a Diviſion of the Houſe "had been called for, and he had declared "the Contents were to go below the Bar, "Lord Maſſy came up to the Woolſack "from the lower End of the Houſe, and "tendered his Writ of Summons, which he "declined to receive, and on declining to "receive the Writ, he told Lord Maſſy he "had got into a Scrape, and recommended "to him to retire behind the Throne. That "Lord Maſſy did then after ſome Heſitation "retire, he believes, behind the Throne, "and immediately after the Tellers had "made their Report of the Numbers on the "Diviſion, Lord Maſſy did again come up "to the Woolſack, and tender his Writ, "which the Chancellor declined to receive, "and again told Lord Maſſy, that he had "got into a Scrape, and would do well to "retire.—That Lord Maſſy however, ſtill "preſſed the Chancellor to receive his Writ, "which he declined, and on being ſo preſſed, "ſtated to the Houſe the whole of what had "paſſed with reſpect to Lord Maſſy's ten-"dering his Writ, and his remaining in the "Houſe without having taken the Oaths, "and made, repeated and ſubſcribed the "Declaration as required by Law."

Upon which the Committee came to the following Reſolution, viz.:

Reſolution of Committee,

"Reſolved, that it appears to this Com-"mittee, that Hugh Lord Baron Maſſy did "ſit in the Houſe of Peers on Tueſday the "twenty-ſecond of January, one thouſand "ſeven hundred and ninety-nine, when an "Order was made by the Houſe, that his "Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech "ſhould be read at the Table;" as alſo, when an Order was made by the Houſe, "That his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's "Speech to both Houſes of Parliament ſhould "be printed;" as alſo, when a Motion was made, "That an humble Addreſs ſhould be "preſented to his Majeſty;" as alſo, when a Motion was made, "That an Amendment "ſhould be made to the ſaid Motion ſo "made for ſuch Addreſs;" and whilſt the ſaid Motion for ſuch Amendment was in Part debated; as alſo, when a Motion was made, "For Leave to withdraw the ſaid "Amendment;" and whilſt a Debate aroſe and continued thereupon, and until after the Queſtion was put upon the ſaid laſt mentioned Motion, and the Houſe had voted thereupon; and that the ſaid Lord Maſſy had not at any Time during this Parliament taken the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration as required by the ſeveral Statutes in force in this Kingdom, and in that behalf made and provided.

All which the Committee humbly ſubmit to your Lordſhips.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

Houſe in conſideration of Report. The Houſe proceeded to take into further Conſideration the Report of the Grand Committee for Privileges, to whom the Petition of the Right Honorable Hugh Lord Baron Maſſy was referred,

Questions be propoſed to the Judges. A Motion was made, that the following Queſtion be propoſed to the Judges;

Whether a Peer being preſent in the Houſe of Lords when a Queſtion was put and carried without a Diviſion, can be conſidered as having voted within the Meaning of the Statutes in Force in this Kingdom, whereby Peers are ſubject to Penalties and Diſabilities, for preſuming to vote in the Houſe of Peers, without having taken the Oaths by Law required?

And the Queſtion being put,

It paſſed in the Negative.

A Motion was then made, that the following Queſtion be propoſed to the Judges;

Whether a Peer who, not having taken the Oaths required by Law, ſat in the Houſe during a Debate, is liable to the Penalties in the ſaid Statutes?

And the Queſtion being put,

It paſſed in the Negative. diſagreed to

A Motion was then made, that the following Queſtion be propoſed to the Judges, Motion to propoſe Queſtion to Judges

Whether the Houſe of Lords are warranted to take Cognizance of an Offence againſt the Statutes aforeſaid, by a Peer, until the Peer charged therewith has been convicted by Law?

And the previous Queſtion being put, whether the ſaid Queſtion be now put, Previous Queſtion, put,

DISSENTIENT.

Proteſt. BECAUSE the Judges are called up to this Houſe by Writ, for the Purpoſe of aſſiſting by their Advice and Opinions ſuch Peers as entertain Doubts concerning legal Queſtions which may ariſe in the Houſe, and it was peculiarly neceſſary at this Time to apply to them for ſuch Aſſiſtance, being by Reaſon of the Circuits deprived of the Advice of ſuch of the Judges who are Members of this Houſe, I therefore wiſhed for their Opinions, in order to enable me to decide upon a Queſtion, which ſubjected a Noble Peer to the enormous Forfeitures and Penalties which are inflicted by the Statutes, for not taking the Oaths required by Law.

FARNHAM.

Lord Maſſy diſabled from ſitting &c. till indemnified. Reſolved, that Hugh Lord Maſſy, having ſat and voted in the Houſe of Peers without having taken the Oaths, and made, repeated and ſubſcribed the Declaration as required by Law, is diſabled from ſitting or voting in Parliament, unleſs he ſhall be indemnified for ſuch Omiſſion by Statute.

DISSENTIENT.

Proteſt. BECAUSE it is an eſtabliſhed Principle in conſtruing Penal Statutes, that they ſhould be conſtrued liberally in favor of the Perſon upon whom the Penalty ſhould attach, and I cannot conceive that the Legiſlature did by the Statute of third William and Mary, intend to inflict ſuch enormous Penalties and Diſabilities, as are thereby to be incurred, upon any Peer who did not intentionally tranſgreſs in what is directed by ſuch Statute.

2. Becauſe I conceive that the Criminality of an Act conſiſts in the Intention of the Party to commit it, and that ſuch was the Intention of the Legiſlature in framing thoſe Laws.—The Words in all thoſe Statutes are, that if a Peer ſhall preſume to do the Act prohibited, which muſt be conſidered as doing it from a criminal Intention to diſobey the Statute, and if any Doubt could remain concerning the Meaning of the Word, preſume, it is removed by referring to that Part which gives the Penalty of five hundred Pounds for every wilful Offence.—This Penalty is given in each of thoſe Statutes in the ſame Words.—In order therefore to judge, whether Lord Maſſy did wilfully offend againſt thoſe Laws, reſort muſt be had to the Evidence given to the Committee, and reported to the Houſe.—The Purport of which is as follows:—That Lord Maſſy having come into the Houſe, applied to the Clerk at the Table for his Writ, that Mr. Gayer having been informed that he had done ſo, laid the Writ upon the Table, to be ready for his Lordſhip.—That in the Courſe of the Debate which enſued, his Lordſhip came to him, and aſked what would be the beſt Time to take the Oaths; that he told him, that Lord Doneraile waited for the ſame Purpoſe, who he ſuppoſed, would take the firſt Opportunity to deliver his Writ, and that if he would deliver his at the ſame Time, they might take the Oaths together whenever there was a Pauſe in the Debate; from which Evidence, no Doubt can remain, of Lord Maſſy's Intention to take the Oaths required by Law, and that his having poſtponed to do ſo, aroſe from an unwillingneſs to interrupt a Debate then ſubſiſting, upon a Subject of the greateſt Importance, that was ever agitated in Parliament.

3. Becauſe I cannot think, that by Lord Maſſy's having remained in the Houſe for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, whilſt two inſignificant Orders were made, whereupon there was not any Diviſion, he can be conſidered to have preſumed to vote upon them, and although a Peer may in Parliamentary Language be ſaid to have voted upon ſuch, I conceive that in common Parlance he never is underſtood to have voted, unleſs there has been a Diviſion, and more eſpecially, as having preſumed to vote upon them; and it appears, that when a Diviſion took Place, Lord Maſſy retired behind the Throne, in order to avoid voting upon that Queſtion.

Upon reading the Petition of Hugh Lord Baron Maſſy, ſetting forth, that the Petitioner came into the Houſe of Peers on Tueſday the twenty-ſecond of January, in order to take the Oaths required by Law; but as it could not be done without interrupting the Debate then ſubſiſting upon a Subject of the utmoſt Conſequence, Petitioner out of Reſpect to the Houſe, and from an Unwillingneſs to break in upon the Buſineſs then before their Lordſhips, and not from any Deſire to poſtpone or evade taking the ſaid Oaths, continued in the Houſe till an Opportunity ſhould offer; and that Petitioner did not conceive he could be conſidered as having been guilty of offending againſt thoſe Laws, without his having had any Intention whatever of doing ſo.

d Maſſy's tition,

That Petitioner finds with great Concern, that their Lordſhips have determined by a Reſolution of the nineteenth Inſtant, that the Petitioner having ſat and voted in the Houſe of Peers without having taken the Oaths, and made, repeated and ſubſcribed the Declaration as required by Law, is diſabled from ſitting or voting in Parliament, unleſs he ſhall be indemnified for ſuch Omiſſion by Statute.

That Petitioner therefore relies upon the Juſtice of their Lordſhips, that they will permit a Clauſe to be inſerted in the Act for the Relief of Perſons who have omitted to qualify themſelves according to Law, now before their Lordſhips, to indemnify Petitioner from ſuch Penalties and Diſabilities as he may have incurred, by having omitted in Manner aforeſaid to take the Oaths required by Law.

It is ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the Bill, intitled, An Act for the Relief of Perſons who have omitted to qualify themſelves according to Law, is committed; and that ſaid Committee be impowered to receive a Clauſe to indemnify ſuch Peers as have ſat and voted in Parliament without taking the Oaths, and making, repeating and ſubſcribing the Declaration according to Law.

The Earl of Altamont, from the Lords Committees appointed to examine into the Application of the Funds bequeathed by Sir Patrick Dunn, for the Eſtabliſhment of an Hoſpital for Clinical Lectures, made the following Report:

" My Lords,

THE Lords Committees appointed to examine into the Application of the Funds bequeathed by Sir Patrick Dunn, for the Eſtabliſhment of an Hoſpital for Clinical Lectures, and to report the ſame as they ſhall appear to them to this Houſe, have met and made a minute Enquiry into the Matter to them referred, and after an Inveſtigation of Report from Committee appointed to enquire into the Application of the Funds bequeathed by Sir Patrick Dunn.

the Books of the College of Phyſicians, and the Examination of the moſt reſpectable Members of ſaid College, as well as of the Profeſſors of Phyſic by them choſen, whoſe Teſtimony is now ſubmitted to your Lordſhips, it appears clearly, that the Intentions of Sir Patrick Dunn as explained by the Acts of the twenty-fifth and thirty-firſt of the preſent Reign, have not been carried into Effect, and by the unanimous Admiſſion of every Witneſs examined, the Truſt confided in ſaid College of Phyſicians, appears to have been groſsly miſuſed.

It appears to your Committee, that by the thirty-firſt of the preſent King it is provided, that Salaries, from the Funds of Sir Patrick Dunn, ſhall be paid to the three Profeſſors, at the Rate of one hundred Pounds each, and no more, and that the Surplus of the Income of ſaid Eſtate, which exceeded one thouſand Pounds a Year, after paying the ſaid three Profeſſors, ſhould be applied to the Eſtabliſhment and Support of an Hoſpital, as the beſt Means of extending the Knowledge of Medicine, by uniting the Practice to the Theory of Phyſic.

It appears to your Committee, that the Salaries to the ſaid three Profeſſors at one hundred Pounds a Year, and no more, has been regularly paid, but that though no Hoſpital has been permanently eſtabliſhed, nor any more than a very ſmall Sum applied to the Support of Patients, the only Balance of the ſaid Surplus now forthcoming is five Pounds nine Shillings and three Pence, though there ought to have been a Balance of many thouſand Pounds.

In ſearching for the Cauſe of ſaid Deficiency, it appears to your Committee, that many conſiderable Sums have been expended by ſaid College of Phyſicians not at all warranted either by the Intention of the Teſtator, or by the ſeveral Acts of the Legiſlature before alluded to, for carrying the ſame into effect, and among the ſaid Items unwiſely and unwarrantably expended, your Committee hold themſelves bound to notice a Preſent of Claret to the Preſident of the College of Phyſic annually, an immoderate purchaſe of Books in ſome Inſtances twice paid for; Law Suits carried on in which the ſaid College were both Plaintiffs and Defendants, and actually paid from ſaid Funds the Expenſes of both; and Loans to indigent Members of ſaid College, which were never repaid in many Inſtances, and which with other Charges equally foreign to the ſaid Truſt, have conſumed the whole Surplus Income of Sir Patrick Dunn's Eſtates, which under wiſe and frugal Management would have afforded Means for a great and uſeful National Eſtabliſhment.

Your Committee being of Opinion, that there were Funds abundantly ſufficient for ſuch Eſtabliſhment, earneſtly hope that the Wiſdom of the Legiſlature will put them under ſuch Regulations, as will faithfully diſcharge the benign Intention of the Teſtator, and moſt extenſively benefit the Public.

THE TESTIMONY

To which the foregoing Report refers.

Doctor Robert Percival, Sworn.

Q. Are you acquainted with the Objects of Sir Patrick Dunn's Will?

A. The Object of Sir Patrick Dunn's Will was, for the Purpoſe of extending the Study of Medicine in Ireland.

Q. How did the Truſtees to that Will begin to fulfill its Purpoſes?

A. I believe to the beſt of my Remembrance, Doctor Gratton was amongſt the firſt that was appointed under the Will of Sir Patrick Dunn as a Profeſſor.

Q. How early does your own Knowledge of this Buſineſs begin?

A. My perſonal Knowledge began ſome Time previous to the Introduction of a Bill for eſtabliſhing a Complete School of Phyſic in this Kingdom, firſt brought into Parliament as I believe by the late Provoſt of Trinity College, in the twenty-fourth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, and paſſed into a Law in the twenty-fifth Year.

Q. What was the Amount of the Eſtate as it was originally bequeathed?

A. At the Time of the original Bequeſt, I believe the Income of the Eſtate amounted to between one and two hundred Pounds a Year.

Q. How was that Fund applied?

A. To the Maintenance of one or more Profeſſors.

Q. Was there any, and what riſe in it?

A. There muſt have been a conſiderable Riſe, as I believe, that at the Introduction of the Bill by the late Provoſt the nett Income amounted to about one thouſand Pounds, per Annum.

Q. How was the whole Income ſo increaſed applied?

A. Before the Introduction of the Bill, the Income was equally divided between Sir Nathaniel Barry, Doctor Quin and Doctor Barber.

Q. Was there any other Advantage taken of the increaſed Income of the Eſtate, ſave that of adding to the Number and the Salaries of the Profeſſors?

A. Not

A. Not that I know of, the whole was divided I believe amongſt the three Profeſſors.

Q. Was there any regular Courſe of Lectures given by thoſe three Profeſſors?

A. To the beſt of my Information none, there was no regular Courſe of Lectures.

Q. Do you know what the Object was of the Act of the twenty-fifth of George the Third?

A. As ſtated in the Title, for eſtabliſhing a Complete School of Phyſic in this Kingdom.

Q. What Perſons have acted in the Truſt of Sir Patrick Dunn's Will, as directed by the ſaid Act.

A. The Act of Parliament as I believe, ſuppoſes the College of Phyſicians, Truſtees to Sir Patrick Dunn's Eſtates, but ſuperadds other Truſtees or Guardians, the Conſent of whom is neceſſary under that Act for the Appropriation of the Surplus of thoſe Funds, after certain Purpoſes recited in the Act ſhall have been fulfilled.

Q. Have the College of Phyſicians in your Mind, diſcharged the Truſt repoſed in them in the beſt Manner, for forwarding the Object of the Act, or the Intention of the Original Teſtator?

A. If by the College of Phyſicians be meant that Majority which has acted on many and very important Occaſions, my anſwer is decidedly in the Negative, with regard to thoſe Occaſions.

Q. Do you know what the Object of the Act of the thirty-firſt of the King was?

A. The Object appears to me to have been two-fold—firſt, to recite that the Surplus of Sir Patrick Dunn's Funds, after the Payment of the Kings Profeſſors Salaries, which are mentioned to be one hundred Pounds a year to each, amounts to eight hundred Pounds a Year, or thereabouts, and ſecondly, to enable the College of Phyſicians with the Conſent of the Truſtees, to raiſe one thouſand Pounds for the building or purchaſing an Hoſpital, and enabling them afterwards from the Surplus of the Fund to ſupport the ſame.

Q. Do you know how that Surplus has been ſince applied?

A. It has been applied partly in purchaſing Books, partly in the Payment of the Library Porter and Attendance upon the Library, partly in ſupport of temporary Hoſpital Eſtabliſhments, partly in Law Expenſes, and partly in defraying the Expenſe of Advertiſing Lectures, theſe Heads to the beſt of my Recollection include the whole of the Expenſe.

Q. What do you mean by Law Expenſes, and for what Purpoſes were thoſe Suits commenced?

A. I include under the Head of Law Expenſes, as well Money advanced by the College of Phyſicians to oppoſe the Kings Profeſſors Claims, firſt brought forward in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-four, as thoſe Sums which were advanced by the ſaid College in ſupport of thoſe Claims.

Q. What Money was expended from the Funds of Sir Patrick Dunn's Eſtates in ſupport of Suits at Law, for increaſe of Salary to the Kings Profeſſors, and in other Means taken to prevent any Proceedings likely to hinder ſuch Claims at any future Time?

A. It appears to me from the moſt accurate Examination of the Accounts of the College which I was able to make, that a Sum amounting at the leaſt to one hundred and twelve Pounds twelve Shillings and three Pence, was expended out of Sir Patrick Dunn's Funds for theſe Purpoſes.

Q. What Money was applied in the ſame way from the private Funds of the College of Phyſicians?

A. The Sum of two hundred and twenty-one Pounds two Shillings and eight Pence, ſo that the whole Amount between the twenty-firſt Day of November one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-four and the twentieth Day of November one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight, amounts to three hundred and thirty-three Pounds fourteen Shillings and eleven Pence.

Q. How do thoſe private Funds ariſe, and how have they been generally applied?

A. They ariſe from Money paid for Licenſes granted on Examination, and from Fines for Abſence, &c. they have been generally applied for the Relief of the indigent Families of Medical Practitioners, at leaſt ſince I became a Member of the College, with the Exception of Law Expenſes already contained in my Teſtimony, and Part of this Fund has likewiſe been lent to Members of the College.

Q. Did the College of Phyſicians take any Step towards carrying into Effect the Act enabling them to raiſe one thouſand Pounds for the Purpoſe of building an Hoſpital?

A. They authorized me to propoſe to the Board of Trinity College, for a Lot of Ground on which an Hoſpital might be erected, but this Scheme was afterwards deſerted, and no effectual Means for erecting ſuch an Hoſpital have hitherto been adopted.

Q. Did they not take an Houſe in Lower Exchange-ſtreet for the Reception of Patients?

A. They did, which as I underſtood was for the Reception of Patients, until a permanent Hoſpital could be erected.

Q. What Number was there admitted?

A. The greateſt Number at a Time, to the beſt of my Recollection, was thirty-two or thirty-three, but in general the Number was much ſmaller, even during the Winter Seſſions.

Q. Was that Hoſpital kept open the whole Year, or only Part of the Year?

A. It was kept open the whole Year, but during the latter Years of its exiſtence no adequate Proviſion having been made for the Summer Maintenance of Patients, the Hoſpital for many Months has been nearly deſerted.

Q. Did Doctor Cleghorn and you preſent a Memorial to the Provoſt and Senior Fellows of Trinity College, ſtating that during the laſt four Months of the preceding Winter Medical Seſſion, the Kings Profeſſors had reduced the Number of Patients in the temporary Clinical Hoſpital to thirteen at a daily Average, and had received no Patients after the beginning of May?

A. We did.

Q. Did the Provoſt and Senior Fellows of Trinity College, having received no Satisfaction from the College of Phyſicians on the Matter of the above Complaint, refer it to the Viſitors of the College of Phyſicians, in Conſequence of which, and of an Appeal preſented to them by you, a Viſitation was held on ſixteenth January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven?

A. I conclude not, in Conſequence of their having tranſmitted the Complaint to the ſuppoſed Viſitors of the College of Phyſicians.

Q. Did you ſtate to the Provoſt and Senior Fellows of Trinity College, the very inadequate Proviſion for Medical Inſtruction?

A. I did.

Q. Did you ſtate to the Provoſt and Senior Fellows of Trinity College, that the Order of Rotation required you to give Clinical Lectures during the Seſſion of one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight and ninety-nine—That on that Day September twenty-eighth, there was but one Patient in the Hoſpital?

A. I did.

Q. Do you conceive that the Truſts of the Will of Sir Patrick Dunn, as explained and amended by ſubſequent Acts, have been carried on in the beſt and faireſt Manner for the Purpoſes of the Inſtitution, or in a juſt and faithful Diſcharge of the Truſt?

A. They certainly in my Opinion have not been carried on in ſuch Manner, and I am further of Opinion, that no Proviſion exiſts for preventing many of the Abuſes which have exiſted from occurring again.

Q. Do you conceive it for the Intereſt of the Public, that the Management of the Funds of Sir Patrick Dunn's Eſtates ſhould remain in the College of Phyſicians?

A. I certainly do not, conſtituted as it is without Viſitors.

Q. Are you one of the College of Phyſicians?

A. I am.

Q. Do you think that the Profeſſors ſhould diſpoſe of the Funds which they may put into their own Pockets?

A. My clear Opinion is, that thoſe Funds ought to be diſpoſed of by ſome Body, from which the Profeſſors, Univerſity, as well as King's, ought to be excluded.

Q. Do you not conceive that the Surplus Funds ariſing from Sir Patrick Dunn's Eſtates, together with the Payments that would be probably made by Students for attending Lectures, would not be a ſufficient Fund for a great and highly uſeful national Eſtabliſhment?

A. I certainly do.

Q. Do you conceive ſuch Eſtabliſhment at all likely to take Place under the preſent Management of theſe Funds?

A. I do not.

Q. Does your Signature to the Minutes of a Meeting of the College of Phyſicians, imply an Approbation of the Proceedings carried on there?

A. Certainly not, to omit numerous other Inſtances, my Name appears ſigned to the Minutes of June firſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five, at which my Claim for Reimburſement for Fees of Sir Laurence Parſons's Act, which I had advanced was poſtponed, it being the general Uſage of the Corporation, for all Perſons preſent to ſign, which I believe has not been departed from except on the third and twenty-firſt of November, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-four.

Q. Do

	Doctor Plunket sworn.	Doctor Hopkins sworn.	Doctor Cullen sworn.	Doctor Harvey sworn.
Q. Do you conceive the Object of Sir Patrick Dunn's Bequeſt of his Eſtates (for eſtabliſhing Courſes of Clinical Lectures) was to improve and extend the Study of Phyſic in Ireland?	A. Certainly.	Undoubtedly.	Moſt certainly.	It was.
* This Part of the Queſtion was not put to Doctor Harvey.
Q. What was the Amount of the Income at the Time of his Deceaſe, and how was it applied towards extending the Study of Medicine?	A. Does not know.	I believe the Amount of the Income was between one and two hundred Pounds a Year which was then applied to the Maintenance of a ſingle Profeſſor.	I believe between two and three hundred Pounds a Year, which was given to one Profeſſor.	I don't know.
Q. Was there not a conſiderable Riſe in the Income of thoſe Eſtates, and to what did it amount at the Time Doctors Barry, Quin, and Barber were the Profeſſors?	A. A very large one, to the beſt of my Recollection about nine hundred Pounds a Year.	There was about nine hundred Pounds a Year.	There was a conſiderable Riſe to about nine hundred Pounds a Year.	To about nine hundred Pounds a Year.
Doctor Harvey was aſked, were there any regular Courſe of Lectures given?				There was no regular Courſe of Lectures.
Q. How was that Income then applied?	A. It was equally divided between the three Profeſſors.	It was divided amongſt three Profeſſors.	It was divided equally amongſt the three Profeſſors.	It was divided amongſt three Profeſſors equally.
Q. Was not the Object of the Acts of the twenty-fifth and thirty-firſt of the preſent King to confine the Salaries of the Profeſſors to what they had been originally, viz: one hundred Pounds a Year, and to apply the Reſidue towards the Eſtabliſhment and Support of an Hoſpital where the Clinical Lectures ſhould be given, thereby uniting the Theory and Practice of Phyſic?	A. That was the Object.	Certainly it was.	The Conſequence reſulting from it was limiting the Salaries of the Profeſſors to one hundred Pounds a Year to each, and the Reſidue was intended to be applied for the Support of an Hoſpital where Clinical Lectures ſhould be given.	Undoubtedly it was the Intention, the Profeſſors ſhould have only one hundred Pounds a Year each, the Surplus was to be appropriated to various Purpoſes—The Eſtabliſhment of Clinical Lectures—the Eſtabliſhment of Lectures on Natural Hiſtory, and a Medical Library.

Q. Could

	Doctor Plunket	Doctor Hopkins	Doctor Cullen	Doctor Harvey
Q. Could any better Way have been than that adopted for extending Phyſical Knowledge in Ireland, and well and properly managed, might not the Inſtitution have been of the greateſt National Utility?	A. I have not a Doubt of it.	I conceive ſo.	I think ſo decidedly.	I think it would.
Q. Has any Hoſpital been taken or built ſince theſe Acts paſſed for carrying the Object of them into Effect?	A. There have been two or three Houſes taken for temporary Purpoſes, but there is no permanent Eſtabliſhment.	There has been no Hoſpital built, there was a Houſe taken in Clarendon-ſtreet; but it being found inadequate there was another taken in Lower Exchange-ſtreet.	There have been 2 Houſes taken at different Periods—lately the Inſtitution has been grafted on Mercer's Hoſpital.	There was none built—there was a Houſe taken in Lower Exchange-ſtreet.
Q. How many Patients were received in thoſe two Houſes upon an Average, and were the ſaid Hoſpitals kept open the whole Year, or only during the Winter Months?	A. As to the Number of Patients I cannot ſay, as I never attended it as Phyſician. —I believe the Hoſpitals were kept open only a part of the Year.	I don't know the Number of Patients, I believe it was kept open the whole Year for ſome Time, but not ſo latterly.	Between 20 and 30. It was kept open only during the Winter Months; there was no Fund, the College not being warranted in expending any Part of Sir Patrick Dunn's Funds, only for Patients in Clinical Lectures.	I do not know the Number.—I believe it was only kept open Part of the Year.
Doctor Harvey was aſked, Are the Summer Months unfit for Clinical Lectures?				They are not.
Q. Did not Doctor Percival make a Repreſentation to the College of Phyſicians in July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five, ſtating that there was then but one Patient in the Hoſpital in Lower Exchange-ſtreet?	A. I believe he made ſuch a Repreſentation	He did.	I do not know.	I do not know.
Q. Is it not the Uſage in Edinburgh and other Schools of Phyſic where Clinical Lectures are given, to ſelect a certain Number of Patients from a Variety, whoſe Caſes are the fitteſt for Study and Diſcuſſion?	A. It is.	Certainly it is.	Undoubtedly it is.	It is.

Q. Could

	Doctor Plunket	Doctor Hopkins	Doctor Cullen	Doctor Harvey
Q. Could any uſeful or extenſive Courſe of Lectures be applied to the Caſe of one Patient?	A. I think not.	Certainly not.	Certainly not.	Yes, if a very curious Caſe.
Q. What is the general Eſtimate in the Dublin Hoſpitals, for the annual Support of each Bed or Patient?	A. I cannot ſay to a Certainty. —Have heard, ſay from about Twelve Pounds to Fifteen Pounds a Patient.	I have heard it calculated from Twelve Pounds to Fifteen Pounds a Year.	I believe about Fifteen Pounds a Year.	About Fourteen Pounds a Year.
Q. What has been the annual Amount of the Income of the Eſtates ſince the thirty-firſt of the preſent King?	A. I do not recollect, I think to the beſt of my Recollection, they are at preſent let for about one thouſand three hundred Pounds per Annum.	I believe about one thouſand three hundred and eighty-four Pounds a Year.	About one thouſand three hundred Pounds a Year.	About one thouſand three hundred and eighty-four Pounds a Year.
Q. The Salaries allowed for the Profeſſors is three hundred Pounds a Year, and therefore, after paying thoſe Salaries, there remains a Surplus of about one thouſand Pounds a Year?	A. I conceive ſo about one thouſand Pounds a Year.	About one thouſand Pounds a Year.	There remains a Surplus of about one thouſand Pounds a Year.	There is a Surplus of about one thouſand Pounds a Year.
Q. Were you not Treaſurer of the College of Phyſicians, and how did the Accompts ſtand when you received them, and was there any, and what Balance of Caſh handed over to you?	A. I was Treaſurer in one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-four —I believe the Balance I received from Dr. Hopkins was £1104: 1*s.* 5*d.*	I was Treaſurer from October one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-three, to October one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-four. — The Balance handed over to me was about £847.	Twice, I cannot recollect what the Balance was that was handed over to me.	I am now Treaſurer, the Balance handed over to me, was £5: 9*s.* 3*d.*
Q. Do you not conceive that the Surplus, (after paying the Profeſſors,) of Sir Patrick Dunn's Eſtates, with the Fees paid for attending Lectures, would afford ſufficient Means for a great phyſical Eſtabliſhment, if judiciouſly and honeſtly applied?	A. I do for a very valuable and uſeful Eſtabliſhment.	I do indeed.	It would.	I don't think it would.
Q. Do you conceive that all ſaid Funds are managed in the beſt Manner now for uniting the Practice to the Theory of Phyſic?	A. I think the preſent plan would admit of conſiderable Improvement.	I undoubtedly do not.	I will not ſay in the beſt poſſible Manner, in ſome Reſpects they have.	I don't think they are.

	Doctor Plunket	Doctor Hopkins	Doctor Cullen	Doctor Harvey
Q. Do you conceive it to have been either the Intention of the Legiſlature or of the Teſtator Sir Patrick Dunn, that the Surplus of the Funds ariſing from the Means intended for promoting and extending the Study of Phyſic, ſhould be laid out in ſupporting Law Suits, buying Books, or making loans to diſtreſſed Members of the College of Phyſicians, or to extend the Knowledge of Phyſic?	A. Decidedly in extending the Knowledge of Phyſic, I think the purchaſing Books, with a ſtrict limitation would be conducive to the End the Legiſlature and Teſtator had in View.	I conceive the Intention of the Legiſlature was to purchaſe Books with the Surplus, and the extending the Knowledge of Phyſic.	The principal Motive muſt have been to extend the Knowledge of Phyſic.	I do think they ought not to be employed in Law Suits and Loans, but that a judicious Collection of Books would promote the Study of Phyſic.
Q. Look over the College Books, and pleaſe to anſwer, if the greater or any Part of the Surplus Income has been applied to one or other of thoſe Purpoſes?	A. I believe a large Part of the Income has been applied to thoſe Purpoſes.	A great Part has been applied to purchaſing Books. —A conſiderable Part has been applied to enable the Profeſſors to carry on Law Suits, —and Part to maintain Patients in the Hoſpitals.	Some of it has been applied to thoſe Purpoſes.	Greater Part was laid out in Books, Loans, and in Law Suits.
Q. If the two Studies of Surgery and Phyſic were united, and an Eſtabliſhment made for both under one Roof, don't you conceive it would tend moſt materially to extend the Knowledge of Phyſic, and be highly beneficial to the Nation under wiſe and proper Regulations?	A. I think it would.	I do think it would.	I do, and accordingly it has been begun by grafting it on Mercer's Hoſpital.	I do not think myſelf competent to anſwer this Queſtion.
Q. Do you conceive the Funds ariſing from Sir Patrick Dunn's Eſtates have been faithfully and wiſely adminiſtered?	A. I do not think they have been wiſely adminiſtered.	I do not.	I cannot judge.	I do not think they have.
Q. Don't you underſtand, that large Sums of Money were paid to Dr. Dickſon for Books, which Books have been ſince paid for by the College of Phyſicians again?	Was not aſked this Queſtion.	Was not aſked this Queſtion.	There was about £150.	Yes.

The Order of the Day being read, for the Judges to deliver their Opinions upon the Questions of Law put to them on Monday the twenty-fifth of February last,

Mr. Baron Metge delivered the Opinion of the Judges on the first Question, in the following Words, viz:

Judges Opinions.

We are of Opinion, that upon the Record, the Action of the Plaintiff appears to have been brought against the Defendants on the sixth Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, the Day of issuing the Subpœna.

And

And on the ſecond Queſtion, delivered the Opinion of the Judges in the following Words, viz:

We are of Opinion, that in as much as the Plaintiff in making out his Caſe upon the Trial below, did without Objection, as appears by the Record ſhewn in Evidence, by Anticipation, that a Subpæna at his Suit had iſſued againſt the Defendants on the ſixth January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one, and that the Defendants had by their Attorney reſpectively appeared thereto on the twenty-ſixth of the ſame Month, and having thereby in our Opinion, ſufficiently proved, that his Action had been commenced within the Time allowed by the Statute of the twenty-fifth George III. Cap. 34, it was not competent to the Defendants under the Proviſions of that Act, then to give Evidence, that the Declaration of the Plaintiff had not been actually filed until the twenty-fourth March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one.

And it is further ordered, that the Appellant do pay or cauſe to be paid to the ſaid Reſpondent, the Sum of one hundred Pounds Sterling for his Coſts in reſpect of the ſaid Appeal.

O'Donel againſt Swan and others in error.

AFTER hearing Counſel on Wedneſday the twentieth, Friday the twenty-ſecond and Monday the twenty-fifth of February laſt, to argue the Errors aſſigned upon the Writ of Error brought into this Houſe on Tueſday the twenty-ſecond of January laſt, wherein Sir Neal O'Donel, Baronet, is Plaintiff, and William-Bellingham Swan, William Whyte and Nathaniel Houſton are Defendants, in order to reverſe a Judgment given in the Court of Exchequer Chamber for the ſaid Defendants, and hearing the Opinion of the Judges upon two Queſtions of Law to them propoſed, and due Conſideration had of what was offered on either ſide in this Cauſe, Judgment.

IT is ordered and adjudged, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Judgment of the Court of Exchequer Chamber be, and the ſame is hereby reverſed,

The Tenor of which Judgment to be affixed to the Tranſcript of the Record to be remitted, is as follows:

On which Day, at the ſame Court of Parliament at Dublin, came as well the ſaid Sir Neal O'Donel, in his proper Perſon, as the ſaid William-Bellingham Swan, William Whyte and Nathaniel Houſton, by their Attorney aforeſaid, but becauſe the Court of Parliament aforeſaid, now here, are not yet adviſed to give their Judgment of and upon the Premiſes, Day therefore is given as well to the ſaid Sir Neal O'Donel, as to the ſaid William-Bellingham Swan, William Whyte and Nathaniel Houſton, before the ſame Court of Parliament, until Saturday the twenty-ſeventh Day of April enſuing, whereſoever, &c. to hear their Judgment thereon, becauſe the Court of Parliament aforeſaid here, thereof hath not yet, &c. At which Day, before the ſame Court of Parliament aforeſaid, at Dublin aforeſaid, came as well the ſaid Sir Neal O'Donel, in his proper Perſon, as the ſaid William-Bellingham Swan, William Whyte and Nathaniel Houſton, by their Attorney aforeſaid; Whereupon the ſaid Court of Parliament, having ſeen and perfectly underſtood all and ſingular the Premiſes, and having diligently examined and inſpected the ſaid Record and Proceſs, and the Judgment thereupon given, and the ſaid Cauſes and Matters above aſſigned for Error by the ſaid Sir Neal O'Donel, it appears to the ſaid Court, that the ſaid Judgment of the Court of Exchequer Chamber is erroneous, and that in giving the aforeſaid Judgment there is manifeſt Error:— Therefore it is conſidered by the ſame Court of Parliament, that the Judgment aforeſaid be reverſed, annulled, and altogether held for nought; And thereupon, the Record aforeſaid, as alſo the Proceedings aforeſaid, in the ſame Court of Parliament in the Premiſes had by the ſame Court of Parliament, to the ſaid Court of Exchequer Chamber are remitted, &c.

DISSENTIENT.

1. BECAUSE the real Object of the ſaid Bill appears to us to be for the Purpoſe of procuring a Parliamentary Sanction to a Proceeding of the Commiſſioners of Wide Streets, totally unwarranted by Law, whereby they have aſſumed a Power of purchaſing an Eſtate from the College, as conſidering it of the annual Value of five thouſand Pounds, which Agreement they entered into without any Authority from Parliament, or even a Communication with either Houſe of Parliament, and we conceive that all Matters whereby ſo enormous an Expenſe to the Public is to be incurred ought to originate in Parliament, and that to eſtabliſh an Agreement thus entered into, will furniſh a Precedent of a moſt dangerous Tendency, and encourage Boards to aſſume Powers which do not belong to them, in Expectation of procuring a Parliamentary Sanction to ſuch Proceeding.

2. Becauſe the Circumſtances attending the ſaid Tranſaction prove the Inadequacy of the ſaid Agreement. The Rent payable to the College for fourteen Years was one hundred and fifty Pounds, and from that Time for nineteen Years was to riſe to four hundred Pounds, which laſt Reſervation of Rent was made upon a Suppoſition, that the Value of the Lands demiſed did not exceed the yearly Value of eight hundred Pounds, as the College was at the Time that the ſaid Leaſe was made, diſabled by Law from ſetting their Lands at leſs than a Moiety of their real Value, notwithſtanding which, and that Mr. Sherrard, their Secretary and Surveyor, (in whoſe Skill and Integrity they had the greateſt Reliance) had eſtimated the ſaid Grounds at three thouſand three hundred and ſixteen Pounds four Shillings yearly, they agreed for the ſame with the College, as eſtimating them to be worth five thouſand and fifty-ſeven Pounds eighteen Shillings yearly, which was done without any further Enquiry into their real Value, whereby they paid the College for the Purchaſe of one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-one Pounds fourteen Shillings a Year beyond the Eſtimate of their own Officer. We conceive that ſuch Conduct would not have been purſued by any Man in the Expenditure of his own Money, and therefore cannot be juſtified in a Board, who were making a Bargain for the Public.

3. Becauſe it appears from a Return from the Officer of the Board made in one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight, that they conſidered the ſaid Agreement as cloſed in one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, as they are charged therein with one thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty Pounds, as owing to the College and the Biſhop of Raphoe, although at that Time, their having entered into ſuch Agreement, or a Treaty for ſuch Grounds, had never in any ſort been communicated to Parliament.

4. Becauſe the Produce of the Duties laid on by the ſaid Bill are ſcarcely ſufficient to diſcharge the Annuities to the College and the Biſhop of Raphoe, and the Intereſt of the Sums payable to Colonel Iſaac Barré, and to the Executors of John-Hart Cox, to the Payment of which they are in the firſt Place applicable, and we conceive that the Power given to the ſaid Commiſſioners of raiſing thirty-eight thouſand nine hundred and eighty-five Pounds nineteen Shillings and ſeven Pence upon the ſaid Duties, for the Purpoſe of opening a Paſſage from Carliſle Bridge to the College, is a groſs Impoſition upon the Public, and calculated to procure the Support of the Friends to that Meaſure, by holding out to them an Expectation that by paſſing ſuch Bill, they would have the ſame effected, although it is manifeſt, that the ſaid Sum cannot be raiſed for want of a Fund upon which it can be ſecured.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I HAVE received his Majeſty's Commands to releaſe you from your further Attendance in Parliament, in order that the various Parts of the Kingdom, which are ſtill agitated by the Projects of the Diſaffected, may reap the Advantage of your more immediate Vigilance and Protection.

I am at the ſame Time to thank you in his Majeſty's Name for the continued and undiminiſhed Zeal, which you have manifeſted for counteracting the wicked Plots of internal Conſpirators, and for the Defeat of every hoſtile Attempt which the Deſperation of the Enemy may meditate.

The Situation of Affairs on the Continent has been materially improved in the Period which has elapſed ſince the Commencement of the Seſſion. The ſignal Advantages already obtained by the Auſtrian Arms, and the vigorous and decisive Exertions on the Part of Russia, must be Subjects of great Joy and Congratulation to all who can Estimate the Value of established Order and legitimate Government. I know the Pleasure you must derive from the consoling Prospect that Europe may be ultimately rescued from the ravaging Arms and the desolating Principles of France.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you in his Majesty's Name for the large and extraordinary Supply, which you have so honorably voted to meet every Wish of the Government, and every Exigency of the State. You must reflect with the highest Satisfaction on the liberal Co-operation which in every Moment of Difficulty you have experienced from the British Parliament; and I have the fullest Confidence that the public Spirit of this Country will not be found inferior to that of Great Britain in submitting to such temporary Burthen as the Safety of the Community may require.

I sincerely regret that so extensive a Demand should be made upon your Liberality, but when no Measure has been left untried by the Malice of our Enemies to sever this Kingdom from the British Empire, and to involve you in all the Horrors of Rebellion and Massacre, you have displayed true Wisdom in proportioning your Exertions to the Blessings you have to preserve, and the Miseries you have to avert.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I am to return you his Majesty's Acknowledgments for the many important Measures you have accomplished this Session. Your Liberality and Justice to those who have suffered from their Loyalty will confirm the Exertions of the well-disposed; and your judicious Provisions for the Regulation of Paper Currency are calculated to preserve its Credit from Depreciation without diminishing the necessary Circulation.

I am sensible of the Confidence which you have reposed in me, by enabling me to exercise the Powers of Martial Law in the Manner best adapted to the present Circumstances of the Country. It will be my Care to employ those Powers for the Purposes for which they were given, by taking the most effectual and summary Measures for the Suppression and Punishment of rebellious Proceedings, interfering as little as possible with the ordinary Administration of Justice among his Majesty's peaceable Subjects.

I have his Majesty's particular Commands to acquaint you, that a joint Address of the two Houses of Parliament of Great Britain has been laid before his Majesty, accompanied by Resolutions, proposing and recommending a complete and entire Union between Great Britain and Ireland, to be established by the mutual Consent of both Parliaments, founded on equal and liberal Principles, on the Similarity of Laws, Constitution and Government, and on a Sense of mutual Interests and Affections. His Majesty will receive the greatest Satisfaction in witnessing the Accomplishment of a System, which by allaying the unhappy Distractions too long prevalent in Ireland, and by promoting the Security, Wealth and Commerce of his respective Kingdoms, must afford them at all Times, and especially in the present Moment, the best Means of jointly opposing an effectual Resistance to the destructive Projects of foreign and domestic Enemies, and his Majesty, as the common Father of his People, must look forward with earnest Anxiety to the Moment, when in Conformity to the Sentiments, Wishes and real Interests of his Subjects in Great Britain and Ireland, they may all be inseparably united in the full Enjoyment of the Blessings of a free Constitution, in the Support of the Honor and Dignity of his Majesty's Crown, and in the Preservation and Advancement of the Welfare and Prosperity of the whole British Empire.

I feel most sensibly the arduous Situation in which I am placed, and the Weight of the Trust which his Majesty has imposed upon me at this most important Crisis; but if I should be so fortunate as to contribute in the smallest Degree to the Success of this great Measure, I shall think the Labours and Anxieties of a Life devoted to the Service of my Country, amply repaid, and shall retire with the conscious Satisfaction, that I have had some Share in averting from his Majesty's Dominions, those Dangers and Calamities which have overspread so large a Portion of Europe.

After which the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, said;

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday the 16th Day of July next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the 16th Day of July next. Parliament prorogued.

His Excellency Charles Marquis Cornwallis, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur, the Marquis of Waterford carrying the Cap of Maintenance, and the Earl of Ormonde the Sword of State, two Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, 'till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

The Lord Chancellor kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and then ſtanding on the right Hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Yeoman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint the Commons, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in this Houſe.

y enter.

And the Commons being come, they with their Speaker were conducted to the Bar with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I HAVE received his Majeſty's Commands to aſſemble you in Parliament.

Upon a Review of the important and glorious Events that have diſtinguiſhed the Period which has elapſed ſince I laſt addreſſed you, the moſt gratifying and encouraging Reflections preſent themſelves to our Conſideration.

By the brilliant Courſe of Victories atchieved by the combined Imperial Armies, the various Kingdoms and States of Italy have been delivered from the Ravages and the Tyranny of the French.

The Throne of Naples, and our friendly Connexion with that Kingdom have been reſtored.

The French Expedition to Egypt has been checked in its Career by the Exertions of the Turkiſh Arms, aſſiſted by a ſmall Detachment of his Majeſty's Forces, and the Gallantry of their heroic Commander.

The hoſtile Plans of the common Enemy in India have terminated in the total Deſtruction of the Power which had been miſled by their Artifices, and through the timely, vigorous and deciſive Counſels of the Marquis Welleſley, and the conſummate Skill and Valor of his Majeſty's Generals, Officers and Troops, the Britiſh Poſſeſſions in that Quarter of the Globe have been beneficially extended and effectually ſecured.

By the Deſcent of his Majeſty's Forces, and of his Ruſſian Allies on the Coaſt of Holland, the Dutch Fleet has been happily reſcued from the Power of the Enemy; and although the Seaſon, peculiarly unfavourable to Military Operations, produced the Neceſſity of relinquiſhing an Enterprize ſo fortunately begun, and prevented the complete Accompliſhment of his Majeſty's Views, yet the Reſult of that Expedition has been peculiarly beneficial to this Kingdom, in removing all Fear of Attack on our Coaſts from a Quarter whence it had been ſo often planned, and in enabling his Majeſty's Fleets to direct their Vigilance excluſively to the ſingle Port from which the Enemy can attack this Country with any Hope even of a temporary Succeſs.

My utmoſt Care has been exerted to carry into Execution the extraordinary Powers which you have committed to my Diſcretion, with Vigor, and at the ſame Time with Moderation. All Tendency to Inſurrection has been effectually repreſſed; but it gives me true Concern to acquaint you, that the painful Neceſſity of acting with Severity has has been too frequently impoſed upon me, and although public Tranquillity has been in a great Meaſure reſtored, yet I have to lament that a Diſpoſition to Outrage and Conſpiracy ſtill continues in ſeveral Diſtricts, that much Induſtry is uſed to keep alive the Spirit of Diſaffection, and to encourage among the lower Claſſes, the Hopes of French Aſſiſtance.

I truſt that the recent Revolution in France cannot fail to open the Eyes of ſuch of his Majeſty's Subjects as have been deluded by the Artifices which have been unremittingly employed to withdraw them from their Allegiance, and that it will reſtore and increaſe the Love of conſtitutional Order and of regulated Freedom, by demonſtrating that the Principles of falſe Liberty tend ultimately to Deſpotiſm, and that the criminal Struggles of Democratic Faction naturally cloſe in Military Uſurpation.

So long as the French Government, under whatever Form it exerts its Influence, ſhall perſevere in Schemes of Deſtruction and Projects of Ambition, ſubverſive at once of the Liberties of Europe, and of the Security of his Majeſty's Dominions, there can be no wiſe Alternative but to proſecute the War with increaſing Energy. It is by great Exertions alone that either their Views of Aggrandizement can be fruſtrated, or a ſolid Peace procured. His Majeſty has therefore availed himſelf with peculiar Satisfaction of the cordial and great Aſſiſtance which has been afforded him by his faithful Ally the Emperor of Ruſſia, and has thought right to make every Exertion for augmenting the diſpoſable Military Force of his own Dominions. His Majeſty therefore has been highly gratified in accepting the Services ſo generouſly offered by his Engliſh Militia, and I am to expreſs to you the entire Confidence which his Majeſty feels, that the Zeal and Loyalty of his Militia of this Kingdom, in forwarding at this important Criſis the active Operations of the Empire, will not be leſs prompt and conſpicuous.

The Apprehenſions of general Scarcity which ſome Time ſince took Place, called for my early Attention to this moſt important Subject, and I was induced with the Advice of the Council to offer Premiums for the early Importation of Grain: This Meaſure, will, I flatter myſelf, meet your Approbation, and I have full Confidence in your Wiſdom, if it ſhall be neceſſary to reſort to any further extraordinary Means for procuring a Supply.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

The evident Neceſſity of ſecuring this Kingdom from every Danger whether foreign or domeſtic, and of rendering the Succeſs of Invaſion, if attempted, impracticable, will demonſtrate to you the Wiſdom of continuing that enlarged Syſtem of Defence you have ſo wiſely adopted.

I have therefore ordered the Public Accounts and Eſtimates for the enſuing Year to be laid before you, and have the fulleſt Confidence that in the Supply which ſuch a Situation ſhall appear to you to require, you will equally conſult the Safety of the Kingdom, and the Honor of his Majeſty's Government,

I am induced to hope that the great Increaſe of the Revenue which has taken Place in the preſent Year, may enable you to raiſe the Sums which may be wanted for the current Services without any diſtreſſing Addition to the Burthens of the People.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I recommend to your uſual Attention the Agriculture, the Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture of Ireland, and I doubt not that the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and thoſe public Inſtitutions, whether of Charity or of Education, which have been protected by your Liberality, will ſtill receive a judicious Encouragement.

It will be for your Wiſdom to conſider how far it will be neceſſary to continue any of thoſe extraordinary Powers with which you have ſtrengthened the Authority of his Majeſty's Government, for the more effectual Suppreſſion and Puniſhment of rebellious Conſpiracy and Outrage.

His Majeſty places the moſt entire Reliance upon your Firmneſs and Wiſdom, and he has no Doubt that you will anxiouſly purſue ſuch Meaſures as ſhall be beſt calculated for bringing the preſent War to an honorable Termination, and for reſtoring the Country to permanent Tranquillity.

It will be my conſtant Object to attend to your Suggeſtions and Advice, that I may by this Means moſt beneficially accompliſh the Commands I have received from his Majeſty, and moſt effectually forward the Intereſts and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered, and the Commons returned to their Houſe. Lord Lieutenant withdraws.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table; ech to printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

olution Addreſs the King.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, nemine diſſentiente, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to beg Leave to approach his Majeſty with the moſt unfeigned Expreſſions of Duty, Loyalty and Attachment to his Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government,

To aſſure his Majeſty, that when we review thoſe important and glorious Events which have taken Place ſince the laſt Seſſion, we are filled with the moſt conſoling Reflections, and humbly congratulate his Majeſty upon the encouraging Proſpects which they preſent before us.

That we cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Admiration of the brilliant Courſe of Victories, which has ſignalized the Atchievements of the combined Imperial Armies in Italy, and has reſcued her States and Kingdoms from the Ravages and the Tyranny of the French.

To congratulate his Majeſty on the Reſtoration of the King of Naples to his lawful Throne, and to a friendly Communication and Connexion with his Majeſty's Kingdoms.

That we have ſeen with true Pleaſure the Progreſs of the French Expedition to Egypt completely checked, and we doubt not, that the Repulſe the Enemy received from the Exertions of the Turkiſh Arms, aided by a ſmall Detachment of his Majeſty's Forces, and the Gallantry of their heroic Commander, will lead to their final Overthrow.

That the truly vigorous and deciſive Counſels of the Marquis Welleſley, and the conſummate Skill and Bravery of his Majeſty's Generals, Officers and Troops in India, excite in us the warmeſt Feelings of Gratitude and Admiration. The hoſtile Plans of the common Enemy have not only been defeated, and the Power which had been miſled by their Artifices deſtroyed; but the Britiſh Poſſeſſions have been advantageouſly extended, and effectually ſecured in that Quarter of the Globe.

That it is a Subject of ſincere Congratulation to his Majeſty's Subjects, that the Dutch Fleet has been reſcued from the Power of the Enemy, by the Deſcent of his Majeſty's Forces and of his Ruſſian Allies on the Coaſt of Holland. And though we muſt lament that the complete Accompliſhment of his Majeſty's Views was prevented by a Seaſon ſo peculiarly unfavourable for Military Operations, we are juſtly ſenſible of the beneficial Conſequences which reſult to this Kingdom from an Expedition ſo fortunately begun. We can no longer fear an Invaſion from a Quarter whence it had been ſo frequently planned; and his Majeſty is enabled to direct the Vigilance of his Fleet to the ſingle Port from which this Kingdom can be attacked with any Hope of even temporary Succeſs.

That we are truly ſenſible of that judicious Union, both of Vigor and Moderation, which has been ſo eminently diſplayed in the Execution of thoſe extraordinary Powers which were committed to his Majeſty's Government. We have ſeen on the one Hand with Satisfaction, that all Tendency to Inſurrection has been completely repreſſed, whilſt on the other, we lament the Neceſſity of that Severity to which his Majeſty's Government has been obliged to reſort; and we cannot repreſs our Indignation when we learn that a Diſpoſition to Outrage and Conſpiracy ſtill exiſts in ſeveral Diſtricts, and that much Induſtry is employed to keep alive the Spirit of Diſaffection among the lower Claſſes, by encouraging the Hopes of French Aſſiſtance.

That we flatter ourſelves however, that the freſh Revolution which has taken Place in France will open the Eyes of the deluded, to the Nature of thoſe Artifices which have been employed to withdraw them from their Allegiance, and will reſtore and increaſe the Love of regular Government and conſtitutional Freedom, by demonſtrating in ſo ſignal an Example, that the Principles of falſe Liberty tend ultimately to Deſpotiſm, and that the criminal Struggles of Democratic Faction naturally terminate in Military Uſurpation.

That we are convinced of his Majeſty's Diſpoſition to Peace, but we are likewiſe ſenſible that it is by great Exertions alone that it can be procured, or the Views of Aggrandizement which are cheriſhed by France, be fruſtrated; and we ſee no wiſe Alternative, but to proſecute the War with increaſing Vigor, ſo long as the Government of that Nation, under whatever Form it exerts its Influence, ſhall perſevere in Schemes of Deſtruction and Projects of Ambition, ſubverſive at once of the Liberties of Europe, and the Security of his Majeſty's Dominions.

That we therefore cannot ſufficiently admire the Wiſdom of his Majeſty's Counſels, which has availed itſelf of the great and cordial Co-operation of his faithful Ally the Emperor of Ruſſia, and has taken ſuch deciſive Meaſures for augmenting the diſpoſ-able Military Force of all his Dominions. That we have ſeen with Satisfaction the Spirit which has animated the Engliſh Militia, and that we doubt not that a ſimilar Ardour, equally prompt and conſpicuous, will be diſplayed by the Militia of this Kingdom, when an Opportunity is preſented them of forwarding at a Criſis ſo important, the active Operations of his Majeſty's Empire.

That we are juſtly ſenſible to the Prudence of thoſe Meaſures, which were early adopted for procuring a Supply of Grain when the Apprehenſion of Scarcity ſo generally prevailed; and we ſhall be happy to concur in ſuch Regulations as may be thought moſt beneficial, ſhould Circumſtances hereafter render any extraordinary Interpoſition of the Legiſlature neceſſary.

That we ſhall pay the fulleſt Attention to the Agriculture, the Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture of Ireland, and ſhall extend our Protection and Care to the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and thoſe public Inſtitutions of Charity and Education which have been ſo long encouraged by the Liberality of Parliament.

That we ſhall not fail to take into our Conſideration the Meaſures which may ſtill be neceſſary for the effectual Suppreſſion and Puniſhment of rebellious Conſpiracy and Outrage; and ſhall be ready to continue thoſe extraordinary Powers which the peculiar Circumſtances of this Kingdom may ſtill render neceſſary.

That we ſhall endeavour to deſerve by our Conduct that Confidence which his Majeſty repoſes in our Counſels, and as his Majeſty has peculiarly pointed our Attention to ſuch Meaſures as are calculated to bring the preſent War to an honorable Termination, and to reſtore Ireland to a State of permanent Security, his Majeſty may rely upon our cordial and zealous Endeavours to effectuate theſe great Objects.

To return his Majeſty our moſt ſincere Thanks for continuing the Marquis Cornwallis in the Government of this Kingdom. His high Military Character, his exalted Virtues, his firm and humane Conduct, peculiarly qualify him for the important Situation he ſo beneficially fills, and which render at once his Adminiſtration ſo honorable to his Majeſty, and ſo acceptable to his People of Ireland.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty;

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the moſt unfeigned Expreſſions of Duty, Loyalty and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government.

When we review thoſe important and glorious Events which have taken Place ſince the laſt Seſſion, we are filled with the moſt conſoling Reflections, and humbly congratulate your Majeſty upon the encouraging Proſpects which they preſent before us.

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Admiration of that brilliant Courſe of Victories which has ſignalized the Atchievements of the combined Imperial Armies in Italy, and has reſcued her States and Kingdoms from the Ravages and the Tyranny of the French.

We congratulate your Majeſty on the Reſtoration of the King of Naples to his lawful Throne, and to a friendly Communication and Connexion with your Majeſty's Kingdoms.

We have ſeen with true Pleaſure the Progreſs of the French Expedition to Egypt completely checked, and we doubt not, that the Repulſe the Enemy received from the Exertions of the Turkiſh Arms, aided by a ſmall Detachment of your Majeſty's Forces, and the Gallantry of their heroic Commander, will tend to their final Overthrow.

The timely, vigorous and deciſive Counſels of the Marquis Welleſley, and the conſummate Skill and Bravery of your Majeſty's Generals, Officers and Troops in India, excite in us the warmeſt Feelings of Gratitude and Admiration.

The hoſtile Plans of the common Enemy have not only been defeated, and the Power which had been miſled by their Artifices deſtroyed, but the Britiſh Poſſeſſions have been advantageouſly extended, and effectually ſecured in that Quarter of the Globe.

It is a Subject of ſincere Gratulation to your Majeſty's Subjects, that the Dutch Fleet has been reſcued from the Power of the Enemy, by the Deſcent of your Majeſty's Forces and of your Ruſſian Allies on the Coaſt of Holland—and though we muſt lament, that the complete Accompliſhment of your Majeſty's Views was prevented by a Seaſon ſo peculiarly unfavourable for military Operations, we are juſtly ſenſible of the beneficial Conſequences which reſult to this Kingdom from an Expedition ſo fortunately begun.—We can no longer fear an Invaſion from a Quarter whence it had been ſo frequently planned, and your Majeſty is enabled to direct the Vigilance of your Fleet to the ſingle Port from which this Kingdom can be attacked with any Hope, even of temporary Succeſs.

We are truly ſenſible of that judicious Union both of Vigor and Moderation which has been ſo eminently diſplayed in the Execution of thoſe extraordinary Powers, which were committed to your Majeſty's Government. We have ſeen on the one Hand with Satisfaction, that all Tendency to Inſurrection has been completely repreſſed, whilſt on the other, we lament the Neceſſity of that Severity to which your Majeſty's Government has been obliged to reſort—and we cannot repreſs our Indignation when we learn that a Diſpoſition to Outrage and Conſpiracy ſtill exiſts in ſeveral Diſtricts, and that much Induſtry is employed to keep alive the Spirit of Diſaffection among the lower Claſſes, by encouraging the Hopes of French Aſſiſtance.

We flatter ourſelves however, that the laſt Revolution which has taken Place in France will open the Eyes of the Deluded, to the Nature of thoſe Artifices which have been employed to withdraw them from their Allegiance, and will reſtore and increaſe the Love of regular Government and conſtitutional Freedom, by demonſtrating in ſo ſignal an Example, that the Principles of falſe Liberty tend ultimately to deſpotiſm, and that the criminal Struggles of democratic Faction naturally terminate in military Uſurpation.

We are convinced of your Majeſty's Diſpoſition to Peace, but we are likewiſe ſenſible that it is by great Exertions alone that it can be procured, or the Views of Aggrandizement, which are cheriſhed by France, be fruſtrated, and we ſee no wiſe Alternative, but to proſecute the War with increaſing Vigor, ſo long as the Government of that Nation, under whatever Form it exerts its Influence, ſhall perſevere in Schemes of Deſtruction and Projects of Ambition, ſubverſive at once of the Liberties of Europe, and the Security of your Majeſty's Dominions.

We therefore cannot ſufficiently admire the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Counſels, which has availed itſelf of the great and cordial Co-operation of your faithful Ally the Emperor of Ruſſia, and has taken ſuch deciſive Meaſures for augmenting the diſpoſable military Force of all your Dominions. We have ſeen with Satisfaction, the Spirit which has animated the Engliſh Militia, and we doubt not, that a ſimilar Ardor, equally prompt and conſpicuous, will be diſplayed by the Militia of this Kingdom, when an Opportunity is preſented them for forwarding at a Criſis ſo important, the active Operations of your Majeſty's Empire.

We are juſtly ſenſible of the Prudence of thoſe Meaſures which were early adopted for procuring a Supply of Grain, when the Apprehenſion of Scarcity ſo generally prevailed, and we ſhall be happy to concur in ſuch Regulations as may be thought moſt beneficial, ſhould Circumſtances hereafter render any extraordinary Interpoſition of the Legiſlature neceſſary.

We ſhall pay the fulleſt Attention to the Agriculture, the Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture of Ireland, and ſhall extend our Protection and Care to the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and thoſe public Inſtitutions of Charity and Education which have been ſo long encouraged by the Liberality of Parliament.

We ſhall not fail to take into our Conſideration the Meaſures which may ſtill be neceſſary for the effectual Suppreſſion and Puniſhment of rebellious Conſpiracy and Outrage, and ſhall be ready to continue thoſe extraordinary Powers which the peculiar Circumſtances of this Kingdom may ſtill render neceſſary.

We ſhall endeavour to deſerve by our Conduct that Confidence which your Majeſty repoſes in our Counſels, and as your Majeſty has peculiarly pointed our Attention to ſuch Meaſures as are calculated to bring the preſent War to an honorable Termination, and to reſtore Ireland to a State of permanent Security.—Your Majeſty may rely upon our cordial and zealous Endeavours to effectuate thoſe great Objects.

We return your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Thanks for continuing the Marquis Cornwallis in the Government of this Kingdom, his high military Character, his exalted Virtues, his firm and humane Conduct, peculiarly qualify him for the important Situation he ſo beneficially fills, and which render at once his Adminiſtration ſo honorable to your Majeſty, and ſo acceptable to your People of Ireland.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order that the ſame may be laid before his Majeſty. to be preſented.

The Lord Glentworth reported from the Lords Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant nant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and alſo read Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe, nemine diſſentiente, as follows, viz:

To his Excellency

CHARLES MARQUIS CORNWALLIS,

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return your Excellency our moſt ſincere Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne.

The Continuation of your Excellency in the Government of this Kingdom, is an additional Proof of his Majeſty's parental Attention to its Security and Proſperity, and under the Protection of your Excellency's eminent Abilities, and the Moderation and Wiſdom of your Adminiſtration, we feel the utmoſt Confidence, that the Safety of Ireland is enſured, and its Intereſts and Welfare protected and confirmed.

We beg Leave moſt cordially to congratulate your Excellency upon the gratifying and encouraging Reflections which preſent themſelves to our Conſideration, upon a Review of the important and glorious Events, that have diſtinguiſhed the Period which has elapſed ſince the laſt Seſſion of Parliament.

When we contemplate the brilliant Courſe of Victories atchieved by the combined Imperial Armies, by which the various Kingdoms and States of Italy have been delivered from the Ravages and the Tyranny of the French.—The Reſtoration of the Throne of Naples, and of our friendly Connexion with that Kingdom; the French Expedition to Egypt checked in its Career, by the Exertion of the Turkiſh Arms, aſſiſted by a ſmall Detachment of his Majeſty's Forces, and the Gallantry of their heroic Commander; the hoſtile Plans of the common Enemy in India terminated in the total Deſtruction of the Power which had been miſled by their Artifices, and through the timely, vigorous, and deciſive Counſels of the Marquis Welleſley, and the conſummate Skill and Valor of his Majeſty's Generals, Officers and Troops, the Britiſh Poſſeſſions in that Quarter of the Globe beneficially extended and effectually ſecured, it is impoſſible not to expreſs our moſt lively Satisfaction at Events ſo glorious, and ſo advantageous to the Intereſts of the Empire, and although the Seaſon, peculiarly unfavorable to military Operations, produced the Neceſſity of relinquiſhing the Enterprize undertaken againſt Holland by his Majeſty's Forces and his Ruſſian Allies, ſo fortunately begun in the reſcue of the Dutch Fleet from the Power of the Enemy, and prevented the complete Accompliſhment of his Majeſty's Views, yet we muſt conſider the Reſult of that Expedition as peculiarly beneficial to this Kingdom, in removing all Fear of Attack on our Coaſt from a Quarter, whence it had been ſo often planned, and in enabling his Majeſty's Fleets to direct their Vigilance excluſively to the ſingle Port from which the Enemy can attack this Country, with any Hope, even of a temporary Succeſs.

We are fully ſenſible of the Care your Excellency has exerted to carry into Execution the extraordinary Powers committed to your Diſcretion, with Vigor, and at the ſame Time with Moderation, and that although the painful Neceſſity of acting with Severity has been often impoſed upon you, yet that you have never reſorted to that Severity but for the moſt ſalutary Purpoſes; and while we lament with your Excellency, that although public Tranquillity has been in a great Meaſure reſtored, a Diſpoſition to Outrage and Conſpiracy ſtill continues in ſeveral Diſtricts, and that much Induſtry is uſed to keep alive the Spirit of Diſaffection, and to encourage among the lower Claſſes the Hopes of French Aſſiſtance, we truſt at the ſame Time, that your Excellency's Perſeverance in the Line of Conduct you have adopted, will finally extinguiſh ſuch Diſpoſitions, and completely reſtore internal Tranquillity.

The late Revolution in France cannot fail to open the Eyes of thoſe who have been deluded by the Artifices, which have been unremittingly employed to withdraw them from their Allegiance, and it certainly muſt tend to reſtore and increaſe the Love of conſtitutional Order and of regulated Freedom, by demonſtrating that the Principles of falſe Liberty tend ultimately to Deſpotiſm, and that the criminal Struggles of democratic Faction naturally cloſe in military Uſurpation.

We feel moſt ſtrongly, that ſo long as the French Government, under whatever Form it exerts its Influence, ſhall perſevere in Schemes of Deſtruction and Projects of Ambition, ſubverſive at once of the Liberties of Europe, and of the Security of his Majeſty's Dominions, there can be no wiſe Alternative, but to proſecute the War with increaſing Energy, and that it is by great Exertions alone, that either their Views of Aggrandizement can be fruſtrated, or a ſolid Peace procured.

We beg Leave to expreſs through your Excellency the Gratitude we entertain for his Majeſty's parental Care at the preſent Criſis, in availing himſelf of the cordial and great Aſſiſtance which has been afforded him by his faithful Ally the Emperor of Ruſſia, and in making every Exertion for augmenting the diſpoſeable military Force of his own Dominions; and we truſt, that the Confidence which his Majeſty feels, that the Zeal and Loyalty of his Militia of this Kingdom, will not be leſs prompt and conſpicuous than that of his Engliſh Militia, will be juſtified by their Offers of Service being equally general, to forward at this important Conjuncture the active Operations of the Empire.

Your Excellency's early Attention to the Apprehenſion of general Scarcity which ſome Time ſince took Place, by which you were induced with the Advice of the Council, to offer Premiums for the early Importation of Grain, not only meets with our Approbation, but is entitled to our moſt grateful Acknowledgments, and your Excellency may be aſſured of our ready Concurrence and Co-operation, if it ſhall be neceſſary to reſort to any farther extraordinary Means for procuring a Supply.

Your Excellency may rely upon our Attention to the Agriculture, the Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture of Ireland, and that the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and the public Inſtitutions, both of Charity and of Education, which we have hitherto protected, ſhall ſtill receive our Encouragement.

We ſhall not fail to take into Conſideration, how far it may be neceſſary to continue thoſe extraordinary Powers with which we ſtrengthened the Authority of his Majeſty's Government, for the more effectual Suppreſſion and Puniſhment of rebellious Conſpiracy and Outrage.

His Majeſty may place the moſt entire Reliance upon our firm and cordial Co-operation and Support, and we think it our Duty anxiouſly to purſue ſuch Meaſures as may be beſt calculated for bringing the preſent War to an honorable Termination, and for reſtoring the Country to permanent Tranquillity.

The Zeal your Excellency has invariably diſplayed in ſecuring the Safety and reſtoring the Tranquillity of this Kingdom, and the Attention you have paid to its Welfare and Proſperity, are Pledges to us of your Continuance in the ſame ſalutary Exertions, and your Excellency may fully rely on our hearty Co-operation in ſuch Meaſures as may moſt beneficially accompliſh the gracious Wiſhes of his Majeſty, and moſt effectually forward the Intereſts and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe. to be preſented.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that he had received a Meſſage from his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, which his Excellency directed him to lay before their Lordſhips, which he read as follows, viz:

CORNWALLIS.

Meſſage from Lord Lieutenant

At the Cloſe of the laſt Seſſion, in obedience to the particular Commands which I received from his Majeſty, I acquainted this Parliament, that a joint Addreſs of the two Houſes of Parliament of Great Britain had been laid before his Majeſty, accompanied by Reſolutions propoſing and recommending a complete and entire Union between Great Britain and Ireland, to be eſtabliſhed by the mutual Conſent of both Parliaments, founded on equal and liberal Principles, on the Similarity of Laws, Conſtitution and Government, and on a Senſe of mutual Intereſts and Affections. relative to Legiſlative Union with Great Britain.

I have it now further in Command from his Majeſty to lay thoſe Reſolutions before this Houſe, and ſolemnly to recommend to the the Conſideration of your Lordſhips the great Objects they embrace.

His Majeſty has obſerved with increaſing Satisfaction, that the Sentiments which have continued to be manifeſted in favor of this important and ſalutary Meaſure, by ſuch numerous and reſpectable Deſcriptions of his Iriſh ſubjects, confirm the Hope he has expreſſed that its Accompliſhment will prove to be as much the joint Wiſh as it unqueſtionably is the Common Intereſt of both his Kingdoms, an Event to which his Majeſty looks forward with the utmoſt Earneſtneſs, as the only Means by which the common Intereſts of all his People can be indiſſolubly united, and their Security and Happineſs can be permanently eſtabliſhed.

His Majeſty therefore relies on the Wiſdom of his Parliaments, and the loyal Concurrence of his People for the Completion of this great Work, with a firm Perſuaſion that a full and unreſerved Participation of conſtitutional and commercial Advantages, will augment and perpetuate the Proſperity of his Subjects of his United Kingdom, and that under the Favor of Divine Providence, the Freedom and Power of the Britiſh Empire will be eſtabliſhed on a Foundation, not to be ſhaken by the Efforts either of its foreign or domeſtic Enemies.

C.

The Lord Chancellor likewiſe, by his Excellency's Direction, laid before the Houſe the ſeveral Papers following:

Reſolutions of both Houſes of Parliament in Great Britain.

Reſolutions of both Houſes of Parliament in Great Britain laid before his Majeſty, with their joint Addreſs of the twenty-ſecond Day of April one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine.

RESOLVED,

That, in order to promote and ſecure the eſſential Intereſts of Great Britain and Ireland, and to conſolidate the Strength, Power and Reſources of the Britiſh Empire, it will be adviſeable to concur in ſuch Meaſures as may beſt tend to unite the two Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland into one Kingdom, in ſuch Manner and on ſuch Terms and Conditions as may be eſtabliſhed by Acts of the reſpective Parliaments of his Majeſty's ſaid Kingdoms.

That, it would be fit to propoſe as the firſt Article to ſerve as a Baſis of the ſaid Union, that the ſaid Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, ſhall upon a Day to be agreed upon, be united into one Kingdom, by the Name of The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

That, for the ſame Purpoſe, it would be fit to propoſe, that the Succeſſion to the Monarchy and the Imperial Crown of the ſaid United Kingdom ſhall continue limited and ſettled in the ſame Manner as the Imperial Crown of the ſaid Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland now ſtands limited and ſettled, according to the exiſting Laws, and to the Terms of the Union between England and Scotland.

That, for the ſame Purpoſe, it would be fit to propoſe, that the ſaid United Kingdom be repreſented in one and the ſame Parliament to be ſtiled The Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and that ſuch a Number of Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and ſuch a Number of Members in the Houſe of Commons as ſhall be hereafter agreed upon by Acts of the reſpective Parliaments as aforeſaid, ſhall ſit and vote in the ſaid Parliament on the Part of Ireland, and ſhall be ſummoned, choſen and returned in ſuch Manner as ſhall be fixed by an Act of Parliament of Ireland previous to the ſaid Union, and that every Member hereafter to ſit and vote in the ſaid Parliament of the United Kingdom, ſhall, until the ſaid Parliament ſhall otherwiſe provide, take and ſubſcribe the ſame Oaths, and make the ſame Declarations as are by Law required to be taken, ſubſcribed and made by the Members of the Parliaments of Great Britain and Ireland.

That for the ſame Purpoſe, it would be fit to propoſe, that the Churches of that Part of Great Britain called England and of that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and of Ireland, and the Doctrine, Worſhip, Diſcipline and Government thereof ſhall be preſerved as now by Law eſtabliſhed.

That, for the ſame Purpoſe, it would be fit to propoſe, that his Majeſty's Subjects in Ireland ſhall at all times hereafter be entitled to the ſame Privileges, and be on the ſame Footing in Reſpect of Trade and Navigation, in all Ports and Places belonging to Great Britain, and in all Caſes with reſpect to which Treaties ſhall be made by his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, with any foreign Power, as his Majeſty's Subjects in Great Britain: that no Duty ſhall be impoſed on the Import or Export between Great Britain and Ireland of any Articles now Duty free; and that on other Articles there ſhall be eſtabliſhed for a Time to be limited, ſuch a moderate Rate of equal Duties as ſhall previous to the Union be agreed upon and approved by the reſpective Parliaments, ſubject after the Expiration of ſuch limited Time to be diminiſhed equally with reſpect to both Kingdoms, but in no Caſe to be increaſed: that all Articles which may at any Time hereafter be imported into Great Britain from foreign Parts, ſhall be importable through either Kingdom into the other, ſubject to the like Duties and Regulations, as if the ſame were imported directly from foreign Parts; that where any Articles, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of either Kingdom, are ſubject to any internal Duty in one Kingdom, ſuch countervailing Duties (over and above any Duties on Import to be fixed as aforeſaid) ſhall be impoſed, as ſhall be neceſſary to prevent any Inequality in that Reſpect: and that all other Matters of Trade and Commerce, other than the foregoing, and than ſuch others as may before the Union, be ſpecially agreed upon, for the due Encouragement of the Agriculture and Manufactures of the reſpective Kingdoms, ſhall remain to be regulated from Time to Time by the United Parliament.

That, for the ſame Purpoſe, it would be fit to propoſe, that the Charge ariſing from the Payment of the Intereſt or Sinking Fund, for the Reduction of the Principal of the Debt incurred in either Kingdom before the Union, ſhall continue to be ſeparately defrayed by Great Britain and Ireland reſpectively; that, for a Number of Years to be limited, the future Expenſes of the United Kingdom in Peace or War, ſhall be defrayed by Great Britain and Ireland jointly, according to ſuch Proportions as ſhall be eſtabliſhed by the reſpective Parliaments previous to the Union; and that, after the Expiration of the Time to be ſo limited, the Mode of jointly defraying ſuch Expenſes ſhall be regulated according to ſuch Rules and Principles as ſhall be in like Manner agreed upon previous to the Union, for the Purpoſe of eſtabliſhing gradually, an uniform Syſtem of Taxation through every Part of the United Kingdom.

That, for the ſame Purpoſe, it would be fit to propoſe, that all Laws in force, at the Time of the Union, and all the Courts of Civil or Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction within the reſpective Kingdoms, ſhall remain as now by Law eſtabliſhed within the ſame, ſubject only to ſuch Alterations or Regulations from Time to Time as Circumſtances may appear to the Parliament of the United Kingdom to require.

We entertain a firm Perſuaſion, that a complete and entire Union between Great Britain and Ireland, founded on equal and liberal Principles, on the Similarity of Laws, Conſtitution and Government, and on a Senſe of mutual Intereſts and Affections, by promoting the Security, Wealth and Commerce of the reſpective Kingdoms, and by allaying the Diſtractions which have unhappily prevailed in Ireland, muſt afford freſh Means of oppoſing at all times an effectual Reſiſtance to the deſtructive Projects of our foreign and Domeſtic Enemies, and muſt tend to confirm and augment the Stability, Power and Reſources of the Empire.

Impreſſed with theſe Conſiderations, we feel it our Duty humbly to lay before your Majeſty ſuch Propoſitions as appear to us beſt calculated to form the Baſis of ſuch a Settlement, leaving it to your Majeſty's Wiſdom, at ſuch Time, and in ſuch Manner as your Majeſty, in your parental Solicitude for the Happineſs of your People ſhall judge fit, to communicate theſe Propoſitions to your Parliament of Ireland, with whom we ſhall be at all Times ready to concur in all ſuch Meaſures as may be found moſt conducive to the Accompliſhment of this great and ſalutary Work. And we truſt that after full and mature Conſideration, ſuch a Settlement may be framed and eſtabliſhed by the deliberative Conſent of the Parliaments of both Kingdoms as may be conformable to the Sentiments, Wiſhes and real Intereſts of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects of Great Britain and Ireland, and may unite them inſeparably in the full Enjoyment of the Bleſſings of our free and invaluable Conſtitution, in the Support of the Honor and Dignity of your Majeſty's Crown, and in the Preſervation and Advancement of the Welfare and Proſperity of the whole Britiſh Empire.

DISSENTIENT.

Proteſts.

1. BECAUSE the Reſolution ſanctions the Principle of a Legiſlative Union between Great Britain and Ireland, without an Opportunity having been afforded to this Houſe of examining the Details which are held out as an Inducement for its Adoption, Details which have occupied the Attention of thoſe who have propoſed the Meaſure for a conſiderable length of Time, and which therefore ſhould not be haſtily, or without due Conſideration acted upon by any Branch of the Legiſlature of Ireland.

2. Becauſe thoſe Details do not appear to us on ſuch Conſideration as we have been allowed to give them, to proffer any Benefits to this Country of which it is not already in Poſſeſſion, or to offer any Remedy for any of the Evils which it at preſent has Reaſon to apprehend.

3. Becauſe the Reſolution propoſes as a Remedy for partial and temporary Evils, an Act, which if once adopted, binds us and our Poſterity for ever.

4. Becauſe we conſider the Independance of Ireland, and the Security of her Connexion with Great Britain to be equally eſſential to the Well-being of this Country, and that we conſider both as endangered by the Meaſure of a Legiſlative Union.

5. Becauſe the preſent Conſtitution of theſe Kingdoms, founded on the complete Unity of their executive Power, and the perfect diſtinctneſs of their Legiſlatures, appears to us as happily contrived, as the limited Natures of human Inſtitutions can admit, to maintain rational Freedom in both Countries, and unalterable Connexion between both.

6. Becauſe the Plan propoſed, whether it be good, or whether it be ill, appears to us calculated to effect a total and fundamental Change in the Conſtitution of Ireland, a Change, which ought not to be ventured on without the unequivocal Approbation of the informed Underſtanding, and reſident Property of the Country, both of which we conſider to be adverſe to the Reception of the Meaſure.

7. Becauſe we conſider the preſent Seaſon of Innovation ill adapted for the Diſcuſſion of new Syſtems of Government, more particularly in this Country, which has only juſt eſcaped from the Revolutionary Projects of foreign and domeſtic Enemies, and in which the ordinary Courſe of Law has been neceſſarily ſuſpended.

8. Becauſe next to the Protection of Divine Providence, we hold this Country indebted for its Preſervation from thoſe Evils, to the Vigilance of its reſident Parliament, and the Loyalty of its reſident Gentry, the former of whom the propoſed Meaſure neceſſarily removes from the Country, and the latter of whom it muſt powerfully operate to withdraw.

9. Becauſe from the Plan laid before us, for conſtituting the Parliaments of the United Kingdoms, it is intended, that four Spiritual and twenty-eight Temporal Lords ſhall be added to the Britiſh Houſe of Lords, conſiſting of upwards of three hundred Members; and that one hundred Repreſentatives for the People of Ireland ſhall be added to the Britiſh Houſe of Commons, conſiſting of five hundred and fifty-eight Members, and that the preſent entire Britiſh Houſes of Parliament, with the ſaid additional Members, ſhall form their United Parliament, from which it is evident, that the entire Power of making Laws and impoſing Taxes, muſt reſide in the preponderating Majority of the Britiſh Members in ſuch Parliament; which Power, though it might without Danger be intruſted to them, if the two Nations were to be ſo perfectly incorporated as to form but one Nation, and to have but one Purſe, as in the Unions between England, Scotland and Wales: Yet in the intended Union, where diſtinct Revenues, diſtinct Taxes and diſtinct Expenſes ſhall continue to exiſt between the two Nations, it muſt leave the Liberties of the Iriſh Nation at the Diſpoſal of ſuch Britiſh Majority, who will make the Laws for the internal Regulation of Ireland, which ſhall not in any Sort affect themſelves, and impoſe Taxes upon that Kingdom, the Preſſure of which they will not feel, it appears to us, that the Exerciſe of ſuch Power muſt neceſſarily produce univerſal Diſcontent, and may poſſibly tend to alienate the Affections of Ireland from Great Britain.

10. And above all, becauſe we conceive, that no Scheme of National Adjuſtment can be honorable, ſatisfactory or permanent, which is not conſidered with mature Deliberation, proſecuted by fair and temperate Means, and founded on the uninfluenced Senſe of Parliament, no one of which eſſential Requiſites can we find in the preſent Project.

DISSENTIENT.

BECAUSE we conſider the Meaſure of an Incorporate Legiſlative Union inadmiſſible. That it exceeds the Lines of Modification, or even of Innovation, leaving in Exiſtence no Principle of our Imperial Conſtitution, as originally and fundamentally eſtabliſhed ſave only that of Unity of Executive for both Kingdoms.

That any Compact founded upon Unity of Executive alone, diveſted of the Protection and Control of a diſtinct, independent, internal Legiſlature, would be ipſo facto, a radical Change from a free balanced Conſtitution, to an abſolute Government of Ireland by the Britiſh Parliament; as the relative Situation of the reſpective Kingdoms in whatever Point of View conſidered, renders it impoſſible for Ireland to derive any Benefit from that Species of Repreſentation, on any Scale of Proportion, which the Objects and Nature of the Imperial Conſtitution of the United Kingdoms can admit of.

It is unneceſſary to ſtate, that the Parliaments of the reſpective Kingdoms as they have ſtood and do ſtand, are not only fully competent to, but the only conſtitutional Organ of, any Explanation or Adjuſtment which may be found neceſſary, for ever effectually to remedy, or to prevent Miſconception or Miſconſtruction as to any Point whatever.

We

We therefore find ourſelves called upon by our Attachment, Duty and Allegiance to our moſt gracious Sovereign, by the Preſervation and Maintenance of the juſt Rights and Liberties of our Country, and by our Affection and Regard to our Siſter Kingdom, to oppoſe in Limine by every legal Means, the Dereliction of a Conſtitution, which during the Period of more than ſix hundred Years has ſtood the Shock of every Event, or the Adoption of a Syſtem, which as it does in no Sort apply to the relative Situation of either Kingdom, could not in its Bearings, Tendencies, Operations and Conſequences, fail of deſtroying the inſeparable joint Intereſts of both.

Meſſage from Commons with Reſolutions reſpecting a Legiſlative Union between Great Britain and Ireland.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Lord Viſcount Caſtlereagh and others, with the following Reſolutions reſpecting a Legiſlative Union between Great Britain and Ireland; to which they deſire the Concurrence of this Houſe.

Then the Meſſengers withdrew,

And the Meſſengers being called in,

The Lord Chancellor acquainted them, that this Houſe will ſend an Anſwer by Meſſengers of their own.

The ſaid Reſolutions were then read as follow, viz:

Reſolved, 1.

That in order to promote and ſecure the eſſential Intereſts of Great Britain and Ireland, and to conſolidate the Strength, Power and Reſources of the Britiſh Empire, it will be adviſable to concur in ſuch Meaſures as may beſt tend to unite the two Kingdoms of of Great Britain and Ireland into one Kingdom, in ſuch Manner, and on ſuch Terms and Conditions as may be eſtabliſhed by the Acts of the reſpective Parliaments of Great Britain and Ireland.

Reſolved, 2.

That for the Purpoſe of eſtabliſhing an Union, upon the Baſis ſtated in the Reſolutions of the two Houſes of the Parliament of Great Britain, communicated by his Majeſty's Command in the Meſſage ſent to this Houſe by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, it would be fit to propoſe as the firſt Article of Union, that the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland ſhall upon the firſt Day of January, which ſhall be in the Year of our LORD one thouſand eight hundred and one, and for ever after, be united into one Kingdom, by the Name of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and that the Royal Stile and Titles appertaining to the Imperial Crown of the ſaid United Kingdom and its Dependencies, and alſo the Enſigns, Armorial Flags and Banners thereof, ſhall be ſuch as his Majeſty by his Royal Proclamation under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom ſhall be pleaſed to appoint.

Reſolved, 3.

That for the ſame Purpoſe it would be fit to propoſe, that the Succeſſion to the Imperial Crown of the ſaid United Kingdom, and of the Dominions thereunto belonging, ſhall continue limited and ſettled in the ſame Manner, as the Succeſſion to the Imperial Crown of the ſaid Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland now ſtands limited and ſettled, according to the exiſting Laws, and to the Terms of the Union between England and Scotland.

Reſolved, 4.

That for the ſame Purpoſe it would be fit to propoſe, that the ſaid United Kingdom be repreſented in one and the ſame Parliament, to be ſtiled the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Reſolved, 5.

That for the ſame Purpoſe it would be fit to propoſe, that the Charge ariſing from the Payment of the Intereſt and Sinking Fund, for the Reduction of the Principal of the Debt incurred in either Kingdom before the Union, ſhall continue to be ſeparately defrayed by Great Britain and Ireland reſpectively.

That for the Space of twenty Years after the Union ſhall take Place, the Contribution of Great Britain and Ireland reſpectively, towards the Expenditure of the United Kingdom in each Year, ſhall be defrayed in the Proportion of fifteen Parts for Great Britain and two Parts for Ireland, that at the Expiration of the ſaid twenty Years, the future Expenditure of the United Kingdom, other than the Intereſt and Charges of the Debt to which either Country ſhall be ſeparately liable, ſhall be defrayed in ſuch Proportion as the United Parliament ſhall deem juſt and reaſonable, upon a Compariſon of the real Value of the Exports and Imports of the reſpective Countries, upon an Average of the three Years next preceding the Period of Reviſion, or on a Compariſon of the Value of the Quantities of the following Articles conſumed within the reſpective Countries, on a ſimilar Average, viz. Beer, Spirits, Sugar, Wine, Tea, Tobacco and Malt; or according to the aggregate Proportion reſulting from both theſe Conſiderations combined, or on a Compariſon of the Amount of Income in each Country, eſtimated from the Produce for the ſame Periods of a general Tax, if ſuch ſhall have been impoſed on the ſame Deſcriptions of Income in both Countries, and that the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall afterwards proceed in like Manner, to reviſe and fix the ſaid Proportions according to the ſame Rules or any of them, at Periods not more diſtant than twenty Years, nor leſs than ſeven Years from each other, unleſs previous to any ſuch Period the United Parliament ſhall have declared as herein after provided, that the general Expenſes of the Empire ſhall be defrayed indiſcriminately by equal Taxes, impoſed on the like Articles in both Countries.

Reſolved, 6.

That for the defraying the ſaid Expenſes, according to the Rules above laid down, the Revenues of Ireland ſhall hereafter conſtitute a Conſolidated Fund, upon which Charges equal to the Intereſt of her Debt and Sinking Fund, ſhall, in the firſt Inſtance, be charged, and the Remainder ſhall be applied towards defraying the Proportion of the general Expenſe of the United Kingdom, to which Ireland may be liable in each Year.

That the Proportion of Contribution to which Great Britain and Ireland will by theſe Articles be liable, ſhall be raiſed by ſuch Taxes in each Kingdom reſpectively, as the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall from Time to Time deem fit, provided always, that in regulating the Taxes in each Country by which their reſpective Proportion ſhall be levied, no Article in Ireland ſhall be liable to be taxed to any Amount exceeding that which will be thereafter payable in England on the like Article.

Reſolved, 7.

That if at the End of any Year, any Surplus ſhall accrue from the Revenues of Ireland, after defraying the Intereſt, Sinking Fund, and proportioned Contribution, and ſeparate Charges to which the ſaid Country is liable, either Taxes ſhall be taken off to the Amount of ſuch Surplus, or the Surplus ſhall be applied by the United Parliament to local Purpoſes in Ireland, or to make good any Deficiency which may ariſe in her Revenues in Time of Peace, or be inveſted by the Commiſſioners of the national Debt of Ireland in the Funds, to accumulate for the Benefit of Ireland, at compound Intereſt, in Eaſe of her Contribution in Time of War. Provided the Surplus ſo to accumulate, ſhall at no future Period be ſuffered to exceed the Sum of five Millions.

Reſolved, 8.

That all Monies hereafter to be raiſed by Loan in Peace or War, for the Service of the United Kingdom by the Parliament thereof, ſhall be conſidered to be a joint Debt, and the Charges thereof ſhall be borne by the reſpective Countries in the Proportion of their reſpective Contributions. Provided, that if at any Time in raiſing the reſpective Contributions hereby fixed for each Kingdom, the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall judge it fit, to raiſe a greater Proportion of ſuch reſpective Contributions in one Kingdom within the Year than in the other, or to ſet apart a greater Proportion of Sinking Fund for the Liquidation of the Whole, or any Part of the Loan raiſed on Account of the one Country than of that raiſed on Account of the other Country, then ſuch Part of the ſaid Loan for the Liquidation of which different Proviſions have been made for the reſpective Countries, ſhall be kept diſtinct, and ſhall be borne by each ſeparately, and only that Part of the ſaid Loan be deemed joint and common, for the Reduction of which, the reſpective Countries ſhall have made Proviſion in the Proportion of their reſpective Contributions.

Reſolved, 9.

That if at any future Day, the ſeparate Debt of each Kingdom reſpectively ſhall have been liquidated, or the Values of their reſpective Debts (eſtimated according to the Amount of the Intereſt and Annuities attending the ſame, of the Sinking Fund applicable to the Reduction thereof, and the Period within which the whole Capital of ſuch Debt ſhall appear to be redeemable by ſuch Sinking Fund) ſhall be to each other, in the ſame Proportion with the reſpective Contributions of each Kingdom reſpectively, or where the Amount by which the Value of the larger of ſuch Debts ſhall vary from ſuch Proportion, ſhall not exceed one hundredth Part of the ſaid Value; and if it ſhall appear to the United Parliament, that the reſpective Circumſtances of the two Countries will thenceforth admit of their contributing indiſcriminately, by equal Taxes impoſed on the ſame Articles in each, to the future general Expenſe of the United Kingdom, it ſhall be competent to the ſaid United Parliament to declare, that all future Expenſes thenceforth to be incurred, together with the Intereſt and Charges of all joint Debts, contracted previous to ſuch Declaration, ſhall be ſo defrayed indiſcriminately by equal Taxes impoſed on the ſame Articles in each Country, and thenceforth from Time to Time, as Circumſtances may require to impoſe and apply ſuch Taxes accordingly, ſubject only to ſuch particular Exemptions or Abatements in Ireland, and that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, as Circumſtances may appear from Time to Time to demand, that from the Period of ſuch Declaration, it ſhall no longer be neceſſary to regulate the Contribution of the two Countries towards the future general Expenſes, according to any ſpecific Proportion, or according to any of the Rules herein before provided. Provided nevertheleſs, that the Intereſt or Charges which may remain on Account of any Part of the ſeparate Debt with which either Country is chargeable, and which ſhall not be liquidated or conſolidated proportionably as above, ſhall, until extinguiſhed, continue to be defrayed by ſeparate Taxes in each Country.

Reſolved, 10.

That a Sum not leſs than the Sum which has been granted by the Parliament of Ireland, on the Average of the laſt ſix Years, as Premiums for the internal Encouragement of Agriculture or Manufacture, or for the maintaining Inſtitutions for pious and charitable Purpoſes, ſhall be applied for the Period of twenty Years after the Union to ſuch local Purpoſes, in ſuch Manner as the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall direct.

Reſolved, 11.

That from and after the firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, all public Revenue ariſing from the territorial Dependencies of the United Kingdom, ſhall be applied to the general Expenditure of the Empire, in the Proportions of the reſpective Contributions of the two Countries.

Reſolved, 12.

That for the ſame Purpoſe it would be fit to propoſe, that Lords Spiritual of Ireland, and Lords Temporal of Ireland, ſhall be the Number to ſit and vote on the Part of Ireland in the Houſe of of Lords of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, and one hundred Commoners (two for each County of Ireland, two for the City of Dublin, two for the City of Cork, one for the Univerſity of Trinity College, and one for each of the thirty-one moſt conſiderable Cities, Towns and Boroughs) be the Number to ſit and vote on the Part of Ireland, in the Houſe of Commons in the Parliament of the United Kingdom.

Reſolved, 13.

That ſuch Act as ſhall be paſſed in the Parliament of Ireland previous to the Union, to regulate the Mode by which the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and the Commons to ſerve in the Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Ireland, ſhall be ſummoned or returned to the ſaid Parliament, ſhall be conſidered as forming Part of the Treaty of Union, and ſhall be incorporated in the Act of the reſpective Parliaments, by which the ſaid Union ſhall be ratified and eſtabliſhed.

Reſolved, 14.

That all Queſtions touching the Election of Members to ſit on the Part of Ireland in the Houſe of Commons of the United Kingdom, ſhall be heard and decided in the ſame Manner as Queſtions touching ſuch Elections in Great Britain now are, or at any Time hereafter ſhall by Law be heard and decided, ſubject nevertheleſs, to ſuch particular Regulations in Reſpect of Ireland, as from local Circumſtance the Parliament of the ſaid United Kingdom may from Time to Time deem expedient.

Reſolved, 15.

That the Qualifications in Reſpect of Property of the Members elected on the Part of Ireland to ſit in the Houſe of Commons of the United Kingdom, ſhall be reſpectively the ſame as are now provided by Law, in the Caſes of Elections for Counties and Cities and Boroughs reſpectively, in that Part of Great Britain called England, unleſs any other Proviſion ſhall hereafter be made in that Reſpect by Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom.

Reſolved, 16.

That when his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, ſhall declare his, her or their Pleaſure, for holding the firſt or any ſubſequent Parliament of the United Kingdom, a Proclamation ſhall iſſue under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, to cauſe the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons who are to ſerve in the Parliament thereof on the Part of Ireland, to be returned in ſuch Manner as by any Act of this preſent Seſſion of the Parliament of Ireland ſhall be provided, and that the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons of Great Britain, ſhall, together with the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons ſo returned as aforeſaid, on the Part of Ireland, conſtitute the two Houſes of Parliament of the United Kingdom.

Reſolved, 17.

That if his Majeſty on or before the firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, on which Day the Union is to take Place, ſhall declare under the Great Seal of Great Britain, that it is expedient that the Lords and Commons of the preſent Parliament of Great Britain, ſhould be the Members of the reſpective Houſes of the firſt Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Great Britain, then the ſaid Lords and Commons of the preſent Parliament of Great Britain, ſhall accordingly be the Members of the reſpective Houſes of the firſt Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Great Britain, and they, together with the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons ſo ſummoned and returned as above on the Part of Ireland, ſhall be the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons of the firſt Parliament of the United Kingdom, and ſuch firſt Parliament, may (in that Caſe) if not ſooner diſſolved, continue to ſit ſo long as the preſent Parliament of Great Britain may now by Law continue to ſit, if not ſooner diſſolved, and that every one of the Lords of Parliament of the United Kingdom, and every Member of the Houſe of Commons of the United Kingdom in the firſt and all ſucceeding Parliaments, ſhall until the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall otherwiſe provide, take the Oaths, and make and ſubſcribe the Declaration which are at preſent by Law enjoined to be taken, made and ſubſcribed by the Lords and Commons of the Parliament of Great Britain.

Reſolved, 18.

That for the ſame Purpoſe it would be fit to propoſe, that the Churches of that Part of Great Britain called England and of Ireland, ſhould be united into one Church, and the Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Deans and Clergy of the Churches of England and Ireland, ſhall from Time to Time be ſummoned to, and entitled to ſit in Convocation of the United Church in the like Manner, and ſubject to the ſame Regulations as are at preſent by Law eſtabliſhed, with Reſpect to the like Orders of the Church of England, and the Doctrine, Worſhip, Diſcipline and Government of the ſaid United Church, ſhall be preſerved as now by Law eſtabliſhed for the Church of England, and the Doctrine,

Worſhip, Diſcipline and Government of the Church of Scotland, ſhall likewiſe be preſerved as now by Law eſtabliſhed for the Church of Scotland. And that the Continuance and Preſervation for ever of the ſaid United Church, as the eſtabliſhed Church of that Part of the United Kingdom called England and Ireland, ſhall be deemed and taken to be an eſſential and fundamental Condition of the Treaty of Union.

Reſolved, 19.

That for the ſame Purpoſe, all Laws in force at the Time of the Union, and all Courts of Civil and Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction within the reſpective Kingdoms, ſhall remain as now by Law eſtabliſhed, ſubject only to ſuch Alterations and Regulations from Time to Time, as Circumſtances may appear to the Parliament of the United Kingdom to require, Provided, that all Writs of Error and Appeals depending at the Time of the Union, or hereafter to be brought, and which might now be finally decided by the Houſe of Lords of either Kingdom, ſhall from and after the Union be finally decided by the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom; and provided, that from and after the Union there ſhall remain in Ireland an Inſtance Court of Admiralty, for the Determination of Cauſes, Civil and Maritime only, and that all Laws at preſent in force in either Kingdom, which ſhall be contrary to any of the Proviſions which may be enacted by any Act for carrying this Article into Effect, be from and after the Union repealed.

Reſolved, 20.

That for the ſame Purpoſe it would be fit to propoſe, that his Majeſty's Subjects of Great Britain and Ireland ſhall, from and after the firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, be entitled to the ſame Privileges, and be on the ſame Footing as to Encouragements and Bounties on the like Articles, being the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of either Kingdom, reſpectively and generally in Reſpect of Trade and Navigation, in all Ports and Places in the United Kingdom and its Dependencies, and that in all Treaties made by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, with any foreign Power, his Majeſty's Subjects of Ireland ſhall have the ſame Privileges, and be on the ſame Footing as his Majeſty's Subjects of Great Britain.

Reſolved, 21.

That from the firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, all Prohibitions and Bounties on the Export of Articles the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of either Country to the other ſhall ceaſe and determine, and that the ſaid Articles ſhall thenceforth be exported from one Country to the other, without Duty or Bounty on ſuch Export.

Reſolved, 22.

That all Articles, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of either Kingdom, not herein after enumerated as ſubject to ſpecific Duties, ſhall from henceforth be imported into each Country from the other free from Duty, other than ſuch countervailing Duty as ſhall be annexed to the ſeveral Articles contained in the Schedule No. 1.—And that the Articles herein after enumerated, ſhall be ſubject for the Period of twenty Years from the Union, on Importation into each Country from the other, to the Duties ſpecified in the Schedule No. 2, annexed to this Article, viz:

A Petition of the Cotton Manufacturers, whoſe Names are thereunto ſubſcribed, ſetting forth, that upon the moſt exact Scrutiny, it appears, that there are or have been uſually employed within this Kingdom in the various Branches of ſaid Manufacture, thirteen Spinning-mills and twenty-three Printing-grounds, together with a conſiderable Quantity of other Machinery, in the eſtabliſhing whereof, has been expended by the Petitioners and others, a Sum exceeding two hundred thouſand Pounds. Petition of Cotton Manufacturers,

That the ſaid Manufactures give Support to not leſs than fifty thouſand Perſons, and occupy a ſtated Capital of at leaſt half a Million Sterling.

That the Perſons carrying on this Trade, were encouraged to engage therein by the Exiſtence of certain Duties on the Import of Cotton Manufactures into this Kingdom, and under the Perſuaſion that the Faith of Parliament, founded on the acknowledged Utility and Wiſdom of ſuch Duties, was pledged to their Permanency.

That the Petitioners beg Leave to aſſure this Right Honorable Houſe, that the Exiſtence and Permanency of Duties ſufficiently protecting, can alone ſecure to this Country a continued Cotton Manufacture, a Trade which the Petitioners conceive will appear on Inquiry, to be of the utmoſt Importance to the general Commerce, Induſtry and eſſential Intereſts of this Kingdom.

Impoſition in the Prices paid for this Article, by the Extent of the Trade, and the conſequent Competition among the Manufacturers in the Home Market.

1. BECAUSE that in the preſent awful State of Affairs, when the moſt unremitting Induſtry is made uſe of to unhinge every eſtabliſhed Government in Europe, when revolutionary Principles have produced the overthrow of ſeveral antient eſtabliſhed Governments, we think every loyal Subject who regards the Liberties of his Country, called upon to rally round the Conſtitution and to preſerve its Stability, we therefore cannot help proteſting againſt the Raſhneſs of the Miniſter, who in ſuch Times hazards the Experiment of annihilating that Conſtitution which has for ſo many Ages maintained the Connexion between Great Britain and Ireland, and of ſubſtituting in its ſtead, in Oppoſition to the general Voice of the Nation, a new Syſtem totally ſubverſive of every fundamental Principle of that Conſtitution, which we conſider as the beſt Security for thoſe Liberties which the Subjects of Ireland now enjoy.

2. Becauſe however willing we now are, and always have been to contribute in proportion to our Means, to the Support and Defence of the Empire, we hold it our bounden Duty before that we ſhall irrevocably enter into any Engagement, to take upon ourſelves any particular Proportion of the Expenſes of the Empire, to aſcertain the probable Amount of ſuch Proportion, to inquire into the Ability of Ireland to diſcharge the ſame, and to examine, whether ſuch Part be proportionate to the relative Abilities of the two Nations. Upon ſuch enquiry we find, that the Expenſe incurred by Great Britain in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine, amounted to upwards of thirty-two Millions, and that which was incurred by Ireland in the ſaid Year, amounted to upwards of ſix Millions, two ſeventeenths of which Sums, (the propoſed Proportion) amount to upwards of four Millions four hundred thouſand Pounds, which Sum added to the preſent Intereſt of the Debt incurred by Ireland, and the Diſcharge of her Annuities, amounting to one Million four hundred thouſand Pounds, and the Intereſt of the Loan of this Year, amounting to about two hundred and fifty thouſand Pounds, will make the annual Charge upon Ireland to amount to ſix Millions fifty thouſand Pounds, it appears to us, that the Produce of our Revenue, including the eſtimated Amount of the Taxes laid on this Seſſion, do not exceed two Millions eight hundred thouſand Pounds, and conſequently, they will fall ſhort by three Millions two hundred and fifty thouſand Pounds of the Sum neceſſary to diſcharge ſuch proportionate Part of the Expenſes of the Empire. In order to aſcertain the relative Abilities of the two Nations, their reſpective Balances of Trade with the whole World have been compared, and it appears from thence, that ſuch Balance in favor of Great Britain amounts to the Sum of fourteen Millions eight hundred thouſand Pounds, and that ſuch Balance in favor of Ireland according to the Returns laid before this Houſe, amount to the ſum of five hundred and nine thouſand three hundred and twelve Pounds, taking therefore the Balance of Trade as a Criterion of Ability, the proportion would be as twenty-nine to one. Enquiry likewiſe having been made into the current Caſh in Circulation in both Kingdoms, it appears, that in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy ſeven, the current Caſh in Great Britain was calculated at forty-three Millions nine hundred and fifty Pounds, and it is computed by Perſons the beſt informed upon that Subject in this Kingdom, that the current Caſh in Ireland may now amount to between three Millions and three Millions and an half, taking it therefore at the latter, the Proportion ſhould be at twelve to one. Conſidering it in another very eſſential Point of View, the Influx and Efflux of Money into the reſpective Kingdoms, it appears that Great Britain receives by Remittances to Perſons having Property in the Eaſt and Weſt Indies who reſide in Great Britain four Millions Sterling, we do not know of any Influx of Money into Ireland, ſave that of five hundred and nine thouſand three hundred and twelve Pounds, the Balance of her Trade, and it appears to us, that ſhe annually remits to Great Britain on Account of her Debts, the Sum of ſeven hundred and twenty thouſand Pounds, and on Account of the Pay of three thouſand two hundred and thirty-four Men ſerving in Great Britain, the Sum of one hundred and one thouſand five hundred and ſeventy Pounds. Theſe annual Drains, together with the Remittances to Abſentees, (probably little ſhort of two Millions) we conſider to have occaſioned the high Rate of Exchange with Great Britain during the laſt twelve Months, from three to five per Cent. above Par, notwithſtanding that during that Period, three Millions have been borrowed in Great Britain and remitted to Ireland. We do not know of any Fund to reſort to for raiſing the ſaid Deficiency of three Millions two hundred and fifty thouſand Pounds, ſave by Taxation, an Addition to which cannot, in any conſiderable Degree be ſupported, and by reſorting to her Landed Property, the groſs Contents of which, being but eleven Million Plantation Acres, we cannot eſtimate at more than the annual Rent of five Millions five hundred thouſand Pounds. We obſerve, that the large Sums of Money borrowed by Ireland within theſe four Years, have been for the moſt Part raiſed in Great Britain, owing to the total Diſability of procuring them in Ireland. The facility of raiſing Money in Great Britain, and the Difficulty found in raiſing any in Ireland, clearly demonſtrates the Opulence of the one Nation and the Poverty of the other. Under ſuch Circumſtances, it appears to us, that if this Kingdom ſhould take upon herſelf irrevocably the Payment of two ſeventeenths of ſuch Expenſes, ſhe will not have Means to perform her Engagement, unleſs by charging her landed Property with twelve or thirteen Shillings in the Pound, it muſt end, in the draining from her, her laſt Guinea, in totally annihilating her Trade for want of Capital, in rendering the Taxes unproductive, and conſequently, in finally putting her into a State of Bankruptcy. We think ourſelves called upon to proteſt againſt a Meaſure ſo ruinous to this Country, and to place the Reſponſibility for its Conſequences upon ſuch Perſons as have brought it forward and ſupported it.

For theſe Reaſons, and believing the above Statement to be accurate, we thus record our Diſſent.

3 For theſe and many other Reaſons, too tedious and too obvious to be here dwelt upon, we have deemed it our bounden Duty both to ourſelves and to our Deſcendants, thus publickly to declare our Diſſent from thoſe Reſolutions, approving of the Meaſure of a Legiſlative Union, which have paſſed this Houſe. Calling on our lateſt Poſterity, to entreat that in Virtue of this our ſolemn Declaration, they will acquit us of having been in anywiſe Inſtrumental to their Degradation, and to the Ruin of that Country which they may hereafter inhabit.

Meſſage to Commons for Concurrence to Amendments.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Weſtby and Mr. Walker, two of the Maſters in Chancery, to acquaint the Commons, that this Houſe hath agreed to the Reſolutions of that Houſe of the twenty-firſt of March Inſtant, relative to a Legiſlative Union between this Kingdom and Great Britain, with ſeveral Amendments, to which the Lords deſire the Concurrence of the Commons. And that the Lords have agreed to the ſaid Reſolutions in the following Order, to which Order the Lords alſo deſire the Concurrence of the Commons.

Reſolved,

That in order to promote and ſecure the eſſential Intereſts of Great Britain and Ireland, and to conſolidate the Strength, Power and Reſources of the Britiſh Empire, it will be adviſeable to concur in ſuch Meaſures as may beſt tend to unite the two Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland into one Kingdom, in ſuch Manner and on ſuch Terms and Conditions as may be eſtabliſhed by the Acts of the reſpective Parliaments of Great Britain and Ireland.

Reſolved,

That for the Purpoſe of eſtabliſhing an Union upon the Baſis ſtated in the Reſolutions of the two Houſes of the Parliament of Great Britain, communicated by his Majeſty's Command in the Meſſage ſent to this Houſe by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, it would be fit to propoſe as The Firſt Article of Union, that the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, ſhall upon the firſt Day of January, which ſhall be in the Year of our LORD one thouſand eight hundred and one, and for ever after, be united into one Kingdom, by the Name of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and that the Royal Stile and Titles appertaining to the Imperial Crown of the ſaid United Kingdom and its Dependencies, and alſo, the Enſigns, Armorial, Flags and Banners thereof, ſhall be ſuch, as his Majeſty by his Royal Proclamation under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, ſhall be pleaſed to appoint.

Reſolved,

That for the ſame Purpoſe it would be fit to propoſe, as the Second Article of Union, that the Succeſſion to the Imperial Crown of the ſaid United Kingdom, and of the Dominions thereunto belonging, ſhall continue limited and ſettled in the ſame Manner, as the Succeſſion to the Imperial Crown of the ſaid Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland now ſtands limited and ſettled, according to the exiſting Laws, and to the Terms of the Union between England and Scotland.

Reſolved,

That for the ſame Purpoſe it would be fit to propoſe, as The Third Article of Union, that the ſaid United Kingdom be repreſented in one and the ſame Parliament, to be ſtiled the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Reſolved,

That for the ſame Purpoſe it would be fit to propoſe, as The Fourth Article of Union, that four Lords Spiritual of Ireland, by Rotation of Seſſions, and twenty-eight Lords Temporal of Ireland, elected for Life by the Peers of Ireland, ſhall be the Number to ſit and vote on the Part of Ireland, in the Houſe of Lords of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, and one hundred Commoners, (two for each County of Ireland, two for the City of Dublin, two for the City of Cork, one for the Univerſity of Trinity College, and one for each of the thirty-one moſt conſiderable Cities, Towns and Boroughs) be the Number to ſit and vote on the Part of Ireland, in the Houſe of Commons in the Parliament of the United Kingdom.

That ſuch Act as ſhall be paſſed in the Parliament of Ireland previous to the Union, "to regulate the Mode by which the Lords "Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons "to ſerve in the Parliament of the United "Kingdom on the Part of Ireland, ſhall be "ſummoned or returned to the ſaid Parlia-"ment," ſhall be conſidered as forming Part of the Treaty of Union, and ſhall be incorporated in the Act of the reſpective Parliaments, by which the ſaid Union ſhall be ratified and eſtabliſhed.

That all Queſtions touching the Rotation or Election of Lords Spiritual or Temporal of Ireland to ſit in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, ſhall be decided by the Houſe of Lords thereof; and whenever there ſhall be an Equality of Votes in the Election of any ſuch Lords Temporal, the Names of ſuch Peers as have an equal Number of Votes in their Favor, ſhall be written on Pieces of Paper of a ſimilar Form, and ſhall be put into a Glaſs by the Clerk of the Parliament at the Table of the Houſe of Lords, whilſt the Houſe is ſitting, and the Peer whoſe Name ſhall be firſt drawn out by the Clerk of the Parliament ſhall be deemed the Peer elected.

That any Perſon holding any Peerage of Ireland now ſubſiſting or hereafter to be created, ſhall not thereby be diſqualified from being elected to ſerve for any County, City or Borough of Great Britain in the Houſe of Commons of the United Kingdom, unleſs he ſhall have been previouſly elected as above to ſit in the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom, but that ſo long as ſuch Peer of Ireland ſhall ſo continue to be a Member of the Houſe of Commons, he ſhall not be entitled to the Privilege of Peerage, nor be capable of being elected to ſerve as a Peer on the Part of Ireland, or of voting at any ſuch Election, and that he ſhall be liable to be ſued, indicted, proceeded againſt, and tried as a Commoner for any Offence with which he may be charged.

That it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to create Peers of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, and to make Promotions in the Peerage thereof after the Union, provided that no new Creation of any ſuch Peers ſhall take Place after the Union, until three of the Peerages of Ireland which ſhall have been exiſting at the Time of the Union ſhall have become extinct, and upon ſuch Extinction of three Peerages, that it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to create one Peer of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, and in like Manner, ſo often as three Peerages of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland ſhall become extinct, it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to create one other Peer of the ſaid Part of the United Kingdom, and if it ſhall happen, that the Peers of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, ſhall by Extinction of Peerages or otherwiſe, be reduced to the Number of one hundred, excluſive of ſuch Peers of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, as ſhall be Peers of Great Britain or the United Kingdom, then, and in that Caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to create one Peer of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, when ever any one of ſuch one hundred Peerages ſhall have failed by Extinction or otherwiſe, it being the true Intent and Meaning of this Article, that at all Times after the Union, it ſhall and may be lawful to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to keep up the excluſive Peerage of that Part of the ſaid United Kingdom called Ireland to the Number of one hundred.

That if any Peerage ſhall at any Time be in Abeyance, ſuch Peerage ſhall be deemed and taken as an exiſting Peerage, and no Peerage ſhall be deemed extinct, unleſs on Default of Claimants to the Inheritance of ſuch Peerage for the Space of one Year from the Death of the Perſon who ſhall have been laſt poſſeſſed thereof, and if no Claim ſhall be made to the Inheritance of ſuch Peerage, in ſuch Form and Manner, as may from Time to Time be preſcribed by the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom, before the Expiration of the ſaid Period of a Year, then, and in that Caſe, ſuch Peerage ſhall be deemed extinct. Provided that nothing herein ſhall exclude any Perſon from afterwards putting in a Claim to the Peerage ſo deemed extinct, and if ſuch Claim ſhall be allowed as valid by Judgment of the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom, reported to his Majeſty, ſuch Peerage ſhall be conſidered as revived, and in Caſe any new Creation of a Peerage of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, ſhall have taken Place in the Interval in Conſequence of the ſuppoſed Extinction of ſuch Peerage, then no new Right of Creation ſhall accrue to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, in Conſequence of the next Extinction which ſhall take Place of any Peerage of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland.

That all Queſtions touching the Election of Members to ſit on the Part of Ireland in the Houſe of Commons of the United Kingdom, ſhall be heard and decided in the ſame Manner as Queſtions touching ſuch Elections in Great Britain now are, or at any Time hereafter ſhall by Law be heard and decided, ſubject, nevertheleſs to ſuch particular Regulations in Reſpect of Ireland, as from local Circumſtances the Parliament of the ſaid United Kingdom may from Time to Time deem expedient.

That the Qualifications in Reſpect of Property of the Members elected on the Part of Ireland to ſit in the Houſe of Commons of the United Kingdom, ſhall be reſpectively the ſame, as are now provided by Law in the Caſes of Elections for Counties and Cities, and Boroughs reſpectively in that Part of Great Britain called England, unleſs any other Proviſion ſhall hereafter be made in that Reſpect by Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom.

That when his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, ſhall declare his, her or their Pleaſure, for holding the firſt or any ſubſequent Parliament of the United Kingdom, a Proclamation ſhall iſſue under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, to cauſe the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, who are to ſerve in the Parliament thereof on the Part of Ireland, to be returned in ſuch Manner as by any Act of this preſent Seſſion of the Parliament of Ireland ſhall be provided, and that the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons of Great Britain ſhall, together with the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons ſo returned as aforeſaid, on the Part of Ireland, conſtitute the two Houſes of Parliament of the United Kingdom.

That if his Majeſty, on or before the firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, on which Day the Union is to take Place, ſhall declare under the Great Seal of Great Britain, that it is expedient, that the Lords and Commons of the preſent Parliament of Great Britain, ſhould be the Members of the reſpective Houſes of the firſt Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Great Britain, then the ſaid Lords and Commons of the preſent Parliament of Great Britain

Britain, ſhall accordingly be the Members of the reſpective Houſes of the firſt Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Great Britain, and they, together with the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons ſo ſummoned and returned as above on the Part of Ireland, ſhall be the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons of the firſt Parliament of the United Kingdom, and ſuch firſt Parliament may, (in that Caſe) if not ſooner diſſolved, continue to ſit ſo long as the preſent Parliament of Great Britain may now by Law continue to ſit, if not ſooner diſſolved, and that every one of the Lords of Parliament of the United Kingdom, and every Member of the Houſe of Commons of the United Kingdom, in the firſt and all ſucceeding Parliaments, ſhall until the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall otherwiſe provide, take the Oaths, and make and ſubſcribe the Declaration, which are at preſent by Law enjoined to be taken, made and ſubſcribed by the Lords and Commons of the Parliament of Great Britain.

That the Lords of Parliament on the Part of Ireland in the Houſe of Lords of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, ſhall at all Times have the ſame Privileges of Parliament, which ſhall belong to the Lords of Parliament on the Part of Great Britain, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal reſpectively on the Part of Ireland ſhall at all Times, have the ſame Rights in reſpect of their ſitting and voting upon the Trial of Peers, as the Lords Spiritual and Temporal reſpectively on the Part of Great Britain, and that all Lords Spiritual of Ireland ſhall have Rank and Precedency next and immediately after the Lords Spiritual of the ſame Rank and Degree of Great Britain, and ſhall enjoy all Privileges as fully as the Spiritual Lords of England do now, or as any other Spiritual Lords of England may hereafter enjoy the ſame, the Right and Privilege of ſitting in the Houſe of Lords, and the Privileges depending thereon, and particularly the Right of ſitting on the Trial of Peers excepted, and that the Perſons holding any Temporal Peerages of Ireland exiſting at the Time of the Union, ſhall from and after the Union, have Rank and Precedency next, and immediately after all the Perſons holding Peerages of the like Orders and Degrees in Great Britain, ſubſiſting at the Time of the Union, and that all Peerages of Ireland created after the Union, ſhall have Rank and Precedency with the Peerages of the United Kingdom ſo created, according to the Dates of their Creations. And that all Peerages both of Great Britain and Ireland now ſubſiſting, or hereafter to be created, ſhall in all other Reſpects from the Date of Union, be conſidered as Peerages of the United Kingdom, and that the Peers of Ireland ſhall as Peers of the United Kingdom, be ſued and tried as Peers, except as aforeſaid, and ſhall enjoy all Privileges of Peers as fully as the Peers of Great Britain, the Right and Privilege of ſitting in the Houſe of Lords, and the Privileges depending thereon, and the Right of ſitting on the Trial of Peers only excepted.

Reſolved,

That for the ſame Purpoſe it would be fit to propoſe, as The Fifth Article of Union, that the Churches of that Part of Great Britain called England and of Ireland, ſhould be united into one Church, and that when his Majeſty ſhall ſummon a Convocation, the Archbiſhops, Biſhops and Clergy of the ſeveral Provinces in Ireland, ſhall be reſpectively ſummoned to, and ſit in the Convocations of the United Church in the like Manner, and ſubject to the ſame Regulations as to Election and Qualification, as are at preſent by Law eſtabliſhed with Reſpect to the like Orders of the Church of England, and that the Doctrine, Worſhip, Diſcipline and Government of the ſaid United Church, ſhall be preſerved as now by Law eſtabliſhed for the Church of England, ſaving to the Church of Ireland all the Rights, Privileges and Juriſdictions now thereunto belonging; and that the Doctrine, Worſhip, Diſcipline and Government of the Church of Scotland, ſhall likewiſe be preſerved as now by Law, and by the Act of Union eſtabliſhed for the Church of Scotland, and that the Continuance and Preſervation for ever of the ſaid United Church, as the eſtabliſhed Church of that Part of the ſaid United Kingdom called England and Ireland, ſhall be deemed and taken to be an eſſential and fundamental Article and Condition of the Union.

Reſolved,

That for the ſame Purpoſe it would be fit to propoſe, as The Seventh Article of Union, that the Charge ariſing from the Payment of the Intereſt, and the Sinking Fund for the Reduction of the Principal of the Debt incurred in either Kingdom before the Union, ſhall continue to be ſeparately defrayed by Great Britain and Ireland reſpectively.

That for the Space of twenty Years after the Union ſhall take Place, the Contribution of Great Britain and Ireland reſpectively, towards the Expenditure of the United Kingdom in each Year, ſhall be defrayed in the Proportion of Fifteen Parts for Great Britain and two Parts for Ireland: That at the Expiration of the ſaid twenty Years, the future Expenditure of the United Kingdom, other than the Intereſt and Charges of the Debt to which either Country ſhall be ſeparately liable, ſhall be defrayed in ſuch Proportion as the United Parliament ſhall deem juſt and reaſonable, upon a Compariſon of the real Value of the Exports and Imports of the reſpective Countries, upon an Average of the three Years next preceding the Period of Reviſion, or on a Compariſon of the Value of the Quantities of the following Articles conſumed within the reſpective Countries, on a ſimilar Average, viz: Beer, Spirits, Sugar, Wine, Tea, Tobacco and Malt, or according to the aggregate Proportion reſulting from both theſe Conſiderations combined, or on a Compariſon of the Amount of Income in each Country, eſtimated from the Produce for the ſame Periods of a general Tax, if ſuch ſhall have been impoſed on the ſame Deſcriptions of Income in both Countries, and that the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall afterwards proceed in like Manner, to reviſe and fix the ſaid Proportions according to the ſame Rules, or any of them, at Periods not more diſtant than twenty Years, nor leſs than ſeven Years from each other, unleſs previous to any ſuch Period, the United Parliament ſhall have declared as herein after provided, that the general Expenſes of the Empire ſhall be defrayed indiſcriminately, by equal Taxes impoſed on the like Articles in both Countries.

That for the defraying the ſaid Expenſes according to the Rules above laid down, the Revenues of Ireland ſhall hereafter conſtitute a conſolidated Fund, upon which Charges equal to the Intereſt of her Debt, and Sinking Fund ſhall in the firſt Inſtance be charged, and the Remainder ſhall be applied towards defraying the Proportion of the general Expenſe of the United Kingdom, to which Ireland may be liable in each Year.

That the Proportion of Contribution to which Great Britain and Ireland will by theſe Articles be liable, ſhall be raiſed by ſuch Taxes in each Kingdom reſpectively, as the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall from Time to Time deem fit. Provided always, that in regulating the Taxes in each Country by which their reſpective Proportion ſhall be levied, no Article in Ireland ſhall be liable to be taxed to any Amount exceeding that which will be thereafter payable in England on the like Article.

That if at the End of any Year, any Surplus ſhall accrue from the Revenues of Ireland, after defraying the Intereſt, Sinking Fund, and proportioned Contribution, and ſeparate Charges to which the ſaid Country is liable, either Taxes ſhall be taken off to the Amount of ſuch Surplus, or the Surplus ſhall be applied by the United Parliament to local Purpoſes in Ireland, or to make good any Deficiency which may ariſe in her Revenues in Time of Peace, or be inveſted by the Commiſſioners of the National Debt of Ireland in the Funds, to accumulate for the Benefit of Ireland, at Compound Intereſt, in Eaſe of her Contribution in Time of War. Provided the Surplus ſo to accumulate ſhall at no future Period be ſuffered to exceed the Sum of five Millions.

That all Monies hereafter to be raiſed by Loan in Peace or War, for the Service of the United Kingdom by the Parliament thereof, ſhall be conſidered to be a joint Debt, and the Charges thereof ſhall be borne by the reſpective Countries in the Proportion of their reſpective Contributions, Provided, that if at any Time in raiſing the reſpective Contributions hereby fixed for each Kingdom, the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall judge it fit to raiſe a greater Proportion of ſuch reſpective Contributions in one Kingdom within the Year than in the other, or to ſet apart a greater Proportion of Sinking Fund for the Liquidation of the whole, or any Part of the Loan raiſed on Account of the one Country than of that raiſed on Account of the other Country, then ſuch Part of the ſaid Loan for the Liquidation of which, different Proviſions have been made for the reſpective Countries, ſhall be kept diſtinct, and ſhall be borne by each ſeparately, and only that Part of the ſaid Loan be deemed joint and common, for the Reduction of which the reſpective Countries ſhall have made Proviſion in the Proportion of their reſpective Contributions.

That if at any future Day, the ſeparate Debt of each Kingdom reſpectively, ſhall have been liquidated, or the Values of their reſpective Debts, (eſtimated according to the Amount of the Intereſt and Annuities attending the ſame, of the Sinking Fund applicable to the Reduction thereof, and the Period within which the whole Capital of ſuch Debt ſhall appear to be redeemable by ſuch Sinking Fund) ſhall be to each other in the ſame Proportion, with the reſpective Contributions of each Kingdom reſpectively, or where the Amount by which the Value of the larger of ſuch Debts ſhall vary from ſuch Proportion, ſhall not exceed one hundredth Part of the ſaid Value, and if it ſhall appear to the United Parliament, that the reſpective Circumſtances of the two Countries, will thenceforth admit of their contributing indiſcriminately by equal Taxes impoſed on the ſame Articles in each, to the future general Expenſe of the United Kingdom, it ſhall be competent to the ſaid United Parliament to declare, that all future Expenſes thenceforth to be incurred, together with the Intereſt and Charges of all joint Debts, contracted previous to ſuch Declaration, ſhall be ſo defrayed indiſcriminately by equal Taxes impoſed on the ſame Articles in each Country, and thenceforth from Time to Time as Circumſtances may require to impoſe and apply ſuch Taxes accordingly, ſubject only to ſuch particular Exemptions or Abatements in Ireland, and that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, as Circumſtances may appear from Time to Time to demand. That from the Period of ſuch Declaration, it ſhall no longer be neceſſary to regulate the Contribution of the two Countries towards the future general Expenſes, according to any ſpecific Proportion, or according to any of the Rules herein before preſcribed. Provided nevertheleſs, that the Intereſt or Charges which may remain on Account of any Part of the ſeparate Debt with which either Country is chargeable, and which ſhall not be liquidated or conſolidated proportionably as above, ſhall until extinguiſhed, continue to be defrayed by ſeparate Taxes in each Country.

That a Sum not leſs than the Sum which has been granted by the Parliament of Ireland, on the Average of the laſt ſix Years, as Premiums for the internal Encouragement of Agriculture or Manufacture, or for the maintaining Inſtitutions for pious and charitable Purpoſes, ſhall be applied for the Period of twenty Years after the Union, to ſuch local Purpoſes, in ſuch Manner as the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall direct.

That from and after the firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, all public Revenue ariſing from the Territorial Dependencies of the United Kingdom, ſhall be applied to the general Expenditure of the Empire, in the Proportions of the reſpective Contributions of the two Countries.

Reſolved,

That for the ſame Purpoſe it would be fit to propoſe, as The Eighth Article of Union, that all Laws in force at the Time of the Union

Union, and all Courts of Civil and Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction within the reſpective Kingdoms, ſhall remain as now by Law eſtabliſhed, ſubject only to ſuch Alterations and Regulations from Time to Time, as Circumſtances may appear to the Parliament of the United Kingdom to require. Provided that all Writs of Error and Appeals depending at the Time of the Union, or hereafter to be brought, and which might now be finally decided by the Houſe of Lords of either Kingdom, ſhall from and after the Union, be finally decided by the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom; and provided that from and after the Union, there ſhall remain in Ireland an Inſtance Court of Admiralty, for the Determination of Cauſes, Civil and Maritime only, and that all Laws at preſent in force in either Kingdom, which ſhall be contrary to any of the Proviſions which may be enacted by any Act for carrying this Article into Effect, be from and after the Union repealed.

Mr. Buckley's Petition referred to other Judges

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by the Lord Viſcount Caſtlereagh and others, to return to this Houſe the Reſolutions of both Houſes of Parliament, reſpecting a Legiſlative Union between Great Britain and Ireland, and to acquaint this Houſe, that they have agreed to the Amendments made therein by their Lordſhips, and have voted that the ſame be laid before his Majeſty, to which they deſire their Lordſhips Concurrence. And alſo, to acquaint this Houſe, that the Commons have agreed to an humble Addreſs to his Majeſty, which they have ordered to be laid before their Lordſhips, and to which they deſire their Lordſhips Concurrence, and then the Meſſengers withdrew,

Meſſage from Commons returning Reſolutions reſpecting a Legiſlative Union between Great Britain and Ireland, and with an Addreſs for Concurrence

And the Meſſengers being called in,

The Lord Chancellor acquainted them, that the Lords will ſend an Anſwer by Meſſengers of their own.

The ſaid Addreſs was then read, and the Blanks filled up with the Words "Lords "Spiritual and Temporal and" and agreed to by the Houſe, viz:

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, having taken into our moſt ſerious and deliberate Conſideration, the great and important Subject of a Legiſlative Union between Great Britain and Ireland, which was laid before us in his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Meſſage to both Houſes of Parliament, on the

the fifth Day of February laſt, accompanied by the Reſolutions of the two Houſes of the Parliament of Great Britain, propoſing that great Meaſure, and by the earneſt and ſolemn Recommendation of your Majeſty, Deeply impreſſed with the Neceſſity of rendering the Connexion of Great Britain and this Kingdom indiſſoluble, and truly ſenſible of the repeated Efforts which have been made by Foreign and Domeſtic Enemies to ſhake that Connexion, and to effect their entire Separation, we fully approve and cordially embrace the Principle of incorporating Great Britain and Ireland into one Kingdom, under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, by a complete and entire Union of their Legiſlatures.

We do conſider the Reſolutions of the two Houſes of the Britiſh Parliament, as wiſely calculated to form the Baſis of ſuch a Settlement; we have adopted them as our Guide in the Meaſures we have purſued, and we now feel it our Duty to lay before your Majeſty the Reſolutions to which we have agreed; which Reſolutions we humbly ſubmit to your Majeſty, may form the Articles of Union between Great Britain and Ireland, and which, if they ſhall be approved by the two Houſes of the Parliament of Great Britain, we are ready to confirm and ratify, in order that the ſame may be eſtabliſhed for ever, by the mutual Conſent of both Parliaments.

We doubt not, that your Majeſty and your Parliament of Great Britain will conſider theſe Reſolutions as the moſt unequivocal Teſtimony of our zealous Loyalty to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, Family and Government, and as an unalterable Pledge of our Attachment to the Britiſh Empire: We offer them in the full Conviction, that by incorporating the Legiſlatures, and by conſolidating the Reſources of the two Kingdoms, we ſhall increaſe the Power and Stability of that Empire, and that by uniting ourſelves with your Majeſty's Subjects of Great Britain, under one Parliament, and under one Government, we ſhall moſt effectually provide for the Improvement of our Commerce, the Security of our Religion, and the Preſervation of our Liberties.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs and Reſolutions be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know what Time he will be pleaſed to appoint, to be attended with the Addreſs and Reſolutions of both Houſes of Parliament.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that in Obedience to their Lordſhips' Order, he had waited on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know what Time he would be pleaſed to appoint to be attended with the Addreſs and Reſolutions of both Houſes of Parliament; and that his Excellency had been pleaſed to appoint To-morrow at four o'Clock, at the Caſtle.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Weſtby and Mr. Walker, two of the Maſters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that this Houſe hath agreed to the Addreſs to his Majeſty ſent up by their Houſe, and have filled up the Blanks, by inſerting the Words "Lords Spiritual and Temporal and" and that this Houſe hath reſolved, that his Excellency be attended by their whole Houſe with the ſaid Addreſs; together with the Reſolutions of both Houſes of Parliament reſpecting a Legiſlative Union between Great Britain and Ireland, and having ſent to know his Excellency's Pleaſure, when he would be pleaſed to be attended therewith; his Excellency hath appointed To-morrow at four o'Clock at the Caſtle, and that their Lordſhips intended to be there at that Time.

Meſſage to Commons on Addreſs and Reſolutions.

Ordered, that the ſaid Reſolutions be forthwith printed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolutions to be printed.

DISSENTIENT.

Proteſt, 1. BECAUSE this Bill deprives the beneficed Clergy of Ireland of the Tithe of Agiſtment, to which they are equally intitled by the common Law of the Land, as they are to any other Species of Tithe whatſoever.

and 2. Becauſe a Precedent is hereby eſtabliſhed for depriving one ſet of Individuals of their legal Property, for the Purpoſe of transferring the ſame to thoſe who have no legal Claim whatſoever thereto. And if ſuch a Principle be once eſtabliſhed by Law, it is not not poſſible to ſay how far it may be carried, or what Security will remain for Property of any Kind.

3. Becauſe it hath hitherto been deemed right and juſt, when Individuals or any Number of Perſons were deprived of their Property by Law, to make full Compenſation to the Parties ſo deprived. But in the preſent Inſtance, contrary to this well eſtabliſhed Principle, no Compenſation whatſoever is made to thoſe who are ſo deprived of their Property.

4. Yet, while we lament that this Principle ſhould be forſaken in any Inſtance, we are ready to admit, that the Right to Agiſtment Tithe, ſurrendered by this Bill, (though ſuch Tithe had been heretofore wreſted from the Church without the Shadow of Law) has lain dormant and unproductive for above ſixty Years; the Clergy of Ireland during that long Period, by an unparalleled Forbearance and Submiſſion to general Opinion, having declined to aſſert their undoubted Right thereto. And we think it probable that, under the critical Circumſtances of the preſent Times, the Revival of it might be made uſe of, by ill-diſpoſed, diſaffected and intereſted Perſons, to excite Diſcontent and Commotion, which it is equally our Wiſh and our Duty to prevent, even by ſacrificing Part of the Property of ourſelves and our Brethren for the Purpoſe.

Actuated therefore by a ſincere Attachment to our Sovereign and our Country, we have ſtudiouſly withholden any active Oppoſition to this Meaſure; and we wiſh to tranſmit to Poſterity, that we have ſo done under the conſolatory Hope, that we ſhall thereby contribute to the general Tranquillity, Welfare and Proſperity both of the Church and State, the true Intereſts of which are inſeparably connected; and under a perfect Conviction that this Meaſure will not be made a Precedent at any future Time.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that he had received a Meſſage from his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, which his Excellency directed him to lay before their Lordſhips, which he read as follows, viz:

CORNWALLIS,

Meſſage from Lord Lieutenant reſpecting Union.

I AM commanded by his Majeſty to return to this Houſe, the Reſolutions upon the great and important Subject of a Legiſlative Union between Great Britain and Ireland, which you deſired me to tranſmit to his Majeſty, together with your Addreſs of the twenty-ſeventh Day of March laſt.

The few Alterations and Additions which have been ſuggeſted therein by the two Houſes of Parliament of Great Britain, to whom in Conſequence of your Requeſt they were communicated by his Majeſty, are in ſuch ſtrict Conformity to the Spirit of the Reſolutions you agreed to, that they may be juſtly conſidered as eſſentially the ſame. I am therefore to congratulate you in his Majeſty's Name, upon that Identity of Sentiment, which has been ſo conſpicuouſly manifeſted in both his Parliaments, for the Adjuſtment of this great Meaſure: And I am to expreſs the Confidence which his Majeſty feels, that you will perſevere in thoſe zealous Exertions which you have hitherto diſplayed for its ſpeedy and entire Accompliſhment.

His Majeſty will feel it as the proudeſt Day of his Reign, when he can conſider all his Subjects as one People, united under the common Protection of the ſame Government, and the ſame Legiſlature, and all participating in the full Enjoyment of thoſe Bleſſings which the Britiſh Conſtitution is ſo eminently calculated to confer.

I am alſo commanded by his Majeſty to communicate to you the joint Addreſs of the Lords and Commons of Great Britain, of the eighth Inſtant, which they preſented to his Majeſty upon laying before him the ſaid Reſolutions.

C.

The Lord Chancellor likewiſe by his Excellency's Direction, laid before the Houſe, the following Reſolutions of both Houſes of Parliament of Great Britain, laid before his Majeſty, with their joint Addreſs of the eighth Inſtant.

Reſolutions, &c. of the Britiſh Parliament.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, that it be the firſt Article of the Union of the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, that the ſaid Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland ſhall, upon the firſt Day of January, which ſhall be in the Year of our LORD one thouſand eight hundred and one, and for ever after, be united into one Kingdom, by the Name of "THE UNITED KINGDOM OF "GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND," and that the Royal Stile and Titles appertaining to the Imperial Crown of the ſaid United Kingdom and its Dependencies, and alſo the Enſigns Armorial, Flags and Banners thereof, ſhall be ſuch as his Majeſty by his Royal Proclamation under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom ſhall be pleaſed to appoint.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, that it be the Second Article of the Union, that the Succeſſion to the Imperial Crown of the ſaid United Kingdom, and of the Dominions thereunto belonging, ſhall continue limited and ſettled in the ſame Manner, as the Succeſſion to the Imperial Crown of the ſaid Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland now ſtands limited and ſettled, according to the exiſting Laws, and to the Terms of Union between England and Scotland.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, that it be the Third Article of Union, that the ſaid United Kingdom be repreſented in one and the ſame Parliament, to be ſtiled "THE PARLIAMENT OF THE UNITED "KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN AND "IRELAND."

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, that it be the Fourth Article of Union, that four Lords Spiritual of Ireland, by Rotation of Seſſions, and twenty-eight Lords Temporal of Ireland, elected for Life by the Peers of Ireland, ſhall be the Number to ſit and vote on the Part of Ireland in the Houſe of Lords of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, and one hundred Commoners (two for each County of Ireland, two for the City of Dublin, two for the City of Cork, one for the Univerſity of Trinity College, and one for each of the thirty-one moſt conſiderable Cities, Towns and Boroughs) be the Number to ſit and vote on the Part of Ireland, in the Houſe of Commons of the Parliament of the United Kingdom.

That ſuch Act as ſhall be paſſed in the Parliament of Ireland previous to the Union, "to regulate the Mode by which the Lords "Spiritual and Temporal and the Commons "to ſerve in the Parliament of the United "Kingdom on the Part of Ireland, ſhall be "ſummoned and returned to the ſaid Parlia-"ment," ſhall be conſidered as forming Part of the Treaty of Union, and ſhall be incorporated in the Acts of the reſpective Parliaments, by which the ſaid Union ſhall be ratified and eſtabliſhed.

That all Queſtions touching the Rotation or Election of Lords Spiritual or Temporal of Ireland to ſit in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, ſhall be decided by the Houſe of Lords thereof; and whenever, by Reaſon of an Equality of Votes in the Election of any ſuch Lords Temporal, a complete Election ſhall not be made according to the true Intent of this Article, the Names of thoſe Peers for whom ſuch Equality of Votes ſhall be ſo given, ſhall be written on Pieces of Paper of a ſimilar Form, and ſhall be put into a Glaſs by the Clerk of the Parliaments, at the Table of the Houſe of Lords, whilſt the Houſe is ſitting; and the Peer or Peers, whoſe Name or Names ſhall be firſt drawn out by the Clerk of the Parliaments, ſhall be deemed the Peer or Peers elected, as the Caſe may be.

That any Perſon holding any Peerage of Ireland now ſubſiſting, or hereafter to be created, ſhall not thereby be diſqualified from being elected to ſerve, if he ſhall ſo think fit, or from ſerving or continuing to ſerve, if he ſhall ſo think fit, for any County, City, or Borough of Great Britain, in the Houſe of Commons of the United Kingdom, unleſs he ſhall have been previouſly elected as above to ſit in the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom, but that ſo long as ſuch Peer of Ireland ſhall ſo continue to be a Member of the Houſe of Commons, he ſhall not be entitled to the Privilege of Peerage, nor be capable of being elected to ſerve as a Peer on the Part of Ireland, or of voting at any ſuch Election, and that he ſhall be liable to be ſued, indicted, proceeded againſt and tried as a Commoner for any Offence with which he may be charged.

That it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to create Peers of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, and to make Promotions in the Peerage thereof after the Union, provided that no new Creation of any ſuch Peers ſhall take Place, after the Union, until three of the Peerages of Ireland which ſhall have been exiſting at the Time of the Union ſhall have become extinct, and upon ſuch Extinction of three Peerages that it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to create one Peer of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, and in like Manner ſo often as three Peerages of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland ſhall become extinct, it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to create one other Peer of the ſaid Part of the United Kingdom, and if it ſhall happen that the Peers of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland ſhall by extinction of Peerages, or otherwiſe, be reduced to the Number of one hundred, excluſive of all ſuch Peers of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland as ſhall hold any Peerage of Great Britain, ſubſiſting at the Time of the Union, or of the United Kingdom, created ſince the Union, by which ſuch Peers ſhall be entitled to an hereditary Seat in the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom, then and in that Caſe it ſhall and may be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to create one Peer of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, as often as any one of ſuch one hundred Peerages ſhall fail by Extinction, or as often as any one Peer of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland ſhall become entitled, by Deſcent or Creation to an hereditary Seat in the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom, it being the true Intent and Meaning of this Article that at all Times, after the Union, it ſhall and may be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to keep up the Peerage of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, to the Number of one hundred, over and above the Number of ſuch of the ſaid Peers as ſhall be entitled, by Deſcent or Creation, to an hereditary Seat in the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom.

That if any Peerage ſhall at any Time be in Abeyance, ſuch Peerage ſhall be deemed and taken as an exiſting Peerage, and no Peerage ſhall be deemed extinct unleſs on Default of Claimants to the Inheritance of ſuch Peerage for the Space of one Year from the Death of the Perſon who ſhall have been laſt poſſeſſed thereof; and if no Claim ſhall be made to the Inheritance of ſuch Peerage in ſuch Form and Manner as may from Time to Time be preſcribed by the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom, before the Expiration of the ſaid Period of a Year, then and in that Caſe ſuch Peerage ſhall be deemed extinct; provided that nothing herein ſhall exclude any Perſon from afterwards putting in a Claim to the Peerage ſo deemed extinct, and if ſuch Claim ſhall be allowed as valid by Judgment of the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom, reported to his Majeſty, ſuch Peerage ſhall be conſidered as revived, and in Caſe any new Creation of a Peerage of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, ſhall have taken Place in the Interval, in Conſequence of the ſuppoſed Extinction of ſuch Peerage, then no new Right of Creation ſhall accrue to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, in Conſequence of the next Extinction which ſhall take Place of any Peerage of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland.

That all Queſtions touching the Election of Members to ſit on the Part of Ireland in the Houſe of Commons of the United Kingdom, ſhall be heard and decided in the ſame Manner as Queſtions touching ſuch Elections in Great Britain now are, or at any Time hereafter ſhall by Law be heard and decided, ſubject nevertheleſs, to ſuch particular particular Regulations in Reſpect of Ireland, as from local Circumſtance the Parliament of the United Kingdom may from Time to Time deem expedient.

That the Qualifications in Reſpect of Property of the Members elected on the Part of Ireland to ſit in the Houſe of Commons of the United Kingdom, ſhall be reſpectively the ſame as are now provided by Law, in the Caſes of Elections for Counties and Cities and Boroughs reſpectively, in that Part of Great Britain called England, unleſs any other Proviſion ſhall hereafter be made in that Reſpect by Act of Parliament of the United Kingdom.

That when his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, ſhall declare his, her or their Pleaſure, for holding the firſt or any ſubſequent Parliament of the United Kingdom, a Proclamation ſhall iſſue under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, to cauſe the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons who are to ſerve in the Parliament thereof on the Part of Ireland, to be returned in ſuch Manner as by any Act of this preſent Seſſion of the Parliament of Ireland ſhall be provided, and that the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons of Great Britain, ſhall, together with the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons ſo returned as aforeſaid, on the Part of Ireland, conſtitute the two Houſes of the Parliament of the United Kingdom.

That if his Majeſty on or before the firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, on which Day the Union is to take Place, ſhall declare under the Great Seal of Great Britain, that it is expedient that the Lords and Commons of the preſent Parliament of Great Britain, ſhould be the Members of the reſpective Houſes of the firſt Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Great Britain, then the ſaid Lords and Commons of the preſent Parliament of Great Britain ſhall accordingly be the Members of the reſpective Houſes of the firſt Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Great Britain, and they, together with the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons ſo ſummoned and returned as above on the Part of Ireland, ſhall be the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons of the firſt Parliament of the United Kingdom, and ſuch firſt Parliament, may (in that Caſe) if not ſooner diſſolved, continue to ſit ſo long as the preſent Parliament of Great Britain may now by Law continue to ſit, if not ſooner diſſolved: Provided always that until an Act ſhall have paſſed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, providing in what Caſes Perſons holding Offices or Places of Profit under the Crown in Ireland, ſhall be incapable of being Members of the Houſe of Commons of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, no greater Number of Members than twenty, holding ſuch Offices or Places as aforeſaid, ſhall be capable of ſitting in the ſaid Houſe of Commons of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, and if ſuch a Number of Members ſhall be returned to ſerve in the ſaid Houſe, as to make the whole Number of Members of the ſaid Houſe holding ſuch Offices or Places as aforeſaid more than twenty, then and in ſuch Caſe, the Seats or Places of ſuch Members as ſhall have laſt accepted ſuch Offices or Places ſhall be vacated at the Option of ſuch Members, ſo as to reduce the Number of Members holding ſuch Offices or Places to the Number of twenty, and no Perſon holding any ſuch Office or Place ſhall be capable of being elected or of ſitting in the ſaid Houſe, while there are twenty Perſons holding ſuch Offices or Places ſitting in the ſaid Houſe; and that every one of the Lords of Parliament of the United Kingdom, and every Member of the Houſe of Commons of the United Kingdom in the firſt and all ſucceeding Parliaments, ſhall until the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall otherwiſe provide, take the Oaths, and make and ſubſcribe the Declaration, and take and ſubſcribe the Oath now by Law enjoined to be taken, made and ſubſcribed by the Lords and Commons of the Parliament of Great Britain.

That the Lords of Parliament on the Part of Ireland, in the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom, ſhall at all Times have the ſame Privileges of Parliament which ſhall belong to the Lords of Parliament on the Part of Great Britain; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal reſpectively on the Part of Ireland ſhall, at all Times, have the ſame Rights in Reſpect of their ſitting and voting upon the Trial of Peers, as the Lords Spiritual and Temporal reſpectively on the Part of Great Britain; and that all Lords Spiritual of Ireland ſhall have Rank and Precedency next and immediately after the Lords Spiritual of the ſame Rank and Degree of Great Britain, and ſhall enjoy all Privileges as fully as the Lords Spiritual of Great Britain do now, or may hereafter enjoy the ſame, the Right and Privilege of ſitting in the Houſe of Lords, and the Privileges depending thereon, and particularly the Right of ſitting on the Trial of Peers excepted; and that the Perſons holding any Temporal Peerages of Ireland, exiſting at the Time of the Union, ſhall, from and after the Union, have Rank and Precedency next and immediately after all the Perſons holding Peerages of the like Orders and Degrees in Great Britain, ſubſiſting at the Time of the Union; and that all Peerages of Ireland created after the Union, ſhall have Rank and Precedency with the Peeerages of the United Kingdom ſo created, according to the Dates of their Creations; and that all Peerages, both of Great Britain and Ireland, now ſubſiſting, or hereafter to be created, ſhall, in all other Reſpects, from the Date of the Union, be conſidered as Peerages of the United Kingdom; and that the Peers of Ireland ſhall, as Peers of the United Kingdom, be ſued and tried as Peers, except as aforeſaid, and ſhall enjoy all Privileges of Peers as fully as the Peers of Great Britain; the Right and Privilege of ſitting in the Houſe of Lords, and the Privileges depending thereon, and the Right of ſitting on the Trial of Peers only excepted.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, that it be the Fifth Article of Union, that the Churches of England and Ireland, as now by Law eſtabliſhed, be united into one Proteſtant Epiſcopal Church, to be called THE UNITED CHURCH OF ENGLAND AND IRELAND; and that the Doctrine, Worſhip, Diſcipline, and Government of the ſaid United Church ſhall be, and ſhall remain in full Force for ever, as the ſame are now by Law eſtabliſhed for the Church of England; and that the Continuance and Preſervation of the ſaid United Church, as the eſtabliſhed Church of England and Ireland, ſhall be deemed and taken to be an eſſential and fundamental Part of the Union, and that in like Manner the Doctrine, Worſhip, Diſcipline, and Government of the Church of Scotland, ſhall remain and be preſerved as the ſame are now eſtabliſhed by Law, and by the Acts for the Union of the two Kingdoms of England and Scotland.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, that it be the Sixth Article of Union, that his Majeſty's Subjects of Great Britain and Ireland ſhall, from and after the firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, be entitled to the ſame Privileges, and be on the ſame Footing as to Encouragements and Bounties on the like Articles, being the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of either Country reſpectively, and generally in Reſpect of Trade and Navigation, in all Ports and Places in the United Kingdom and its Dependencies, and that in all Treaties made by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, with any foreign Power, his Majeſty's Subjects of Ireland ſhall have the ſame Privileges, and be on the ſame Footing as his Majeſty's Subjects of Great Britain.

That from the firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, all Prohibitions and Bounties on the Export of Articles the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of either Country to the other ſhall ceaſe and determine, and that the ſaid Articles ſhall thenceforth be exported from one Country to the other, without Duty or Bounty on ſuch Export.

That all Articles, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of either Country, (not herein after enumerated as ſubject to ſpecific Duties,) ſhall from thenceforth be imported into each Country from the other free from Duty, other than ſuch countervailing Duties on the ſeveral Articles enumerated in the Schedule N°. I, A. and B. hereunto annexed, as are therein ſpecified, or to ſuch other countervailing Duties, as ſhall hereafter be impoſed by the Parliament of the United Kingdom, in the Manner herein after provided, and that for the Period of twenty Years from the Union, the Articles enumerated in the Schedule N°. II. hereunto annexed, ſhall be ſubject on Importation into each Country from the other, to the Duties ſpecified in the ſaid Schedule N°. II. and the Woollen Manufactures, known by the Names of Old and New Drapery, ſhall pay, on Importation into each Country from the other, the Duties now payable on Importation into Ireland.

Salt and Hops on Importation into Ireland from Great Britain, Duties not exceeding thoſe which are now paid on Importation into Ireland, and Coals on Importation into Ireland from Great Britain, ſhall be ſubject to Burthens, not exceeding thoſe to which they are now ſubject.

That Callicoes and Muſlins ſhall on their Importation into either Country from the other be ſubject and liable to the Duties now payable on the ſame on the Importation thereof from Great Britain into Ireland, until the fifth Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and eight, and from and after the ſaid Day, the ſaid Duties ſhall be annually reduced by equal Proportions, as near as may be in each Year, ſo as that the ſaid Duties ſhall ſtand at ten per Centum from and after the fifth Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and ſixteen, until the fifth Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and twenty-one, and that Cotton Yarn and Cotton Twiſt ſhall on their Importation into either Country from the other, be ſubject and liable to the Duties now payable upon the ſame on the Importation thereof from Great Britain into Ireland, until the fifth Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and eight, and from and after the ſaid Day, the ſaid Duties ſhall be annually reduced by equal Proportions, as near as may be in each Year, ſo as that all Duties ſhall ceaſe on the ſaid Articles from and after the fifth Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and ſixteen.

That

That any Articles of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of either Country, which are or may be ſubject to internal Duty, or to Duty on the Materials of which they are compoſed, may be made ſubject on their Importation into each Country reſpectively from the other, to ſuch countervailing Duty as ſhall appear to be juſt and reaſonable in reſpect of ſuch internal Duty or Duties on the Materials; and that for the ſaid Purpoſes the Articles ſpecified in the ſaid Schedule N°. I. A. and B. ſhall be ſubject to the Duties ſet forth therein, liable to be taken off, diminiſhed or increaſed in the Manner herein ſpecified, and that upon the Export of the ſaid Articles from each Country to the other reſpectively, a Drawback ſhall be given equal in Amount to the countervailing Duty, payable on ſuch Articles on the Import thereof into the ſame Country from the other, and that in like Manner, in future, it ſhall be competent to the United Parliament to impoſe any new or additional countervailing Duties, or to take off or diminiſh ſuch exiſting countervailing Duties as may appear on like Principles to be juſt and reaſonable, in reſpect of any future or additional internal Duty on any Article of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of either Country, or of any new or additional Duty on any Materials of which ſuch Article may be compoſed, or of any Abatement of Duty on the ſame, and that when any ſuch new or additional countervailing Duty ſhall be ſo impoſed on the Import of any Article into either Country from the other, a Drawback equal in Amount to ſuch countervailing Duty, ſhall be given in like Manner on the Export of every ſuch Article reſpectively from the ſame Country to the other.

That all Articles the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of either Country, when exported through the other, ſhall in all Caſes be exported, ſubject to the ſame Charges as if they had been exported directly from the Country of which they were the Growth, Produce or Manufacture.

That all Duty charged on the Import of foreign or colonial Goods into either Country, ſhall on their Export to the other, be either drawn back, or the Amount, (if any be retained,) ſhall be placed to the Credit of the Country to which they ſhall be ſo exported, ſo long as the Expenditure of the United Kingdom ſhall be defrayed by proportional Contributions. Provided always, that nothing herein ſhall extend to take away any Duty, Bounty or Prohibition which exiſts with Reſpect to Corn, Meal, Malt, Flour or Biſcuit, but that all Duties, Bounties, or Prohibitions on the ſaid Articles may be regulated, varied or repealed from Time to Time, as the United Parliament ſhall deem expedient.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, that it be the ſeventh Article of Union, that the Charge ariſing from the Payment of the Intereſt and the Sinking Fund, for the Reduction of the Principal of the Debt incurred in either Kingdom before the Union, ſhall continue to be ſeparately defrayed by Great Britain and Ireland reſpectively, except as herein after provided.

That for the Space of twenty Years after the Union ſhall take Place, the Contribution of Great Britain and Ireland reſpectively, towards the Expenditure of the United Kingdom in each Year, ſhall be defrayed in the Proportion of fifteen Parts for Great Britain and two Parts for Ireland, that at the Expiration of the ſaid twenty Years, the future Expenditure of the United Kingdom, other than the Intereſt and Charges of the Debt to which either Country ſhall be ſeparately liable, ſhall be defrayed in ſuch Proportion as the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall deem juſt and reaſonable, upon a Compariſon of the real Value of the Exports and Imports of the reſpective Countries, upon an Average of the three Years next preceding the Period of Reviſion, or on a Compariſon of the Value of the Quantities of the following Articles conſumed within the reſpective Countries, on a ſimilar Average, viz.: Beer, Spirits, Sugar, Wine, Tea, Tobacco and Malt; or according to the aggregate Proportion reſulting from both theſe Conſiderations combined, or on a Compariſon of the Amount of Income in each Country, eſtimated from the Produce for the ſame Period of a general Tax, (if ſuch ſhall have been impoſed) on the ſame Deſcriptions of Income in both Countries, and that the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall afterwards proceed in like Manner, to reviſe and fix the ſaid Proportions according to the ſame Rules or any of them, at Periods not more diſtant than twenty Years, nor leſs than ſeven Years from each other, unleſs previous to any ſuch Period the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall have declared, as herein after provided, that the Expenditure of the United Kingdom ſhall be defrayed indiſcriminately by equal Taxes, impoſed on the like Articles in both Countries.

That for the defraying the ſaid Expenditure according to the Rules above laid down, the Revenues of Ireland ſhall hereafter conſtitute a Conſolidated Fund which ſhall be charged in the firſt Inſtance with the Intereſt of the Debt of Ireland, and with the Sinking Fund, applicable to the Reduction of the ſaid Debt, and the Remainder ſhall be applied towards defraying the Proportion of the Expenditure of the United Kingdom, to which Ireland may be liable in each Year.

That the Proportion of Contribution to which Great Britain and Ireland will be liable, ſhall be raiſed by ſuch Taxes in each Country reſpectively, as the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall from Time to Time deem fit, provided always, that in regulating the Taxes in each Country by which their reſpective Proportions ſhall be levied, no Article in Ireland ſhall be made liable to any new or additional Duty by which the whole Amount of Duty payable thereon, would exceed the Amount which will be thereafter payable in England on the like Article.

That if at the End of any Year, any Surplus ſhall accrue from the Revenues of Ireland, after defraying the Intereſt, Sinking Fund, and proportional Contribution, and ſeparate Charges to which the ſaid Country ſhall then be liable, Taxes ſhall be taken off to the Amount of ſuch Surplus, or the Surplus ſhall be applied by the Parliament of the United Kingdom, to local Purpoſes in Ireland, or to make good any Deficiency which may ariſe in the Revenues of Ireland in Time of Peace, or be inveſted by the Commiſſioners of the national Debt of Ireland in the Funds, to accumulate for the Benefit of Ireland, at compound Intereſt, in Eaſe of the Contribution of Ireland in Time of War, provided that the Surplus ſo to accumulate ſhall at no future Period be ſuffered to exceed the Sum of five Millions.

That

That all Monies to be raiſed after the Union by Loan in Peace or War, for the Service of the United Kingdom by the Parliament thereof, ſhall be conſidered to be a joint Debt, and the Charges thereof ſhall be borne by the reſpective Countries in the Proportion of their reſpective Contributions. Provided, that if at any Time in raiſing the reſpective Contributions hereby fixed for each Country, the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall judge it fit to raiſe a greater Proportion of ſuch reſpective Contributions in one Country within the Year than in the other, or to ſet apart a greater Proportion of Sinking Fund for the Liquidation of the Whole, or any Part of the Loan raiſed on Account of the one Country than of that raiſed on Account of the other Country, then ſuch Part of the ſaid Loan, for the Liquidation of which different Proviſions ſhall have been made for the reſpective Countries, ſhall be kept diſtinct, and ſhall be borne by each ſeparately, and only that Part of the ſaid Loan be deemed joint and common, for the Reduction of which, the reſpective Countries ſhall have made Proviſion in the Proportion of their reſpective Contributions.

That if at any future Day, the ſeparate Debt of each Country reſpectively ſhall have been liquidated, or if the Values of their reſpective Debts (eſtimated according to the Amount of the Intereſt and Annuities attending the ſame, and of the Sinking Fund applicable to the Reduction thereof, and to the Period within which the whole Capital of ſuch Debt ſhall appear to be redeemable by ſuch Sinking Fund) ſhall be to each other, in the ſame Proportion with the reſpective Contributions of each Country reſpectively, or if the Amount by which the Value of the larger of ſuch Debts ſhall vary from ſuch Proportion, ſhall not exceed one hundredth Part of the ſaid Value; and if it ſhall appear to the Parliament of the United Kingdom that the reſpective Circumſtances of the two Countries will thenceforth admit of their contributing indiſcriminately, by equal Taxes impoſed on the ſame Articles in each, to the future Expenditure of the United Kingdom, it ſhall be competent to the Parliament of the United Kingdom to declare, that all future Expenſe thenceforth to be incurred, together with the Intereſt and Charges of all joint Debts, contracted previous to ſuch Declaration, ſhall be ſo defrayed indiſcriminately by equal Taxes impoſed on the ſame Articles in each Country, and thenceforth from Time to Time, as Circumſtances may require to impoſe and apply ſuch Taxes accordingly, ſubject only to ſuch particular Exemptions or Abatements in Ireland, and in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, as Circumſtances may appear from Time to Time to demand; that from the Period of ſuch Declaration, it ſhall no longer be neceſſary to regulate the Contribution of the two Countries towards the future Expenditure of the United Kingdom, according to any ſpecific Proportion, or according to any of the Rules herein before preſcribed. Provided nevertheleſs, that the Intereſt or Charges which may remain on Account of any Part of the ſeparate Debt with which either Country ſhall be chargeable, and which ſhall not be liquidated or conſolidated proportionably as above, ſhall, until extinguiſhed, continue to be defrayed by ſeparate Taxes in each Country.

That a Sum not leſs than the Sum which has been granted by the Parliament of Ireland, on the Average of ſix Years immediately preceding the firſt Day of January, in the Year one thouſand eight hundred, in Premiums for the internal Encouragement of Agriculture or Manufactures, or for the maintaining Inſtitutions for pious and charitable Purpoſes, ſhall be applied for the Period of twenty Years after the Union to ſuch local Purpoſes in Ireland, in ſuch Manner as the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall direct.

That from and after the firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, all public Revenue ariſing to the United Kingdom, from the territorial Dependencies thereof, and applied to the general Expenditure of the United Kingdom, ſhall be ſo applied in the Proportions of the reſpective Contributions of the two Countries.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, that it be the eighth Article of Union, that all Laws in Force at the Time of the Union, and all the Courts of Civil and Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction within the reſpective Kingdoms, ſhall remain as now by Law eſtabliſhed within the ſame, ſubject only to ſuch Alterations and Regulations from Time to Time, as Circumſtances may appear to the Parliament of the United Kingdom to require, Provided, that all Writs of Error and Appeals depending at the Time of the Union, or hereafter to be brought, and which might now be finally decided by the Houſe of Lords of either Kingdom, ſhall from and after the Union be finally decided by the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom; and provided, that from and after the Union there ſhall remain in Ireland an Inſtance Court of Admiralty, for the Determination of Cauſes, Civil and Maritime only, and that the Appeal from Sentences of the ſaid Court ſhall be to his Majeſty's Delegates in his Court of Chancery, in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland; and that all Laws at preſent in force in either Kingdom, which ſhall be contrary to any of the Provisions which may be enacted by any Act for carrying these Articles into Effect, be from and after the Union repealed.

George Rose, Cler? Parliamentor?

Die Jovis, 8°. Maii, 1800.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, humbly beg Leave to acquaint your Majesty, that, in conformity to your Majesty's gracious Message, laying before us the Resolutions of the Lords and Commons of Ireland, we have proceeded to resume the Consideration of the great and important Subject of a Legislative Union between Great Britain and Ireland; and it is with unspeakable Satisfaction we have observed the Conformity of the said Resolutions to those Principles which we humbly submitted to your Majesty, in the last Session of Parliament, as calculated to form the Basis of such a Settlement.

With the few Alterations and Additions which we have found it necessary to suggest, we consider these Resolutions as fit to form Articles of Union between Great Britain and Ireland, and, if those Alterations and Additions shall be approved by the two Houses of the Parliament of Ireland, we are ready to confirm and ratify these Articles, in order that the same may be established for ever by the mutual Consent of both Parliaments.

We offer to your Majesty our humble Congratulations upon the near Prospect of the Accomplishment of a Work which your Majesty, as the common Father of your People, has justly declared to be so near your Heart, concurring, as we do, with your Houses of Parliament in Ireland, in the full Conviction that by incorporating the Legislatures, and consolidating the Resources of the two Kingdoms, we shall increase the Power and Stability of the British Empire, and shall, at the same Time, contribute in the most effectual Manner to the Improvement of the Commerce, the Security of the Religion, and the Preservation of the Liberties of your Majesty's Subjects in Ireland.

Proteſts.

1. BECAUSE the Meaſure recommended by our moſt gracious Sovereign was a complete and entire Union between Great Britain and Ireland, to be founded upon equal and liberal Principles. We cannot help obſerving, that the Terms propoſed in the ſaid Bill are inconſiſtent with thoſe Principles, and are totally unequal. That Great Britain is thereby to retain entire and undiminiſhed her Houſes of Lords and Commons, and that two-fifteenths of the Iriſh Peers are to be degraded and deprived of their legiſlative Functions, and that two thirds of the Iriſh Houſe of Commons are to be ſtruck off.

Such a Proceeding appears to us totally unequal, both in reſpect of Numbers, and the Mode of forming the United Parliament, and we cannot ſuggeſt any Reaſon for reducing the Number of the Members of the Iriſh Houſes of Parliament, which does not apply with more Force to reducing the Number of the Members in the Britiſh Houſes of Parliament, whoſe Numbers ſo greatly exceed that of the Members of the Iriſh Houſes of Parliament.

2. Becauſe the Meaſure recommended by his Majeſty, was a complete and entire Union between Great Britain and Ireland, by which we underſtand ſuch an Union as ſhould ſo perfectly identify the two Nations, that they ſhould become as one Nation, and that there ſhould not exiſt any diſtinct Intereſt between them.

When we conſider the Proviſions of the ſaid Bill, we find, that although its profeſſed Object is to form a perfect Union between them, it does not in any Sort effect it. It unites the Legiſlatures, but does not identify the Nations. Their Intereſts will remain as diſtinct as they are at preſent. Ireland will continue to be governed by a Viceroy, aſſiſted by an Iriſh Privy Council. Her Purſe, her Revenues, her Expenditure and her Taxes will be as diſtinct as they are at preſent from thoſe of Great Britain, even their Intercourſe of Trade muſt be carried on as between two ſeparate Nations, through the Medium of Revenue Officers. Such Diſtinctneſſes of Intereſt prove that they require ſeparate Parliaments, reſident in each Kingdom to attend to them. That ſuch Union is only nominal, and that it does not effect that complete and entire Union recommended by his Majeſty, but ſhews that from the Circumſtances of the two Nations, the ſame is totally impracticable.

3. Becauſe the Adjuſtment of the Numbers of the Iriſh Members to be added to the two Houſes of the Imperial Parliament, has been determined upon without any official Document or other authentic Information having been laid before Parliament. That upon the Union with Scotland ſuch Proportion was adjuſted by the Commiſſioners appointed for England and Scotland, upon an Examination of their reſpective Claims, who having thereupon agreed that the Number of Commoners to be added to the Engliſh Commoners conſiſting of five hundred and thirteen ſhould be forty-five on the Part of Scotland, and the Number of Engliſh Peers being then one hundred and eighty-five, they calculated, that ſixteen were the ſame Proportion to that Number which forty-five were to the Engliſh Houſe of Commons, and therefore determined upon that Number of Peers. This Calculation juſtified the Propriety of ſuch Adjuſtment, and we cannot conceive upon what Principle the Number of Iriſh Peers was reduced to thirty-two, when according to the Proportion aforeſaid, it ought to have been fifty-three. We muſt conſider ſuch Conduct as unjuſt in its Principle, and wantonly caſting a Stigma upon the Iriſh Peerage, by depriving twenty-one of their Body of their juſt Right of ſitting in the United Parliament.

4. Becauſe that however proper it may have been for the two Parliaments to mark out the great Outlines for forming an Union between the two Nations, we think that from their Situation in different Kingdoms, and the impracticability of Communication between them, they were ill ſuited to the Adjuſtment of Matters which require Detail.

That the Mode of Proceeding adopted by the great Lord Somers upon the Union with Scotland of appointing Commiſſioners on the Behalf of each Nation, is proved by Experience to have been well adapted to that Purpoſe. That ſuch Commiſſioners having the Means of procuring Information, and communicating with each other, were thereby enabled to ſettle with Propriety and to the Satisfaction of both Nations, ſuch Matters as ſhould be neceſſary to be adjuſted between them. That inſtead of adopting that wiſe and rational Mode of Proceeding, the Adjuſtment of the Numbers to be added to the Imperial Parliament has been eſtabliſhed in Purſuance of the Mandate of the Britiſh Miniſter, without laying before Parliament any official Document whatſoever, or taking any Step to procure Information concerning the reſpective Claims of the two Nations.

5. Becauſe

5. Becauſe by the original Diſtribution of Power between the two Houſes of Parliament, it has been eſtabliſhed as a leading and fundamental Principle of the Conſtitution, that the Commons ſhould hold the Purſe of the Nation without the Interference of the Peerage; notwithſtanding which, and that the ſaid Bill declares that Iriſh Peerages ſhall be conſidered as Peerages of the United Kingdom, it directs that Iriſh Peers ſhall be eligible as Commoners to repreſent any Place in Great Britain, whereby the Purſe of the Nation will be eventually put into the Hands of the Peers of the United Kingdom, under the Deſcription of Iriſh Peers, in direct Defiance of the aforeſaid Principle. That it is evident, that ſuch Innovation was introduced by the Miniſter, for the Purpoſe of preventing the Oppoſition which the Meaſure might receive from ſuch Iriſh Peers as were Members of the Britiſh Houſe of Commons, which is clearly evinced by their not being made eligible for any Place in Ireland from whence they derive their Honors.

That by the Proviſion in the Bill for a conſtant Creation of Peers for Ireland, the Iriſh Peerage is to be kept up for ever, thereby perpetuating the degrading Diſtinction by which the Iriſh Peerage is to continue ſtripped of all Parliamentary Functions. That the Perpetuity of ſuch Diſtinction would have been avoided, by providing, that no Iriſh Peer ſhould hereafter be created, (which is the Caſe of Scotch Peers.) And that whenever the Iriſh Peers ſhall be reduced to the Number of twenty-eight, they ſhould be declared Peers of the United Empire, agreeably with the Britiſh. From which Time all National Diſtinctions between them ſhould ceaſe.

6. Becauſe when we advert to the corrupt and unconſtitutional Language held out by the Miniſter, to ſuch Members as claimed Property in Boroughs, intimating to them, that they ſhould be conſidered as their private Property, and ſhould be purchaſed as ſuch, and the Price paid out of the public Purſe, ſuch Language appears to us to amount to a Propoſal to buy the Iriſh Parliament for Government, and makes the Union a Meaſure of Bargain and Sale between the Miniſter and the Individual.

7. Becauſe when we compare the relative Abilities of Great Britain and Ireland, we find the Contribution to be paid by the two Kingdoms to the Expenſes of the United Empire moſt unequally adjuſted, and that the Share of two ſeventeenths fixed upon as the Proportion to be paid by Ireland, is far beyond what her Reſources will enable her to diſcharge. Should Ireland undertake to pay more than ſhe ſhall be able to anſwer, the Act will be irrevocable, and the neceſſary Conſequence will be a gradual Diminution of her Capital, the Decline of her Trade, a Failure in the Produce of her Taxes, and finally, her total Bankruptcy. Should Ireland fail, Great Britain muſt neceſſarily be involved in her Ruin, and we will have to lament, that our great and glorious Empire will be brought to the Brink of Deſtruction by the dangerous and viſionary Speculation of ſubſtituting a new Syſtem of Government for Ireland, in the Place of that Conſtitution which ſhe has experienced to be the firmeſt Security for the Preſervation of her Liberties. We think it proper to obſerve, that if the Miniſters had any plauſible Grounds whereupon they have calculated the ſaid Proportion, they have not deigned to lay them before Parliament, nor have the uſual and eſtabliſhed Forms of Proceeding to inveſtigate Matters of intricate and extended Calculation been reſorted to, by appointing Committees for their Examination, neither have Commiſſioners been appointed as was done upon the Union with Scotland. Had the Miniſter applied his Attention to that very neceſſary Enquiry, of aſcertaining the relative Ability of the two Nations, he would have compared the Balance which Great Britain has in her Favor from her Trade with all the World, amounting to fourteen Millions eight hundred thouſand Pounds, with that of Ireland upon the whole of her Trade, amounting to five hundred and nine thouſand three hundred and twelve Pounds, bearing a Proportion to each other of about twenty-nine to one. He would have examined into the Amount of the Revenue out of which the ſaid Proportions muſt naturally be paid, namely the Produce of the permanent Taxes of each Nation, which he would have found to have produced in Great Britain in the Year ending the fifth of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine, the Sum of twenty-ſix Millions, and that the permanent Taxes of Ireland in the correſponding Year did not exceed two Millions, bearing a Proportion to each other of about thirteen to one. He would have been informed, that the only Influx of Money into Ireland which can be diſcovered, is the ſaid Balance of her Trade of five hundred thouſand Pounds, and that ſhe remits to Great Britain annually ſeven hundred and twenty-four thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-three Pounds, a Sum exceeding by upwards of two hundred and fifteen thouſand Pounds the Amount of ſuch Balance.

That the Remittances to her Abſentees as ſtated by Mr. Pitt, amount to one Million, but are computed really to amount to double that Sum, and muſt neceſſarily greatly increaſe ſhould an Union take Place, ſuch Drains, exhauſting in a great Degree the Reſources of this Kingdom, and adding to the Opulence of Great Britain. The Facility lity with which large Sums of Money have lately been raiſed in Great Britain, compared with the unſucceſsful Attempt to raiſe ſo ſmall a Sum in this Kingdom as one Million and a half, would have afforded to him the ſtrongeſt Proof of the Opulence of the one and the Poverty of the other. From the Iriſh Miniſter's own Statement, he has computed that the Sum for which this Kingdom ſhall be called upon annually in Time of War as her Contribution, will amount to four millions four hundred and ninety-two thouſand ſix hundred and eighty Pounds, but has not attempted to point out the Means by which ſhe can raiſe ſo enormous a Sum. When the Miniſter ſhall find that the Circumſtances of Ireland are ſuch as have been herein ſtated, and ſhall recollect that this new Project has been ſuggeſted by him, and forced upon this Nation, he will feel the immenſe Reſponſibility which falls upon him for the diſaſtrous Conſequences which it may produce, not only upon this Kingdom but upon the whole Empire. He will be alarmed at the Diſcontents which an Impoſition of Taxes beyond the Abilities of the People to pay muſt produce, and the fatal Conſequences that they may occaſion.

8. Becauſe the Transfer of our Legiſlature to another Kingdom, will deprive us of the only Security we have for the Enjoyment of our Liberties, and being againſt the Senſe of the People, amounts to a groſs Breach of Truſt, and we conſider the Subſtitute for our Conſtitution, namely the Return of the propoſed Number of Perſons to the United Parliament as deluſive, amounting indeed to an Acknowledgment of the Neceſſity of Repreſentation, but in no Sort ſupplying it. In as much as the thirty-two Peers, and the one hundred Commoners will be merged in the vaſt Diſproportion of Britiſh Members, who will in Fact be the Legiſlators of Ireland; and when we conſider, that all the Eſtabliſhments of the two ſeparate Governments are to continue, which muſt add to the Influence of the Miniſter over the Conduct of Parliament, and advert to his Power in the Return of Iriſh Members to Parliament, we conceive, that ſuch Portion is more likely to overturn the Conſtitution of Great Britain, than to preſerve our own.

9. Becauſe we conſider the intended Union a direct Breach of Truſt, not only by the Parliament with the People, but by the Parliament of Great Britain with that of Ireland.

In as much as the Tenor and Purport of the Settlement of one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-two, did intentionally and expreſsly exclude the Re-agitation of Conſtitutional Queſtions between the two Countries, and did eſtabliſh the excluſive Legiſlative Authority of the Iriſh Parliament without the Interference of any other, that the Breach of ſuch a ſolemn Contract, founded on the internal Weakneſs of the Country, and its Inability at this Time to withſtand the deſtructive Deſign of the Miniſter, muſt tend to deſtroy the future Harmony of both, by forming a Precedent, and generating a Principle of mutual Encroachment in Times of mutual Difficulties.

10. Becauſe that when we conſider the Weakneſs of this Kingdom at the Time that the Meaſure was brought forward, and her Inability to withſtand the deſtructive Deſigns of the Miniſter, and couple to the Act itſelf, the Means that have been employed to accompliſh it, ſuch as the Abuſe of the Place Bill for the Purpoſe of modeling the Parliament the Appointment of Sheriffs to prevent County Meetings, the Diſmiſſal of the old ſteadfaſt Friends of conſtitutional Government, for their Adherence to the Conſtitution, and the Return of Perſons into Parliament, who had neither Connexion or Stake in this Country, and were therefore ſelected to decide upon her Fate: when we conſider the armed Force of the Miniſter, added to his Powers and Practices of Corruption, when we couple theſe Things together, we are warranted to ſay, that the baſeſt Means have been uſed to accompliſh this great Innovation, and that the Meaſure of Union tends to diſhonor the ancient Peerage for ever, to diſqualify both Houſes of Parliament, and ſubjugate the People of Ireland for ever. Such Circumſtances we apprehend will be recollected with Abhorrence, and will create Jealouſy between the two Nations in the Place of that Harmony, which for ſo many Centuries has been the Cement of their Union.

11. Becauſe the Argument made Uſe of in favor of the Union, namely, that the Senſe of the People of Ireland is in its Favor, we know to be untrue, and as the Miniſters have declared, that they would not preſs the Meaſure againſt the Senſe of the People, and as the People have pronounced decidedly and under all Difficulties their Judgment againſt it, we have, together with the Senſe of the Country, the Authority of the Miniſter to enter our Proteſt againſt the Project of Union, againſt the Yoke which it impoſes, the Diſhonor which it inflicts, the Diſqualification paſſed upon the Peerage, the Stigma thereby branded on the Realm, the diſproportionate Principle of Expenſe it introduces, the Means employed to effect it, the Diſcontents it has excited and muſt continue to excite: againſt all theſe, and the fatal Conſequences they may produce, we have endeavoured to interpoſe our Votes, and failing, we tranſmit to after Times our Names in ſolemn Proteſt on Behalf of the Parliamentary Conſtitution of this Realm, the Liberty which it ſecured, the the Trade which it protected, the Connexion which it preſerved, and the Conſtitution which it ſupplied and fortified, this we feel ourſelves called upon to do in ſupport of our Characters, our Honor, and whatever is left to us worthy to be tranſmitted to our Poſterity.

DISSENTIENT.

1 BECAUSE I conceive that this Bill, in radically altering the Organization and Powers of the conſtituted Authorities of the State, in and for the reſpective Kingdoms, does eſſentially adulterate the Spirit of the Conſtitution as to both.

That in depriving Ireland of her local reſident Parliament, it diveſts her of thoſe eſſential Benefits of the Britiſh Conſtitution, Protection and Control.

That by reducing the Kingdom of Ireland to a Britiſh Province, it merges eſſential Powers of the Crown and Parliament of Ireland, not in the Imperial Crown, but in the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain, thereby rendering the Britiſh Conſtitution by ſo much the more Ariſtocratick, and by ſo much the leſs Monarchical, in Ratio of the Repreſentation of Ireland as ſet out in this Bill. That this radical Alteration of the Britiſh Conſtitution is moſt prominently conſpicuous in the Nomination and Appointment of the Peers to ſit in the incorporated Parliament for Ireland, the Terms of which Appointment, not only diveſt the King of one of his elementary and brighteſt Prerogatives, the excluſive Creation of the Peerage, but by its Departure even from the Precedent of the Scottiſh Union, (which however inapplicable, has been pertinaciouſly inſiſted upon by the Advocates for the Meaſure) does according to the Tenor of this Bill, for ever exclude his Majeſty and his Succeſſors, even from the Benefit which might be derived to the Monarchy from a periodical Return of ſuch Nomination.

2. Becauſe I apprehend that this radical Alteration of the Conſtitution of both Kingdoms, may ſooner or later be productive of the moſt injurious and fatal Conſequences to the Crown and to the People of each, by warping the Intereſts of the Miniſter from the Intereſts of the Crown, and by identifying the perſonal Intereſts of the former with the perſonal Intereſts of the Imperial Parliament, thus drawing a Line of Diſtinction between thoſe Intereſts, which every Principle of the Conſtitution has provided ſhould at all Times be one and the ſame, and blending thoſe perſonal Intereſts which every Principle of the Conſtitution does provide ſhould be for ever kept diſtinct, thereby deſtroying the Reſponſibility of the Miniſter, and with it that great Preſerver of Order and of Right, a ſtrong Executive under the Control of a ſtrong and balanced Conſtitution, the poſſible ultimate Conſequences of which, however remote, cannot eſcape the Eye of any Man who is capable of taking a proſpective View of Cauſes and Effects.

3. Becauſe every Allegation which has been advanced, and every Argument which has been urged by the Advocates for this Meaſure, may with equal Truth and Conſiſtency be made a Plea for a total Subverſion and Abolition of the Britiſh Conſtitution as to Great Britain herſelf, to whom alone, we are now to look forward for the Preſervation of any Veſtige of that ineſtimable Bleſſing. A Conſideration rendered more weighty to the Underſtanding, and impreſſive on the Mind of every thinking loyal Subject of both Kingdoms, by the Apophthegm with which this Syſtem has been from high official Authority wound up, and the alarming Innovation to which it is applied. It is as follows, " that in this Meaſure is recorded a main " and fundamental Principle of the Britiſh " Conſtitution, viz: that the Liberties of the " People do not depend upon their being " repreſented in any one preciſe and ſpecific " Manner, or upon each Individual having " a Vote in the Repreſentation, but they reſult from the Admiſſion of various Modes " of Election, and from the different Com- " binations of the various Intereſts of the " Country.

" This is fully recognized in the Article " as approved of by both Legiſlatures, that " there is no Species of Repreſentation which " may not with Propriety and Benefit be " admitted into the Conſtitution, provided it " be admitted within a limited Degree," a Doctrine, which dangerous in Theory, and critical in Practice, is here ſubverſively brought into Action by the fifth Clauſe of the fourth Article of this Bill, which provides that Peers of Ireland, may upon certain Conditions ſit in the Houſe of Commons for the Imperial Parliament for any Britiſh County, City or Borough for which they may be ſo elected, though by the thirteenth Clauſe of the ſaid Article, all Peerages of Ireland now ſubſiſting, or hereafter to be created, ſhall from the Date of the Union, be conſidered as Peerages of the United Kingdom under certain Limitations and Reſtrictions therein ſtated, thereby breaking down the Lines eſtabliſhed by the Conſtitution, and with them, every Idea of Diſtinctneſs, of Function and of inherent Dignity attached to Peerage, introducing a Principle tending to divert the reſpective Orders of the State from their conſtitutional Channels.

4. Becauſe the Plea upon which this Meaſure is avowedly founded, viz: that of Neceſſity ariſing from the exiſting State of Things in this Kingdom, together with the Cauſes which are conſidered as having conduced thereto, is as I conceive, with Regard to the Neceſſity of the Meaſure merely factitious in this, that each and every of thoſe Cauſes as to Times paſt, together with every poſſible Conſequence as to Times to come, might have been, as was ſuggeſted, for ever effectually done away, and prevented by an Act of the Iriſh Parliament alone "declaring and enacting the rightful Supremacy "of the Britiſh State as to all Matters of "imperial, external Concern, upon Terms of "equal Benefit to Ireland as to Great Britain, "ſaid Act further declaring and enacting, "that as Ireland did by original Compact "derive the Benefits and Enjoyment of the "Britiſh Conſtitution, communicated and "guaranteed to her upon Terms of her "Maintenance thereof, and Conformity "thereto, the Parliament of Ireland does for "ever diſclaim all Right, Faculty and Power "of altering as to herſelf, without the expreſs Conſent of the Britiſh State, any of "the fundamental Principles of the Conſtitution, whether as originally eſtabliſhed, "or as ſince modified," that as the Adjuſtment reſpecting the Act of Navigation and Channel Trade, as likewiſe the Adoption and Adjuſtment of a Contribution on the Part of Ireland, have from their Nature required, that they be regulated and carried into Effect by the reſpective Parliaments of the reſpective Kingdoms, as eſtabliſhed previous to the paſſing of this Bill, and until it receive the Royal Aſſent, it cannot be aſſumed, even by the moſt daring Aſſertion, that thoſe Meaſures could not be validated, and for ever rendered to all Intents and Purpoſes alike authentic and permanent, although this Bill were for ever to fall to the Ground, thus ſteering clear of the manifold, obvious and unforeſeen Dangers inſeparable from experimental Projects on ſuch vital Points, renovating the Spirit and Faculties, without innovating upon the Principles or Organization of that Imperial Conſtitution of the United Kingdoms, which for more than ſix hundred Years has ſtood the Shock of Time and Event. A Conſtitution ſo founded, upon an Union of Intereſts and Sentiments, that it has given to each Kingdom ſuch rapid Proſperity and ſolid Reſources, and to the Empire at large, ſuch unexampled Energy and Authority, as have enabled her to ſtand the unſhaken Bulwark of Religion, civil Government and ſocial Order, even at this awful Period, when the greater Part of the civilized World ſuffers under the ineffable Horrors of Innovation, Revolution and inteſtine Warfare, without any apparent practicable Object or Termination to their ſelf-extirpating Diſtractions. And finally, becauſe in whatſoever Point of View I conſider this Bill, whether as referring to the Monarchy, the Ariſtocracy or the Repreſentation, and People of both Kingdoms, throughout every Department and Order of the entire State, upon the moſt mature Conſideration directed for a Series of Years to this great Subject, and to all its relative Bearings, Tendencies and Conſequences, I do moſt ſtrongly apprehend that this Bill will in its Operation and Effects prove alike injurious to all, and that it will ſo undermine the Confidence even of the well diſpoſed in this Kingdom, that the utmoſt Influence which will remain to ſuch of the Nobility, firſt Rate Gentry and other Perſons of high Character, and to this Day of perſonal Weight, who ſhall continue to reſide therein, will prove ineffectual to prevent the Abatement of thoſe Affections, and of that Zeal, which from the Nature and Formation of the human Mind, ever riſe or ſink in Proportion to that Confidence on which they are founded. For all which Reaſons, together with many others, which it is not to my Object to enumerate or to ſet forth, and which are, I fear, already too deeply and impulſively felt by almoſt the entire Kingdom, I feel it incumbent upon me, in Aſſertion of my national Pride and perſonal Character, in Juſtice to my political Conſiſtency and perſonal Honor, to tranſmit to Poſterity, this my ſolemn Proteſt againſt this Dereliction of national Right, the Degradation of national Dignity.

BELLAMONT.

DISSENTIENT.

TO that Clauſe in the Bill, recited in the fourth Article, which makes it competent to the Peers of Ireland to be elected Members of the Houſe of Commons of the United Kingdom as the Repreſentatives of Places in Great Britain.

1. Becauſe

1. Becauſe as the Peers of Ireland are after the Union to enjoy all the Privileges of the Peers of Great Britain, (with the Exception of ſitting in the Houſe of Lords) it gives to the Counties and Boroughs of Great Britain the Power of chooſing a Repreſentative from amongſt the Peers, and is therefore an Anomaly in the Conſtitution.

2. Becauſe I conſider the Peerage to be degraded thereby, in as much, as the Peer ſo elected muſt diveſt himſelf of the Rights and Privileges of the Peerage, and aſſume the Condition of a Commoner.

3. Becauſe I conceive it to be repugnant to a fixed Principle of the Conſtitution, that the Peerage with the Privileges incident thereto, conſtitute an indefeaſible Inheritance, and cannot be ſurrendered.

4. Becauſe it creates a Confuſion of the Orders of the State, enabling the Subject being a Peer to act in the Capacity of a Commoner, and then upon his ceaſing to be a Repreſentative of the Commons, to return to his Condition of a Peer.

Impreſſed with ſuch Conſiderations, I cannot refrain from recording my Opinion thereupon, although theſe Proviſions to which I diſſent make Part of a Meaſure, to the Remainder of which I have given every Support, and which, conſidered as to its general Scope, and its other Relations, will, I am convinced, be productive of the greateſt Advantages to Ireland, at the ſame Time that it will increaſe the Strength, the Security, and the Reſources of the Britiſh Empire.

Judgment.

IT is ordered and adjudged, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Judgment of the Court of King's Bench be, and the ſame is hereby reverſed.

The Tenor of which Judgment to be affixed to the Tranſcript of the Record to be remitted, is as follows,

On which Day, at the ſame Court of Parliament, came as well the ſaid Frederick Hamilton, Guſtavus Hamilton and John Foſter, by their Attorney aforeſaid, as Benjamin Hadley, Executor of Elizabeth Lady Viſcounteſs Dowager Boyne, aforeſaid; but becauſe the Court of Parliament aforeſaid, now here, are not yet adviſed to give their Judgment of, and upon the Premiſes, Day therefore is given as well to the ſaid Frederick Hamilton, Guſtavus Hamilton and John Foſter, as to the ſaid Benjamin Hadley, before the ſame Court of Parliament, until Wedneſday the eighteenth Day of June next enſuing, whereſoever, &c. to hear their Judgment thereon, becauſe the Court of Parliament aforeſaid, here, thereof not yet, &c. at which Day, before the ſame Court of Parliament aforeſaid, at Dublin, aforeſaid, came as well the ſaid Frederick Hamilton, Guſtavus Hamilton and John Foſter, by their Attorney aforeſaid, as the ſaid Benjamin Hadley. Whereupon the ſaid Court of Parliament, having ſeen and perfectly underſtood all and ſingular the Premiſes, and having diligently examined and inſpected the ſaid Record and Proceſs, and the Judgment thereupon given, and the ſaid Cauſes and Matters above aſſigned for Error by the ſaid Frederick Hamilton, Guſtavus Hamilton and John Foſter, it appears to the ſaid Court that the ſaid Judgment of the Court of King's Bench is erroneous, and that in giving the aforeſaid Judgment there is manifeſt Error. Therefore it is conſidered by the ſame Court of Parliament, that the Judgment aforeſaid be reverſed, annulled and altogether held for nought: And thereupon the Record aforeſaid, ſaid, as alſo the Proceedings aforeſaid, in the ſame Court of Parliament in the Premiſes had by the ſame Court of Parliament to the Court of the ſaid Lord the King, before the King himſelf whereſoever, &c. are remitted, and that the ſame Court of our Lord the King do therein what to Law and Juſtice ſhall appertain.

and Proteſt. BECAUSE the Principle upon which this Bill is founded, namely, that Juſtice requires, that Compenſation ſhould be made to Cities, Towns and Boroughs, on Account of their being deprived by the Terms of the Union, of a Right to ſend Members to Parliament, is an Acknowledgment of what we have always aſſerted, that the Repreſentation of this Kingdom in the Imperial Parliament, is inadequate to the Purpoſe of ſecuring the Liberty of her People.

Becauſe the Meaſure of Compenſation has been artfully maſked by the Framers of the Bill, under the Pretence of making Allowances to Cities, Towns and Boroughs, although it has been charged and not contradicted, that the real Object of the Bill is, to compenſate Perſons who have a prevalent Intereſt in them for returning of Members to repreſent them in Parliament. This Mode of Proceeding we conſider as an Attempt to impoſe upon Parliament, and ſhews, that the Framers of the Bill were therefore deſirous to keep it back from the Eye of the Public.

Becauſe this Bill was brought in without any Petition or Application on the Behalf of any Bodies Corporate or Individuals, for Allowance to be made in Reſpect of thoſe Cities, Towns and Boroughs, or any of them, which ſhall ceaſe to return any Member to ſerve in Parliament, from and after the intended Union, nor has there been any Enquiry made in either Houſe of Parliament for aſcertaining what Injury they would receive, or what Allowances they ſhould be entitled to upon that Account, and we did apply for a Committee for the Purpoſe of inveſtigating that Subject, but were refuſed. That by the ſaid Bill, Commiſſioners are to be appointed at an annual Expenſe of ſix thouſand Pounds, for aſcertaining Allowances to be made to ſuch Bodies Corporate and Individuals, which Commiſſioners are directed to take an Oath to execute the Office of Commiſſioners, for aſcertaining the Allowances to be made to the ſaid Bodies Corporate and Individuals, whoſe Buſineſs we ſhould have underſtood to be, to enquire whether they or any of them ſuſtained any Loſs that required to be compenſated, and to aſcertain the Sum which ſhould be adequate to ſuch Loſs. Inſtead of which, we obſerve, that the Bill determines that the Allowances to be made by the Commiſſioners to any ſuch Body Corporate, Individual or Individuals, ſhall be fifteen thouſand Pounds, thereby compelling the ſaid ſworn Commiſſioners to aſcertain the Meaſure of Compenſation at the ſaid Sum, whether it ſhall appear to them upon Examination to be adequate or not.

Becauſe the Project of an Union originated in the Parliament of Great Britain, and the Plan of Repreſentation was adjuſted there, and propoſed from thence to the Parliament of this Kingdom. It was therefore, by their Suggeſtion, that the Boroughs intended to be compenſated were deprived of their Right to ſend a Member to Parliament. The Meaſure has been preſſed upon this Kingdom in this Seſſion, notwithſtanding that it was rejected in the laſt Seſſion, and has been carried on contrary to the general Senſe of the Nation. If it be a deſirable one, ſure it muſt be of Utility to the whole United Empire. If therefore any Injury ſhall ariſe to Corporate Bodies or Individuals from carrying it into Execution, the Compenſation to be made to them ought in Juſtice to be provided for by the whole United Empire, which is to partake of the expected Benefit from ſuch Union.

Becauſe the Cities, Towns and Boroughs to which Compenſation is by this Bill to be made, amount to eighty-four, whoſe Repreſentatives being one hundred and ſixty-eight form a conſiderable Majority of the Houſe of Commons. We muſt obſerve, that bringing in a Bill for making Compenſation to Perſons for Injuries before that they have taken Place, and which perhaps may never take Place, is unprecedented, and gives Reaſon to think, that if the ſaid Meaſure had been poſtponed until after that the Union ſhould have actually taken Place, it would have been brought forward in the Imperial Parliament, who would upon an Examination into the Nature of the Claims, and the Amount of the Damages ſuſtained, determine thereupon with Impartiality, and without any Byas upon their Minds ariſing from Attachment to the Places which they repreſented, or to Individuals through whoſe Intereſt they had been elected.

Becauſe that calling upon Ireland to pay the Sum of one Million four hundred thouſand Pounds for Compenſation, occaſioned by the Plan propoſed by the Parliament of Great Britain, is making her a Purchaſer of the Union, and paying that Sum as a Conſideration for the Merger of her Parliament into that of Great Britain.

Standing Order diſpenſed with.

The Houſe, according to Order, proceeded to take into Conſideration the Motion made Yeſterday for diſpenſing with the Standing Order, requiring fourteen Days Notice to be given of the Meeting of Committees upon Private Bills, ſo far as that the Committee to whom the Bill, intitled, An Act to enable certain Truſtees therein named, to raiſe ſuch Sums of Money on the Eſtates deviſed by the Will of the late Reverend John Harvey, of Malinhall, in the County of Donegal, Clerk, as may be neceſſary for obtaining Renewal of certain Freehold and Leaſehold Intereſts deviſed by ſaid Will, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, ſtands committed, may meet on an earlier Day than is appointed.

And Conſideration being had thereof accordingly,

Ordered, that the ſaid Standing Order be diſpenſed with in this Caſe, and that the Committee may meet to conſider the ſaid Bill To-morrow.

Cave and others againſt Lukey.

A Petition of Thomas-John Knox and Mary Knox, praying for the Reaſons therein ſet forth, that the Petitioners as the perſonal Repreſentatives of Elizabeth Shadwell, ought not to be affected or in any way prejudiced by the ſaid Sentence therein mentioned, and as the Petitioners have not had any Opportunity of being heard by their Counſel at their Lordſhip's Bar, that any Order to be pronounced upon the preſent Appeal may be without prejudice to the Rights of the Petitioners, was preſented to the Houſe and read.

Ordered, that the ſaid Petition do lie on the Table.

The Order for the Day being read, for the Judges to deliver their Opinions upon the Queſtions propoſed to them on Tueſday the thirteenth Day of May laſt, Judges Opinion.

Mr. Juſtice Kelly delivered the Opinion of the Judges on the firſt Queſtion put by their Lordſhips,

Whether the Sentence of the Court of Prerogative, pronounced in the Suit inſtituted by Baſil Lukey againſt Richard Cave, to revoke the Letters of Adminiſtration granted to the ſaid Richard Cave of the Goods of the ſaid Inteſtate, and read in Evidence in this Cauſe, be concluſive Evidence, that the ſaid Baſil Lukey is not ſecond Couſin to the Inteſtate Frances Sican?

And ſince that Queſtion was put, their Lordſhips have been pleaſed to order that,

The Lord Chancellor do inform the Judges, that in giving their Opinions on the Effect of the Sentence of the Spiritual Court, which was read in Evidence in this Houſe on the Appeal of Richard Cave and others, from a Decree of the Court of Chancery,—They are not to take into their Conſideration the Allegations fyled in the Court of Prerogative on which the ſaid Sentence is grounded, Copies of which have been improperly laid before them on the Part of the ſaid Appellants; the ſaid Allegations not having been proved or read in the Court of Chancery nor in this Houſe.

We are of Opinion, that the ſaid Sentence unconnected with the Conſideration of the Allegations is not concluſive Evidence, that Baſil

Basil Lukey is not second Cousin of the Intestate Frances Sican.—But your Lordships will be pleased to consider us as giving no Opinion, whether the said Sentence, connected with the Allegations, would or would not be conclusive Evidence of the said Fact.

And on the second, third and fourth Questions, delivered the unanimous Opinion of the Judges in the Negative.

A Motion was made, that the said Cause be remitted to the Court of Chancery, with Liberty to either Party to apply for a Rehearing.

And the Question being put,

It passed in the Negative.

Clare Road Bill, A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. McDonnell and others, with a Bill, intitled, An Act for improving and repairing the Road leading from Tubber near the Bounds of the Counties of Clare and Galway, to Ennis in the County of Clare, and from thence to Thomond Gate in the County of the City of Limerick; to which they deſire the Concurrence of this Houſe.

A Meſſage

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Balfour and others, with a Bill, intitled, An Act for the Protection of Implements of Agriculture, by puniſhing ſuch Perſons as ſhall be guilty of deſtroying the ſame; to which they deſire the Concurrence of this Houſe.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Doctor Duigenan and others, with a Bill, intitled, An Act to facilitate the building and rebuilding of Churches and Chapels; to which they deſire the Concurrence of this Houſe.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bills be read a ſecond time on Monday next.

The Order of the Day being read, for the ſecond Reading of the Bill, intitled, An Act to diſſolve the Marriage of Alexander Montgomery, Eſquire, Captain in his Majeſty's Monaghan Regiment of Militia, with Mary Montgomery, otherwiſe Chute, his now Wife, and to enable him to marry again, and for hearing Counſel for and againſt the ſame.

Counſel were accordingly called in,

And Mr. Solicitor General appearing as Counſel for the Bill, but no Counſel appearing for Mrs. Montgomery againſt it,

William-Owen Mitchell, Gentleman, was called, in order to prove Service of the Order, who being ſworn, acquainted the Houſe, that he ſerved Mrs. Montgomery perſonally with the Order of the Houſe for the ſecond Reading of the Bill, in London, on Thurſday the twenty-ſixth of June laſt, and at the ſame Time delivered to her a true Copy of the Bill.

And then he was directed to withdraw,

Then the ſaid Bill was read a ſecond time.

And the Counſel was heard in ſupport of the Bill, and to make out the Allegations thereof; and in order to prove the Marriage called,

Mrs. Rebecca Creagh, who being ſworn, acquainted the Houſe, that ſhe was preſent at the Marriage of Mr. Montgomery with Mary Chute, now Mrs. Montgomery, ſome Time in the Month of February one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-one, at the Houſe of Francis Chute, Eſquire, ſaid Mary's Father, at Chute-Hall in the County of Kerry, that the Marriage Ceremony was performed by the Reverend Richard Sealy, a Clergyman of the Church of Ireland as by Law eſtabiſhed, and that they lived together as Man and Wife from that Time till about four Years ago,

And then ſhe was directed to withdraw.

Then Mr. Thomas Clark, from the Regiſtry Office of the Conſiſtorial Court of Dublin was called in, and being ſworn, produced the original Definitive Sentence of the ſaid Court, againſt the ſaid Mrs. Montgomery for Adultery with Colonel Thomas Balfour.

And the ſame was read,

And then he withdrew.

Then Elizabeth Garland was called, in Order to prove the Adultery, who being ſworn, gave an Account, that ſhe lived as Servant in the Family of Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery almoſt two Years from November one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, and that during that Time Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery always ſlept in ſeparate Rooms. That about the ſaid Month of November one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, Mrs. Montgomery after having made Witneſs promiſe Secrecy, informed her that ſhe had a criminal Connexion with Colonel Balfour, that ſhe expected him ſoon in Belfaſt, and that when he came there he would mark Mr. Montgomery's Hall Door with Chalk.—That ſome Time afterwards the Hall Door was ſo marked, and on informing Mrs. Montgomery of it, ſhe deſired Witneſs to ſit up late that Night;—that ſhe did ſo, and between twelve and one o'Clock Colonel Balfour came diſguiſed, when Witneſs conducted him privately to Mrs. Montgomery's Bed Chamber, where he remained alone with her during the Night. That the Hall Door was frequently afterwards marked in the ſame Manner, and that at all ſuch Times Witneſs by Mrs. Montgomery's Deſire ſat up later than uſual, and always admitted Colonel Balfour, who went privately to Mrs. Montgomery's Bed Chamber, and remained with her alone during ſuch Nights. That Witneſs always made Mrs. Montgomery's Bed, and that after every Night on which Colonel Balfour ſo remained with her, Witneſs perceived evident Marks of more than one Perſon having lain in it, and is convinced that on thoſe Nights a criminal Connexion took place between them.

That on one of ſaid Nights whilſt Colonel Balfour was naked and in Bed with Mrs. Montgomery, Witneſs locked up Part of his Clothes in an adjoining Cloſet, and on the following Morning before Day Light, Mrs. Montgomery came into her Bed Chamber to get the Key of the Cloſet, at which Time Mrs. Montgomery had on only her Shift, under Petticoat and Bed-gown. That in the Morning after another of ſaid Nights, Witneſs ſaw Colonel Balfour ſitting on Mrs. Montgomery's Bedſide, and Mrs. Montgomery at the ſame Time in Bed, undreſſed; and that another Night, Colonel Balfour having come to Mr. Montgomery's Houſe before Mrs. Montgomery returned from a Party, Witneſs ſaw him in Mrs. Montgomery's Bed, under the Clothes, that Mrs. Montgomery ſoon afterwards came home, and ſhe and Colonel Balfour remained together all Night in the ſame Bed, naked and alone.

That about the Month of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine, Mr. Montgomery went with his Regiment from Belfaſt to Enniſkillen, and Mrs. Montgomery returned to Monaghan, where ſhe informed Witneſs ſhe was pregnant by Colonel Balfour. That ſhe afterwards in May one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine, eloped from Monaghan accompanied by Witneſs and went to London, where ſhe was delivered of a Female Child, which ſhe declared to Witneſs was the Child of Colonel Balfour and not of Mr. Montgomery.

She was directed to withdraw.

Samuel Hunter, Eſquire, Surgeon of the North Lowland Fencibles, was called in, and being ſworn, proved the Death of Colonel Balfour on the ninth of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine.

He was directed to withdraw.

Blayney-Owen Mitchell, Eſquire, was called in and being ſworn, proved that in Conſequence of the Death of Colonel Balfour, no Judgment at Law could be obtained by Mr. Montgomery.

He was directed to withdraw.

Lieutenant-Colonel John Kerr, was called in and being ſworn, declared that Mr. Montgomery was an affectionate and indulgent Huſband, that he was certainly duped by Mrs. Montgomery, that a criminal Intercourſe between her and Colonel Balfour might have been carried on without Mr. Montgomery's Knowledge, and that Witneſs believed him incapable of conniving at ſuch an Intercourſe.

He was directed to withdraw.

Doctor John Mongan was called in, and being ſworn, proved that Doctor George Bartley of Monaghan, was in ſo bad a State of Health that he could not come to Dublin without Danger of his Life.

He was directed to withdraw.

The Depoſitions of the ſaid Doctor George Bartley in the Spiritual Court were then read, by which it appeared, that the ſaid Mrs. Montgomery had on the eighth of May one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine, confeſſed to the ſaid Doctor Bartley, that ſhe was pregnant by the ſaid Colonel Balfour.

Timothy Driſcol, Eſquire, was called in, and being ſworn, proved that a Deed of Separation and Settlement had been entered into and executed by Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery on the thirteenth of January one thouſand eight hundred, and that he was convinced there was not any Colluſion between the Parties, and declared, that Mrs. Montgomery had informed him, that the Child of which ſhe was delivered after her Elopement was the Child of Colonel Balfour and not of Mr. Montgomery.

He was directed to withdraw.

Mr. Montgomery was then called in and being ſworn, declared, that there was not any Colluſion between him and Mrs. Montgomery to procure this Divorce, that he never diſcovered her improper Conduct till after her Elopement in May one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine, and that he had not ſeen her from the ſecond of February preceding.—That the Child of which ſhe was delivered after her Elopement could not poſſibly be his, as he never had any Connexion with her ſince the beginning of September one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, at which Time, under Pretence of ill Health, ſhe requeſted to have a ſeparate Bed, that they continued to ſleep in different Rooms from that Time, and that he was confined to his Bed by a Rheumatic Complaint during the Time of Colonel Balfour's Viſits at Belfaſt.

He was directed to withdraw.

The Evidence being finiſhed, the Counſel were directed to withdraw.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole Houſe. Bill committed.

And the Commons with their Speaker being come, were conducted to the Bar with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament as follows, viz:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

THE whole Buſineſs of this important Seſſion being at length happily concluded, it is with the moſt ſincere Satisfaction that I communicate to you by his Majeſty's expreſs Command, his warmeſt Acknowledgements for that ardent Zeal, and unſhaken Perſeverance which you have ſo conſpicuouſly manifeſted in maturing and completing the great Meaſure of a Legiſlative Union between this Kingdom and Great Britain.

The Proofs you have given on this Occaſion of your uniform Attachment to the real Welfare of your Country, inſeparably connected with the Security and Proſperity of the Empire at large, not only entitle you to the full Approbation of your Sovereign, and to the Applauſe of your Fellow Subjects, but muſt afford you the ſureſt Claim to the Gratitude of Poſterity.

You will regret with his Majeſty, the Reverſe which his Majeſty's Allies have experienced on the Continent, but his Majeſty is perſuaded, that the Firmneſs and public Spirit of his Subjects will enable him to perſevere in that Line of Conduct which will beſt provide for the Honor, and the eſſential Intereſts of his Dominions, whoſe Means and Reſources have now by your Wiſdom been more cloſely and intimately combined.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I am to thank you in his Majeſty's Name, for the liberal Supplies which you have cheerfully granted for the various and important Branches of the public Service in the preſent Year.

His

His Majeſty has alſo witneſſed with Pleaſure, that wiſe Liberality, which will enable him to make a juſt and equitable Retribution to thoſe Bodies and Individuals, whoſe Privileges and Intereſts are affected by the Union, and he has alſo ſeen with Satisfaction that Attention to the internal Proſperity of this Country, which has been ſo conſpicuouſly teſtified by the Encouragement you have given to the Improvement and Extenſion of its Inland Navigation.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have the Happineſs to acquaint you, that the Country in general has in a great Meaſure returned to its former State of Tranquillity: If in ſome Diſtricts, a Spirit of Plunder and Diſaffection ſtill exiſts, thoſe Diſorders, I believe, will prove to be merely local, and will, I doubt not, be ſoon effectually terminated.

The Preſſure of Scarcity on the poorer Claſſes, though much relieved by private Generoſity, and by the ſalutary Proviſions of the Legiſlature, has been long and unuſually ſevere, but I truſt that under the Favor of Providence we may draw a pleaſing Proſpect of future Plenty from the preſent Appearance of the Harveſt.

I am perſuaded, that the great Meaſure which is now accompliſhed, could never have been effected but by a decided Conviction on your Part, that it would tend to reſtore and to preſerve the Tranquillity of this Country, to increaſe its Commerce and Manufactures, to perpetuate its Connexion with Great Britain, and to augment the Reſources of the Empire. You will not fail to impreſs theſe Sentiments on the Minds of your Fellow Subjects. You will encourage and improve that juſt Confidence which they have manifeſted in the Reſult of your Deliberations on this arduous Queſtion. Above all, you will be ſtudious to inculcate the full Conviction, that united with the People of Great Britain into one Kingdom, governed by the ſame Sovereign, protected by the ſame Laws, and repreſented in the ſame Legiſlature, nothing will be wanting on their Part but a Spirit of Induſtry and Order, to inſure to them the full Advantages under which the People of Great Britain have enjoyed a greater Degree of Proſperity, Security and Freedom than has ever yet been experienced by any other Nation.

I cannot conclude without offering to you and to the Nation at large, my perſonal Congratulations on the Accompliſhment of this great Work, which has received the Sanction and Concurrence of our Sovereign on the Anniverſary of that auſpicious Day, which placed his illuſtrious Family on the Throne of theſe Realms. The Empire is now through your Exertions, ſo completely united, and by Union ſo ſtrengthened, that it can bid Defiance to all the Efforts its Enemies may make, either to weaken it by Diviſion, or to overturn it by Force. Under the Protection of the Divine Providence, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, will I truſt, remain in all future Ages, the faireſt Monument of his Majeſty's Reign, already diſtinguiſhed by ſo many and ſuch various Bleſſings conferred upon every Claſs and Deſcription of his Subjects.

After which the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Monday the 22d Day of September next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Monday the 22d Day of September next. Parliament prorogued.
